That's what people say who have tried a small ad, in The Herald. They don't cost much, but the results are simply marvelous. In this popular department The Herald has made a gain of more than 250 per centin the past few months. Big circulation counts. The Herald has it. If you want to talk to half the people in Los Angeles and other parts of Southern California, try a small ad. In addition to the immense and rapidly hierensing circulation of The Herald, its sales by newsboys, on trains, at hotels and summer resorts, make it the advertising medium of the Hadle coast.

It has a voir those small advertisone insteady. They will interest you and may make you some more. The results will be bath surfaces.

FOR SALE—20 ACRES IN WALNUTS, peaches, prunes and figs, near city, railroad, school and church; moist soil; as fine as the sun shines on; in bearing; healthy, vigorous growth, at $25 an acre and the cost only of preparing planting and bringing to its present productive condition; this orchard needs no irrigation; you are not wading in water and mud nine menths out of the year, up to your center of gravity, to keep life in your trees, besides paying as much for water as the profit on your crop; I have had year of practical experience, and I know what I am saying when I tell you, Mr. Tenderfoot, that there is not an acre of ground in this country of climate that is worth mo e than $50 an acre; the only curse resting on this beautiful land is the outrageously exorbitant price of raw land demanded by these shylocks who are selling it, and you tenderfeet are the deluded victims who are furnishing the pound of flesh. Paste this in your hat and address OWNER, W. C. T. U. bldg., room 2.

an insolvent debtor. Order of adjudication of insolvency.

Cadet Iribarne having filed in this court his petition, schedule and inventory of insolvency, from which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Cadet Iribarne is hereby declared to be insolvent. The sheriff of the County of Los Angeles is hereby directed to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the said Cadet Iribarne, insolvent debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account, and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons are forbidden to pay any debts to the said insolvent, or to deliver any property, belonging to such insolvent, to him or to any person, firm, corporation or association for his use; and the said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property, until the further order of this court, except as herein ordered.

It is further order of that all the creditors of said the further order of this court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered, that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Hon. Waiter Van Dyke, Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, in open court, at the Court-room of said court in the County of Los Angeles on the sixth day of April, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or niore assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered, that the order be published in The Herald, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the County of Los Angeles, as often as the said paper is published, before the said day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered, that, in the mean time, all proceedings against the said insolvent be stayed.

WALTER VAN DYKE,
Judge of the Superior Court.

Dated March 27th, 1896.
