The members of the committees appeinted by the Democratic county convention, the Populist county convention, the Labor Congress and the Fre-Silver Republicans held a joint meeting yesterday afternoon at the rooms of the Populist county central committee, at the corner of New High and Temple streets.

These committees were all delegated by the bodies which they represented to confer with each other as to a plan of fusion on legislative, judicial and supervisoral nominations, with a view of placing in the field at the forthcoming election a union county ticket, which would be supported by all of the organizations named.

There were present at the conference Judge A. M. Stephens and W. R. Burke representing the Democrats. Mr. James, the third Democratic conferee, was de tained elsewhere by business and could not attend the meeting. Mr. Schaffer and Capt. F. B. Colver represented the Labor Congress. Nathan Cole, jr., and Sutherland Hutton stood for the Silver Republicans. The Populists were represented by Secretary J. B. Fulton and two others.

The conference was convened prompt ly at 3 p. m., and it was decided that an executive session would be advisable, and that at the proper time full and complete information would be given the press as to what was done.

Messrs. Cole and Hutton, on behalf

The final report of the committee, when agreed upon, will be submitted to the Democratic and Populist county conventions, both of wich will conventions, both of wich will conventions will proceed to fill out the ticket according to the division made. The nominations of each convention will be reported to the other for approval, and when this final approval of the entire ticket is obtained, then fusion is an accomplished fact and the "Union County Ticket" will be in the field, giving voters an excellent opportunity to destroy the Republican machine.

MAYOR PARTERS POSITION

MAYOR RADER'S POSITION

Will in the Future Defend Himself From the Mayor Rader was yesterday very numerously congratulated. Citizens of all shades of political opinion called upor him and shook him warmly by the hand. spoken manner in which he had denied the story put in circulation by the the machine candidate for the Republi-can nomination for state senator as against Robert N. Bulla, and for the fearful tongue lashing he had given Clonel Hellison Glay Otis, whom he had denounced as a "cur, a liar and a blackguard."

"My language was very strong" said had denounced as a "cur, a liar and a blackguard."

"My language was very strong," said Mayor Rader, in talking about the matter yesterday, "but the occasion warranted it. This person has for months been insulting and defaming me through the columns of his paper. I had borne it all until silence ceased to be a virtue. In talking about such vermin as he is it takes strong language to cover the ground, and I was therefore fully justified in using it.

"The matter will drop here, I hope. But I do not propose to continue to be assailed and villified, to have my integrity and my manhood brought into question by this Otis person or anyone else without defending myself. If a skunk attacks me the use of the weapons of that peculiar animal is fully justified. A skunk, under ordinary circumstances, would be handled with gloves, but if I am called on to do so I will handle one without gloves."

JETER IS ALL RIGHT

He Will Hold for the Full Term and So Will Sheriff John Burr The intelligence received in this city yesterday to the effect that the supreme court had decided that William Jeter of Santa Cruz was the legal and lawful lieutenant-governor of California created great surprise, more particularly in Republican political circles.

Lieutenant-governor-elect S. G. Millard died shortly after his election.
Governor James H. Budd thereupon appointed the Democratic nominee for that office, William Jeter, to succeed him.
The Republican contention was that

A UNION COUNTY TICKET

Governor Budd's appointment did not hold good only until the next general election, and that he had no authority to appoint Mr. Jeter for the full unexpired term of Mr. Millard. The governor held to the contrary, and all political parties in this state nominated at their conventions a candidate for lieutenant-governor.

REPUBLICAN MACHINE TO BE DOWNED

This decision not only settles the question directly involved, but it also determines whatever doubt existed as to whether or not John Burr, the sheriff, will hold his office for four years or not under the appointment of the board of supervisors. Mr. Burr will serve his full term out. His friends were last evening congratulating him, but the friends of Mr. Lynch, the Republican nominee for lieutenant-governor, who lives at Cucamponer. AN OPEN LETTER

The following open letter to Col. Hellison Glay Otis is from an old-line Missouri Republican, N. C .Burch. The gentleman has been honored by the rank and file of his party as clerk of the supreme court of Missouri, and comes from that part of the country where Republicans are very scarce at times, who, until the present campaign opened, were very warm partisans. The letter is an interesting one and is well worthy of perusal. An answer is worthy of perusal. An answer is awaited: Editor Times, Los Angeles, Cal.: It Editor Times, Los Angeles, Cal.: It is useless attempting to disguise the fact that a large number of Republicans are bimetallists, and that many of them will vote for the Bryan presidential electors and the free silver candidates for congress and the state legislatures as the best and surest means of obtaining bimetallism at any time in the near future. They have made up their minds to this, and no amount of abusive cartooning or editorial lampooning ive cartooning or editorial lampooning on your part will deter them from it. I submit to you, as a patron of the Times, that it is just as well to be fair and give us free and respectful discussion That we may see at a glance the real difference in the declaration of the sil-ver Republicans from that of the gold Republicans on the question of coinage, the two declarations are submitted in parallel columns:

parallel columns:

Gold Republican.

