

TERMINAL ATTRACTIONS

PEOPLE OF PASADENA WON'T SIGN ALL PETITIONS

Pink's Unruly Horses Create a Sensation on Colorado Street—Brevities and Personals

PASADENA, July 1.—(Office of The Herald, 55 East Colorado street.) The fight for the Terminal franchise is growing hotter. It is the talk of the streets today. Trustees Robbins and Lockett, on one side, are in favor of granting the franchise, and Mayor Patten and Trustee Reynolds are presumed to be against it. Moag's constituents are urging him to stand for the Terminal, while they approve of his action in proposing a recent basis for the franchise, still they are afraid that the whole matter may fall to the ground as a result of exacting more than the Terminal will concede. Of course, it is agreed that a clause in the franchise to this effect would be the proper thing. Yet many citizens suggest that the 10-cent fare will be brought about by competition, and the business ought to be clinched before it slips away. That a very large majority of the people are in favor of the franchise was proved this afternoon by the circulation of a petition by the friends of the present road, which petition was meant to serve an entirely different purpose. The petition set forth in substance that the undersigned were averse to the admission of the Terminal Electric railway upon the ground that there are at present sufficient steam and electric facilities for travel between Los Angeles and Pasadena, and that in the event of a new road's being built the city would lose the large sum of money now paid by the present road for the privileges which it enjoys. Two copies of the petition were circulated. One by E. Gougar and another by H. P. Randall. Mr. Gougar went among the business men of the city, and was told by about 90 per cent. of them that they wanted to see the Terminal enter the city. Mr. Randall visited North Main and North Euclid avenues and vicinity and secured thirty-seven names. Euclid avenue, it will be remembered, furnished a majority of the protesters who appeared before the council on Wednesday. Mr. Randall found that some property owners along the route of the proposed line were opposed to it, while outsiders were nearly all either indifferent or in favor of the road. The petitions were gotten out with the hope of obtaining enough signatures to influence the council in favor of refusing the franchise, and such they must be signal failures, and there is general satisfaction among the friends of the franchise over the result of the effort. A special session of the council as a committee of the whole was held this evening, lasting from 8 until 10 o'clock. Vice-President Gibson of the Terminal was present, and the franchise was thereupon discussed from beginning to end. The result was very encouraging to Mr. Gibson, who, when the meeting was over, seemed to feel confident that the Terminal would eventually be granted its franchise. The proposed ordinance was gone over carefully, and it was decided to turn over the papers bearing on the case to Attorney C. J. Willets for examination tomorrow. In the temporary absence of Acting City Attorney W. S. Wright, Mr. Gibson declined emphatically to agree to a 10-cent fare, saying that such a fare would be suicidal to the company. Nevertheless, it must come, he admitted, in the course of a few years, when travel has greatly increased and competition has become lively. In regard to a track, Mr. Gibson says that his road would not dare to run along a single track and depend upon short sidings for the passing of cars. He assures the council that a double track will be built.

Galloping Horses

A team of horses came galloping into town along Colorado street from the east this evening at about 7 o'clock. They dragged a single-tree and harness, and at the corner of Colorado street and Raymond avenue, near the Masonic temple, they crashed into a buggy occupied by S. F. Benham and Miss Benham. Both occupants were thrown out and the buggy was badly smashed. Miss Benham suffered a few bruises, but was not very seriously hurt. Officer Reynolds got on his wheel and rode east to see where the horses had come from. Beyond Los Robles avenue he found George M. Frink and family, including his wife, two daughters and a son, with the wagon. The horses had broken the single-tree and Mr. Frink had been unable to hold them. He expressed his regret at the damage the team had done and agreed to pay the costs. Frink's team was stopped and caught immediately after the collision downtown.

