Stock Exchange Review.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The speculative situation in the stock exchange has settled down into a game of watch and wait, with Washington as the point on which all eyes are fixed. Today the general feeling was that silver repeal was gaining ground, and consequently the majority of the traders were on the bull side of the house. At the very opening of the day there was a fractional decline, but it was only momentary, and sellers soon became buyers. Realizations followed, but before noon the upward movement was resumed. It was not until in final dealings that sales to realize brought about a fractional loss. The general list at the close recorded advances ranging from ⅛ to 2 per cent.

Government bonds closed steady.

The National Bank of California is one of the few banks that successfully stood the shock of the late panic and maintained full coin payments right through.

The National Bank of California pays no interest on deposits in any form, offers no special inducements for business other than reliability when the customers exercise their rights to demand their money.

In the matter of loans it looks more to reliability than high rates of interest, and desires no loans except from good and reliable parties, and then exacts good security, believing that no bank is better or more reliable than its loans.
