

THE NUMBER IS INCREASED.

More Laborers Will Be Given City Employment.

A Committee of Citizens Will Assist the Labor Commission.

The Commission Shrink From the Responsibility—The Bids for City Advertising Finally Acted Upon.

The city council held another meeting yesterday morning principally to consider the subject of employment for the unemployed.

All the members were present except Councilman Gaffey. The labor commission made the following report:

At a meeting of your commission held this January 10, 1894, we find that under the present authorization given the commission on labor appointed by your honorable body that we cannot give the desired number of needy men employment, therefore we would recommend that this commission be empowered to employ 40 additional men and six more teams.

T. E. ROWAN, F. M. NICKELL, F. S. MUNSON.

Mr. Nickell said if the extra men were not put on there would be some who would not get work for two weeks yet. Mr. Strohm said this report did not say anything about the motion of the meeting on Thursday to employ all the unemployed at $1 a day. He moved as an amendment to the report that 300 men be put to work at $1 a day, and the necessary teams at $2.50 a day.

Mr. Nickell said the commission had made a report and he proposed to vote for it.

Mr. Munson said he stood in the same position.

Mr. Rhodes said the report did not meet the requirements. If 300 were put on all would have a change. The council adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock, and in the meantime try to agree with the commission upon some plan of action.

Afternoon Session.

There was considerable caucusing up to the time of meeting again. It leaked out that there had been considerable friction among some of the councilmen. It was charged by some who would not allow their names to be used that two or three councilmen had been endeavoring to inject politics into the plan for giving help to the worthy unemployed.

Considerable indignation was expressed that there should be any such attempt, and there were outspoken assertions that no such attempt should succeed.

After a great amount of talk on all sides it was finally agreed to take the report of the labor commission should go through without amendment, and that hereafter this matter of reducing the rate of pay and making it for six days would be brought up if thought advisable.

Some very work of certain councilmen for the purpose of ingratiating themselves with the laboring classes was thus forestalled, and they will be obliged to try again.

Upon the reassembling of the council, on motion of Mr. Munson, the report of the labor commission was taken up. Mr. Rhodes withdrew his amendment and the original report was approved.

The labor commission then made the following supplemental report, which was adopted:

Recommend that a committee of citizens, one from each ward, be appointed by the president to act in connection with the labor commission, and to recommend to said commission the most urgent and deserving cases for appointment.

That the clerk immediately notify such citizens of their appointment and notify them to meet the commission Tuesday, the 23d inst., at 10 o'clock a. m.

President Teed named the following gentlemen as the committee provided for by the report:

First ward, E. E. Johnson; Second ward, Sutherland Hutton; Third ward, A. J. Copp; Fourth ward, John Chasler; Fifth ward, J. N. Stewart; Sixth ward, Dr. Geo. W. Weeks; Seventh ward, Chas. A. Alexander; Eighth ward, Wm. Fridham; Ninth ward, Geo. W. Simonton.

THE CITY ADVERTISING.

The finance committee recommended with reference to the city advertising: Your committee, to whom was referred the matter of the bids for the city printing, recommend the bid of the Evening Express company, at 25 cents per inch for the first insertion and 20 cents per inch for each subsequent insertion, be accepted, and the city attorney be directed to prepare the necessary contract and bond. The report was approved.

THE COUNCIL THEN ADJOURNED.

MAY GO FOR EVANS.

United States Marshal Gard thinking of it.

It is asserted "on the quiet" that United States Marshal Gard may soon join in the hunt for Evans and Morel, the noted Fresno bandits.

Several days ago news was sent out from Fresno to the effect that the marshal had a posse on Evans' trail, but such was not the fact at the time. It has leaked out that Mr. Gard is thinking seriously of joining in the pursuit of the bandits, but he is not more than likely "something will drop."

He left yesterday for San Francisco in charge of a Chinaman who will be deported. Whether he will return to the city or go into the wilds of Sampson's Flats is not known, though it is believed he will do the latter.

Since the marshal did such effective work in the capture of Evans a year ago he is eager to try his hand again. The reward for Evans and Morel is only $500, but such an unimportant object alone would not cause many men to hunt them.

In Olden Times People overlooked the importance of permanent beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Everybody takes a little care to see that their bowels are kept in good order. It is a fact that if you will try Syrup of Figs you will find it is the best family medicine, and you will never be without it.

BAD BURGLARS BAGGED.

Three Captured in This City by Constable Dowler.

Deputy Sheriff and Constable Dowler of Antelope township captured three burglars at the Natick hotel yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. They were lodged in the county jail, where they gave the names of T. M. Bonner, James Allen and G. Wilson.