Brevities

The earthquake which struck the town last night at about 11:30 o'clock frightened a number of people out of their senses. Downtown the brick buildings shook and cracked with a sound like firecrackers. The occupants in some cases came running into the streets. Many persons who were awakened by the shock state that the effect upon them was nauseating. The death of Miss Mary E. Proudfoot, aged 56 years, occurred today at the family home on the corner of Washington street and Moline avenue. Deceased was a native of Pennsylvania and had resided here several years. Interment will be made in Mountain View cemetery. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made. The Valley Hunt club last evening was attended by a large number of invited guests of the club, some of them being from Los Angeles and out of town. Dancing was indulged in and refreshments were served. About 200 persons were present.

THE PREACHERS OBJECT

SANTA ANA MAY NOT HAVE A MASK CARNIVAL

One Feature of a Fourth of July Celebration That May Not Materialize

SANTA ANA, July 1.—The much talked of masquerade carnival for the Fourth of July celebration in this city, which promised to be a successful affair, has met with a strong opposition from the ministers of Santa Ana. A meeting was held in the Methodist church today and attended by all the preachers, to protest against the carnival and dance, claiming that such amusements will have an immoral effect on the young people, that it is an injudicious proceeding and will bring into Santa Ana all the disreputable people in the county, and they will do all in their power to suppress it. A set of resolutions, signed by all present, was drawn up at their meeting this afternoon, in which they expressed their views in the matter, and asked the support of all peace-loving citizens in suppressing the carnival. They have also called a mass meeting for tonight in Spurgeon's hall to further discuss the affair and take steps toward having it stopped.

The six weeks' extension of time granted to E. H. Rollins & Son, the purchasers of the sewer bonds of Santa Ana, expires next Monday, and the sale of the $60,000 worth of bonds will probably be consummated at the meeting of the city trustees on Tuesday evening, as they have received no unfavorable report from the buyers.

The following applicants have successfully passed the examination for grammar grade school certificates: Misses Nannie Patton, Grace Baker and Leander Good. Special certificates in music were granted Misses Minna Grace Roper and Olivia Easterbrook.

W. S. Taylor, an attorney of Los Angeles, and Miss Minnie Cummings of this city were married last night at the residence of R. J. Blee in this city. Rev. P. G. Taylor officiated. The bride was attended by six little girls who acted as bridesmaids. A large number of guests were present and some very handsome gifts received. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left this morning for Mt. Lowe to spend their honeymoon, after which they will reside in Los Angeles.

A marriage license was issued today to Graciel Moreno, aged 27, and Gregorio Arborescino, aged 33, both residents of Capistrano.

The officers of Troop E have called a drill for Saturday evening at the armory, when the members of the company will be measured for uniforms.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McKee of Phoenix are visiting relatives here and in Garden Grove.

Mrs. Etta Norman of San Francisco is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Greenleaf, on North Ross street.

BEANS FOR HORSE FEED

A Riverside Man Inaugurates a New Industry

RIVERSIDE, July 1.—A. G. Tingman, a well-known resident of the desert country, has inaugurated a new industry at Indio, which gives every promise of becoming quite an important one as well as paying one. Mr. Tingman has built himself a mill at that place for grinding the mesquite bean for horse feed. He has the mill in running order and so far has manufactured quite a lot of the beans into shape for the market. Mr. Tingman expects to secure raw material enough growing wild to keep his mill in operation for some time to come. He has finally secured the twenty-five names of men who agree to enlist in the company of mounted riflemen which is to be mustered in here. These companies, which were suggested by Sheriff Cunningham of San Joaquin county, are to be formed in every county, and their duty will be principally to assist the sheriff in the capacities of posse, but they will also be ready to respond to any call of duty.

An important arrest was made here yesterday when the officers gathered in a resident of Etiwanda named Antonio La Fourcade, who has been wanted for a long time on a charge of selling liquor to Indians. La Fourcade is the owner of a wine ranch near Etiwanda, and he has for some months been been selling the product of his ranch here and selling it. La Fourcade was caught red handed by the officers.