"We are opposed to the free colnage of silver. except by old and silver as equal standard ment with the leading commercial nations of the world, which we pledge and independent ourselves to procolnage of gold and mote; and, until such silver at our mints at agreement can be the ratio of 16 parts obtained, the exist-of silver to 1 of gold."

The silver Republican declaration is must be preserved."

The silver Republican declaration is substantially the same as all former Republican declarations on the subject, particularly that of the national Republican convention of 1892. Both were written by Senator Henry M. Teller. The one quoted above was presented and supported by a minority of the late St. Louis convention. It expressed the convictions of the Republican party in 1892, and it is claimed that it expresses the convictions of the true Republicans of the party in 1896. It is certain that the declaration quoted above as that of the gold Republicans never appeared in a national Republican platform before, and I venture to say that it would not appear there now were enlarged."

When? Not when England agrees to it, but now, at the time of his speaking. Not even when Wall street agrees to it, metallic conference in May, 1894, he metallic conference in May, 1894, he said:

"Now, having disposed of my two first questions (in the affirmative), the possibility and morality of adopting the double system, there remains only the third question, whether it is expedient to do so; and on this I may, perhaps, be allowed to say, by way of preface, that I think it will not only be inexpedient, but also impossible to do so unless the government of the day which sets to work to deal with this great problem has behind it the balance of opinion in the greatest financial city of the world, viz.: London."

In other words, until Lombard street, London, is converted to the double system it will not only be inexpedient but impossible. This is precisely the position of the Republican party in its St. Louis platform. Its possibility is all right, and its morality is all right, but until a majority of the greatest aggregation of money loaners in all the world agree to it it is inexpedient. For cold-blooded, merciless brutality, by the side of this the example of the Shylock of Shakespeare is that of a saint.

Now, Mr. Editor, there is scarcely an issue of the Times in which your silver Republican friends are not charged with dishonesty and repudiation, are not you doing the same thing? The only difference being that you want company in your crime and we don't.

You say that we want to pay a dol-

we don't.
You say that we want to pay a dollar of indebtedness with a 50-cent piece.
Now, don't you want to do the same thing as soon as Lombard street, London, will let you?

don, will let you?

In conclusion, are you not willing to admit that the truth of this charge is exactly the reverse of your statement of it, namely, that we don't want to be compelled to pay 50 cents of indebtedness with a dollar piece? Very respectfully,

N. C. BURCH.

Tropico, Cal., Sept. 2, 1896.

DEPARTMENT SHORT

Plenty of Goldbug Literature at Washington but Everything Else is Out The departments at Washington are not overly anxious to give out any statistical information at this juncture that would tend to have any bearing of a favorable character upon the silver ques-tion. As illustrating this fact it is only necessary to print the letter given be-the statistical abstract of 1895, of which there are always numerous copies circulated throughout the country by the government to the people. Quite an interval of time elapsed and Mr. Fulton received the following:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Bureau of Statistics.

Sir: I acknowledge the receipt of your request for a copy of the statistical abstract for 1895. The edition given to this bureau was so small that it has been entirely exhausted. You may obtain a copy of the abstract by remitting, by postal money order only, twenty-five (25) cents to the superintendent of documents, government printing office, Washington, D. C., Respectfully yours,

WORTHINGTON C. FORD,

Chief of Bureau.

There are more copies left, it seems, but they can only be obtained for coin. The supply of gold standard literature the treasury officials are circulating though is inexhaustible.

BUSINESS MEN

They Are Appealed to Form a Sound Money

League
This evening there will be a meeting of some of the advocates of the gold stand-ard at the rooms of the McKinley club, at the corner of First street and Broadway. The object of the meeting is to discuss the financial issue and to perfect the organization of what will be termed "The Business Men's Sound Money League." League. Yesterday the following circular was distributed throughout the business portion of the city in stores and offices:

BUSINESS MEN'S SOUND MONEY LEAGUE. Meeting for preliminary organization at old California club rooms, First and Broadway, Friday evening, Sept. 4th.—Every business man and voter who favors a sound and stable currency is urged to be present. Able speakers, including M. L. Graff, A. H. Naftzger, Col. A. de Leur and others will address the meeting. Don't forget the time and place-Friday evening, September 4th, old California club, corner of First street and Broadway.

CHARLES FORMAN, O. T. JOHNSON, KASPARE COHN, F. K. RULE, H. W. FRANK, J. R. NEWBERRY,

The gentlemen whose names are signed to the call are prominent in commercial and banking circles. Messrs. Forman and Cohn have heretofore acted with the Democracy in national politics. Messrs Johnson, Rule, Frank and Newberry have been and are yet Republicans.

Cole and Hutton, on behalf of the Free Silver Republicans, thanked the conferences for the consideration shown them in inviting them to send representatives to be present at the consultation. They stated, however, that the Free Silver Republicans were morphing and acting in this campaign from purely conscientious motives and for principle, and principle alone.

They stated that the great body they represented were not asking for offices and desired none. They stood prepared, as honorable men, to do anything and everything to advance the interests of free silver coinage, to elect William J. Bryan to the presidency and to defeat James McLachian for congress. Further than this they, as a body, did not care to go.