The men entered the house of Mr. Ryan at Harold, a station on the Southern Pacific railway, 11 miles from Lancaster, and stole considerable money, jewelry and silverware. Two of them were arrested by Constable Dowler's deputies and lodged in an "excuse for a jail" at Lancaster. The third man assisted the prisoners to escape, and together they came to Los Angeles, arriving early yesterday morning. Constable Dowler followed them and took them in.

They will be taken to Harold today for examination.

POLICE COURT CASES.

Some of Those Who Got Into the Tolls Yesterday.

John J. Foley, charged with attempting to murder J. H. Calhoun by slashing him with a razor last Wednesday night, was arraigned in Justice Austin's court yesterday, and his examination set for next Thursday.

William Korb was fined $30 for battery in striking Charles French. Albert Whitney and Robert Wiles were fined $10 each for bruising a Chinaman.

Joe Chambers was convicted of vagrancy, and will be sentenced today. C. H. Wilson, colored, paid $10 for carrying a concealed weapon. George Sykes was assessed $2 for obstructing the sidewalk by using it for a candy stand.

END OF THE POULTRY SHOW.

It Will Close Tonight at Music Hall.

An Excellent Exhibition of All Kinds of Poultry.

The Canary Birds Singing—Some of the Best Foreign Birds to Remain in the City—The Winners Last Night.

The attendance at the poultry show in Music hall was the largest yesterday of any during the week. The display has been pronounced by critical fanciers to far exceed those of previous years. A large number of sales have been made and quite a number of foreign prize winners have been purchased by local people and will remain in Southern California. Noteworthy is the fine pen of buff Cochins, entered by the Oakland farm of Taunton, Mass. Several persons have made bids for these splendid birds and they will bring a high figure.

The aviary, containing a large number of canary birds, has received considerable attention. When first put in, the birds were not accustomed to the place and appeared badly scared. However, they have gradually accepted the situation and were hard at work yesterday singing.

The show closes tonight. An orchestra will be in attendance to make the show more attractive.

A feature of the show has been the giving away of a number of thoroughbred fowls, the lucky owners being determined by coupon tickets.

The following were the lucky numbers winning pairs of thoroughbred birds last night:

3354, one pair of Barred Plymouth Rocks, donated by Daniel Webster of the Rural California.

3267, one pair of White Leghorns, donated by S. H. Olmsted of Verdugo.

19, one pair of Buff Cochins, donated by Charles Schaeffer of Los Angeles.

3029, one pair of White Wyandottes, donated by C. E. Conklin of Gardena.

3367, one pair of Frizzled Iowas, donated by Paul Conall of Los Angeles.

No. 3398, one pair of white fantail pigeons donated by A. W. Bessey, manufacturer of the Jubilee incubators and brooders, Orange, Cal.

Tonight, the closing one of the show, there will be a gratuitous distribution of first-class birds, and all birds not called for will again be given out. Parties holding winning numbers should call for their prizes at once. The incubators and brooders to be sold tonight are the Plymouth, Victor and Queen City—four machines, including brooders. Besides these there will be a sale of chicks at private sale during the day and at auction in the evening. This afternoon at 3 o'clock sharp Mr. S. Tyler will liberate 12 thoroughbred carrier pigeons, a sight calculated to interest the young people, as it will be children's day at the show.

So far the poultry association feels quite well satisfied with the results of its enterprise. The show, from a technical and artistic point of view, has been pronounced by experts the finest ever held in this state. All lovers of fine fowls should avail themselves of the last opportunity offered today and evening to visit the exhibition.

SHOT HER HUSBAND.

MRS. CALORI FORCED TO DEFEND HERSELF WITH BULLETS.

Her Husband's Brutality Caused the Act—The Woman Surrendered to the Officers Immediately After the Shooting.

Mrs. C. Calori, an Italian woman, whose family resides corner of Ord and New High streets, shot her husband, Joe Calori, in the arm yesterday afternoon.

For many months Mrs. Calori and her little girl have been conspicuous upon the streets as musicians—the mother playing an accordion and the little girl singing. The few dimes picked up in this manner went to the support of the family. Calori is said to be a man who takes all the money thus earned by his wife and daughter.

Yesterday she refused to give him the money, which caused him to threaten to kill her. He armed himself with a revolver and demanded her earnings, kicking and otherwise abusing her.

She secured a revolver, and when he began to abuse her yesterday she used it very effectively, although not as effectively as she intended. He threatened to shoot her and made a move as if to carry out his intentions. She drew her revolver from her bosom and fired, the bullet taking effect in Calori's arm.

The woman went immediately to Sheriff Cline and surrendered herself. She was placed in the county jail, but afterward locked in the city prison upon a warrant charging her with assault with intent to commit murder.

WAS A PECULIAR DECISION.