Out of twenty-seven applicants at the late primary teachers' examination thirty were successful, as follows: Celia Wilbur, Riverside; Katharine Lacy, Riverside; Gertrude T. Morris, Maricopa; Marie B. Morris, Riverside; Minnie Hudson, San Jacinto; May T. Bowler, Pomona; Olive Elwell, Riverside; Helen A. Lee, Covina; Clara Johnson, Riverside; J. E. White, Riverside; Marion Kimmell, Hemet; Alda Whitlock, San Jacinto; H. F. Henderson, Elnore.

Out of the thirteen applicants, who took the grammar grade examinations seven were successful, as follows: Lela M. Burgess, Arlington; Willis Green, Riverside; Celia Wilbur, Riverside; Ray Cree, San Jacinto; Ora Tomlins, Fallbrook; Josephine Pootes, Redlands; Martha Mathews, Riverside.

JAMES DUFFY IS DEAD

AFTER LYING UNCONSCIOUS FOR THREE WEEKS

San Bernardino Teachers Who Will Have Schools the Forthcoming Year

SAN BERNARDINO, July 1.—The funeral of James Duffy today recalled an accident on a bridge, three weeks ago, through which he met his death. He was working for the contractors on the new railroad from Daggett to the borax works, or Borate, as the place is called, and when building a bridge over the Mojave river, about fifteen miles from Daggett, at Mule Camp Canyon, Duffy went out on the outside of a plank, from which the walls had been drawn, and fell to the bed of the river, about thirty feet. He was unconscious when picked up and remained so until his death yesterday. He was brought to the county hospital on June 7th, where an examination revealed that, while suffering from a concussion of the brain, the skull was not fractured, but the bones of the hip were broken in several places, and although he lived three weeks in this condition, he never regained consciousness. His death was caused by the carelessness of some one, and although no inquest was held, inquiries are being made that may locate the responsibility for his death more accurately than can be done at present. The deceased came here from Los Angeles, where he has friends, and it is thought he has relatives in Chicago. The superintendent of the work telegraphed in to give the remains a good burial.

The committee has completed its labors and announced the results of the recent examination of teachers for the public schools. There were forty-two candidates for the primary grade and thirteen for the grammar grade. Of these twenty-three of the former succeeded and only four of the latter, making a total of twenty-seven certificates among fifty-five applicants, a trifle less than 50 per cent. Of these there were seventeen already holding certificates, there being but ten really new candidates for pedagogical honors. The names of the successful ones for primary honors are Julia E. Stoughton, Frances A. Esby, Katie E. Sullivan, Lulu Brooks, Cora A. Healy, Edith Shuman, Mary G. Trippett, Winifred Yager, Bertha Wentworth, Harriet Craig, Carrie Stempel, Neil R. Cameron, Stella A. Fording, Nellie G. Hill, Robert Carmichael, Mrs. G. M. Jones, Amy Graves, Anna Ashdown, Lena McDougall, Grace Roberts, Thekla Outshout and T. M. Coleman. There was one on credentials, Mrs. Georgia Morse Love. The successful ones for the grammar grade certificates were S. J. Miller, Clara E. Cameron, Wm. G. Davies, Walter D. Smith. High school certificate on credentials were given to H. Kirk, and a special high school certificate to L. D. Perry of Colton. The following had certificates renewed: Grace E. Clarke, Lillian Hanna, Zipha Ames, Mrs. Gertrude A. Butler, Guadalupe Estudillo, May Bates, Mrs. J. Herbst, Alice E. Caldwell, Josephine Boates, Margaret E. Oliver, Mrs. Emma Hodge and Anna Keagle were recommended for life diplomas. Gertrude H. Yager for an educational diploma and Grace A. Conway for a normal certificate.

The Redlands high school has sent in its subscription to patriotism amounting to $25.30, and the Lugonia school has added $4.85 to its former figures, making the total American Boy fund for the county to date, $386.76, and there is no more sight.

A marriage license has been issued to David H. Akey, a native of Minnesota, aged 24, and Florence N. Brasswell, a native of Iowa, aged 28, both being residents of Ontario.

The cadet brigade came down from the mountains last evening, dusty and weary, but wearing quite the airs of veterans.