The remarks of the gentlemen were met with applause, and the Free Silver Republican leaders were congratulated upon the position they had taken with regard to the white metal.

The meeting was harmonious in every respect, and the general idea of county fusion was indorsed by a unanimous vote.

The details will not be fully arranged until a later meeting which is to be held. The Democrates and Populists will make about an even division of the ticket by several nominees who have been actively identified with local labor interests.

The workingmen will also be represented on the ticket by several nominees who have been actively identified with local labor interests.

Yours faithfully, EUGENE V. DEBS.

The Eighth Ward Bryan Club Addressed by Judge Utley and Others The largest gathering of ladies and gentlemen witnessed in the Eighth ward for years was present at the Eighth ward Bryan silver club headquarters to

The meeting was opened by J. B. Fulton and S. A. Waldron was elected temporary secretary.

J. D. Steele rendered a song entitled Silver, which was well received and heartily encored.

President A. J. Dahl then urged all to pay close attention to the address to be delivered by Judge A. J. Utley.

Judge Utley spoke for an hour and a half and in a clear and logical discourse replete with facts and figures in support of the cause of free and unlimited coinage of silver. Despite the fact that many were obliged to stand up on account of the immense crowd, enthusiasm never for an instant waned. All were satisfied that a better treat than the judge gave them could not be wished for. A number of colored gentlemen who had heretofore been pronounced gold men, declared that the judge had fully convinced them, that it was to their interest to stand for free and unlimited coinage, and are now going to form a Bryan silver club to be composed of colored men.

The club, at the conclusion of the judge's address, accorded him three rousing cheers.

S. A. Waldron made some telling remarks that were well received.

S. E. Fulton made a statement concerning the misrepresentations of newspapers in quoting E. V. Debs.

Twenty-five new members signed the roll of membership during the meeting.

Secretary Apfiel requested that an executive session of the club be held at the conclusion of the public meeting.

Pree Silver Republicans The Free Silver Republicans
The Free Silver Republicans are keeping up their good work. Forty-six names were added to the rolls at the headquarters yesterday. A handsome banner has been swung across the street, and the active campaign work has been fairly inaugurated. It is now confidently predicted that the three thousand mark will be passed before the first of October.

To Disseminate Silver Literature E. A. Reimann, agent of the Silver Knight, Downey, Cal., wants the secretaries of the Bryan Silver clubs in Los Angeles and Orange countles to send him their address, time of meeting of clubs, when and where, so he can furnish them with silver literature and call on them.

The regular weekly meeting of the Bryan Silver club takes place this evening at Turnverein All, on South Main street between Third and Fourth streets, at 8 oclock, sharp. W. S. Creighton, John H. Humphreys, H. C. Dillon and Moye Wicks will address the meeting.

AT THE THEATERS

LOS ANGELES THEATER-Another delighted audience listened to the larklike singing of Chauncey Olcott at this house last night as the dashing hero in The Minstrel of Clare. The play is laid in the County Clare and the story is a beautiful picture of life among the small farmers, with a breezy vein of rich Celtic humor, and a delicately told love story woven through the warp and woof of villianly and oppression. Naturally however strong the play and the company presenting it, all was overshadowed by the superb singing of Mr. Ol cott. Among the ballads, The Minstrel Boy and the Young Rose, two sterling favorites with the good old-fashioned folk who love the songs of old with their beautiful melodies and honest sentiment, were sung by Mr. Olcott with wonderful sweetness and power and made the audience wild with enthusmade the audience wild with entiusiasm. In fact, it has been a long time since any actor has raised such a mead of commendation here as has been inspired by Mr. Olcott's sterling histrionic work and fils superb signing.

The support was excellent. Mr. The support was excellent. Mr. Meredith as Dan Cregan appeared to magnificent advantage in some very strong character work. Beautiful Miss Bushby was at home in the loving role of Nellie Cregan, and Mr. Martens' Matt Duggan was a splendid bit of stage portraiture. Mr. Gilfether's Robert Wynbert, Mr. Gilmore's Dan, the erring son, Mrs. Coleman and Martin as the McKays and the rest of the cast acquitted themselves admirably. The scenic environments were beautiful.

BURBANK THEATER.—Me. Leonard Grover's comedy, My Son-in-Law, received its first performance in this city last evening at the Burbank. The studion may be summed up by saying it made a most decided hit. The comedy is breezy and full of life. The situations are among the most comical one ever saw. The story is of a young man, Cholmondelly Stuart, who, tiring of a life of flirtation, resolves to marry and become respectable. After he has made his choice, he, like one of the Goulds, employs a private detective agency to look up the antecedents of the young lady's parents. The prospective mother-in-law praises him for his discretion and resolves, in her turn, to investigate the moral chaacter of the young man. To this end she visits various piaces, and the chase gets closer until all parties meet at Coney island, where the young man is giving a dinner to some young ladies. Here the fun becomes fast and furious. The act received a double curtain call.
