FROM HONOR TO SHAME

It was a righteous judgment that the Mercenaries, led by Mrs. W. H. F. Gates, had delivered the thirteenth state to its people. Mrs. Gates had fought for the state, representing a direct descendant of San Francisco's Mrs. W. H. F. Gates. Her courage and integrity were beyond question. Her influence was intense, and no one dared to oppose her. The price of the judgment was high, but it was necessary to maintain order in the state. However, the assembly was divided on the question, and further action was required.

Miss Ethel Lucrutia Oldroyd will appear in Recital

Miss Oldroyd will sing Friday evening of this week at the homes of Messrs. Oldroyd and House. Her concert will be in aid of the San Francisco Community Chest.

NIECE OF CHAUNCY U. OLROYD WILL APPEAR IN RECITAL

Unwelcome to the audience of May 4 in the World's History

May 4, the Day of Infamy

May 4, the Day of Infamy

This day in history

The first passenger train for San Francisco, which was scheduled to arrive in the city on May 4, was a departure from the usual routine of the train schedule. The train was designed to carry passengers comfortably and safely from San Francisco to Los Angeles, and it was expected to be a major improvement in the transportation system.

MRS. MERRITT, LUCRETIA OLROYD

Miss Ethel Lucrutia Oldroyd will appear in Recital on May 4, 1965, at the homes of Messrs. Oldroyd and House. Her concert will be in aid of the San Francisco Community Chest.

SOCIAL DIARY AND GOSSIP

GRACE GRIN

"Mad Max"

Mr. and Mrs. Mertz, in their usual good humor, will entertain their guests at their home on May 4, 1965, in honor of their daughter, Miss Ethel Lucrutia Oldroyd. The guests, who will be entertained for dinner, will consist of the Oldroyd family and their friends.

In honor of Lewis Prang

This evening, Miss Ethel Lucrutia Oldroyd will entertain her guests at her home in honor of Lewis Prang, a well-known businessman and community leader. The guests, who will be entertained for dinner, will consist of the Oldroyd family and their friends.

Agnes Clark's Open House

The Apollo club's "very special" evening of entertainment and socializing will be held at the home of Miss Ethel Lucrutia Oldroyd on May 4, 1965. The guests, who will be entertained for dinner, will consist of the Oldroyd family and their friends.

Bride at Home

One of the best pictures of the week was taken at the home of Miss Ethel Lucrutia Oldroyd on May 4, 1965. The guests, who were entertained for dinner, included the Oldroyd family and their friends.

WOBURN PEOPLE LIVING IN THE CIRCULATION OF THE LOCAL PRESS

One Maryland Tower is Larger than the American Tobacco Building

This week, the Maryland Tower, which is larger than the American Tobacco Building, will open to the public. The tower will consist of 18 floors and will be equipped with modern facilities.

New book on the market

The new book on the market, which is titled "The World of the Novel," is a collection of essays on the history of the novel. The book, which is edited by Miss Ethel Lucrutia Oldroyd, will be published on May 4, 1965.