There is a big kick from the miners who have shipped ore to the Barstow smelter, as the results do not bear out the expectations. Ores that assayed from $40 to $70 per ton only go $5 to $11 per ton from the smelter.

A STARTLING REQUEST

SPRUNG UPON THE SAN DIEGO CITY COUNCIL

Southern California Mountain Water Company Wants to Put in a New Distributing System

SAN DIEGO, July 1.—At a meeting of the water committee of the city council last night the following startling communication was received from the Southern California Mountain Water company, and addressed to the council:

"The San Diego Electric railway has purchased and now has en route rails to relay its track on Fifth street, D street and H street, and as this will necessitate tearing up of the main part of the streets referred to, the California Mountain Water company would like for you to definitely locate the position of the water pipes to be laid by this company. We have the pipe en route, ordered of the size and weight called for by the specifications adopted by the city at the time of issuing $1,500,000 for the acquisition of a new water system, and, it being very objectionable to tear up the streets of this city more than once, we should like to lay the water pipes and make the house and hydrant connections before the railroad track is relaid."

The committee will recommend that the permission asked for be granted, but the proposition's coming at this time is like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, as it was generally believed that the recent adverse decision of the supreme court on the water bonds had put a quietus on the whole proposition.

The seventh report of Receiver C. W. Pauly of the Golden Cross Mining company at Hedges was filed today and allowed by the court. According to the report, the clean-up for the month of May from the 100-stamp mill yielded $46,444.94 in gold bullion, and this, with receipts from other sources, made a total revenue for the month amounting to $47,944.44. The disbursements for the month of May were $36,521.73, the pay roll alone amounting to $10,200.

The divorce case of Priscilla J. Strifflin against Samuel Strifflin was called for trial today behind closed doors. The grounds for divorce are desertion and adultery. The couple have been married for almost fifty years, and have grandchildren living in this county.

Annie E. Judd has been granted a divorce from C. W. Judd. The custody of four children was awarded to the mother, and Mr. Judd was ordered to pay $40 per month alimony to the support of his children.

Two Deaths at Santa Monica
SANTA MONICA, July 1.—Wm. Beck of Redondo, who came here a couple days ago for the benefit of his health, was found dead in his bed at the Atlanta hotel this morning. Coroner Campbell was summoned to hold an inquest. He found that deceased came to his death from fatty degeneration of the heart. Deceased was a miner, 38 years of age, a native of Ireland and owner of mining property at Handsburg.

Mrs. Dora Anderson, a native of Germany, 51 years of age, died at her home on Ninth street yesterday afternoon and was buried today.

Teachers' Examinations
Examinations for grammar grade teachers' certificates began at the Normal school building yesterday morning.

Nearly one hundred applicants presented themselves for examination, and among the number were about a dozen men.

The subjects were general history, pedagogy and physics. The examination will continue today and Tuesday. It is said that the questions this year are difficult, but unusually fair and of a general character.

Accidental Drowning
An inquest was held at the undertaker's rooms of Breece Brothers yesterday morning on the remains of Logan Stair, the 13-year-old boy who was accidentally drowned while swimming in the Natatorium Thursday. A verdict of accidental death, but recommending that more care be taken by the Natatorium people to prevent similar accidents in future, was returned.

This Is the Last Day

No premium ballots will be given after 5 o'clock p. m. today. The rush of new subscribers to take advantage of the offer was greater yesterday than at any time during the contest.

Today should bring those who have continuously promised to secure premium ballots for some one of the contestants.

Each candidate needs every obtainable vote he can get. Robbins has gone over the fifty thousand mark, with W. A. Brown, McInerney and Cornell close in his wake.

The Traction employees have worked unitedly for their candidate, Robbins, as a matter of pride in making their line winner of the watch if possible. The total for yesterday was 9031, being evenly divided between Robbins, W. A. Brown and G. H. Cornell. Every candidate and friend should exert themselves today to obtain these premium votes, on the following basis:

1 month's paid-up subscription, 75c.....25 votes