Will Judge Van Dyke Let Mr. Mulligan Go Free?

An attempt was made yesterday to release W. Mulligan, the horse thief wanted in New York, by habeas corpus proceedings.

The matter was taken before Judge Van Dyke, who continued the matter until today. Attorneys declare that the judge should have promptly dismissed the proceedings, as a warrant has been sworn out charging Mulligan with being a fugitive from justice.

Judge Van Dyke remarked that it would be necessary for the district attorney to file an affidavit declaring Mulligan to be the man wanted. This of course is, on the face of it, an impossibility.

Should Judge Van Dyke keep to this opinion Mulligan may go free tomorrow.

A VERDICT OF GUILTY.

RICHARDS TRIES TO PROVE AN ALIBI BY TURNER.

But Turner's Reputation is the Reverse of Good—He is a Fellow-Prisoner of S. P. Richards.

The trial of S. P. Richards, charged with shooting Officer John Lennon upon the night of September 21st, was concluded yesterday, the case going to the jury late in the afternoon.

The principal witness for the prisoner was James Turner. Turner has been a companion of Richards during the latter's imprisonment, Turner being in jail for stabbing a companion in a brawl.

The witness swore that he was in Richards' company upon the night of the alleged shooting. He declared that Richards, in company with himself and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, spent the evening together. It was Brooks' birthday, and it was celebrated by the four at Brooks' room, 138 1/2 North Spring street, where they played cards until 10:30 o'clock. Then Richards and the witness spent the night together.

Several of Richards' shopmates and friends testified to his general good character and reputation.

Richards is the finest looking specimen of a man seen in the jail for some time. He is magnificently proportioned, and as one of the spectators remarked: "It seems a shame to send a man like that to the penitentiary."

But the jury evidently cared nothing for good looks, for at 9:30 last night they came into court and announced the verdict of guilty of assault with a deadly weapon.

PERSONAL.

Mr. D. E. Miles, the Pacific coast manager of the London and Lancashire Insurance company, whose headquarters are at San Francisco, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Miles returns to San Francisco tonight.

Arthur G. Munn, editor of the San Jacinto Register, arrived in the city yesterday and is registered at the Hollenbeck. Mr. Munn was a visitor at the Los Angeles Press club during his stay here, as was Mr. J. L. Edmundson, editor of the Banning Herald, who came to Los Angeles on Thursday.

Mr. Phil Stanton, the energetic young real estate dealer, returned this week from a short business trip to San Francisco. He is interested in the Anaheim beet sugar factory, and reports that the Southern Pacific Railroad company is now having a survey made to the factory preparatory to putting in a branch line.

Mr. Eugene Field, the well-known writer, who left for New Orleans yesterday morning, will probably return to this city at his earliest opportunity. Mr. Field stated that he liked Los Angeles better than any other place in Southern California, and hoped to eventually locate here. He was accompanied last night by Mr. Leigh Lynch, who is more generally known as "Mr. Field's fat friend."

Charles Mills Gayley, professor of English literature in the state university at Berkeley, will return to this city today from Riverside, where he has been for the past few days. He will go to Santa Barbara tomorrow, and from there to Berkeley. Prof. Gayley, during his stay in Southern California, has delivered a number of lectures on the English drama, which were the finest of the kind ever given in this section.

HANGED HIMSELF UNTIL DEAD.

H. O. Steele Committed Suicide Yesterday.

Despondency Brought On by Illness Was the Cause.

He Was a Prominent G. A. R. Man and an Ex-Precacher—Details of His Death. The Cause.

Harrison O. Steele of New York hanged himself yesterday at the residence of his brother, J. D. Steele, 436 East Twenty-seventh street. Despondency was the cause.

Mr. Steele came to this city about three months ago from New York to visit his relatives. He had been suffering from an painful disease for years, and through his physician contracted the habit of using morphine. Of late he used the drug freely to allay suffering. He visited his brother, C. A. Steele, who has a store on Main street, between Third and Fourth, for quite a while, but his disease became so troublesome that he was removed to the Sisters' hospital. But little could be done for him and he was removed to his other brother's, J. D. Steele, on Twenty-seventh street, about a week ago.

He had often threatened to hang himself, but his relatives treated his assertions in a jocular way.

Yesterday he went out to the barn. Fastening a rope to a high rafter, he closed the door and prepared to die. Placing his head within the noose, he swung off and died within a few minutes.

His sister, aged 75, noticing the door closed, went to investigate. She found him lifeless and calling assistance had the body cut down. It was removed to the undertaking room of Cussen & Cunningham, where Coroner Cates held an inquest last evening.

Deceased was 71 years of age. He was an old soldier and prominent member of the G. A. R. and was formerly a preacher.
