Los Angeles, 6; Tacoma, 0.

The Seraphs romped away with another yesterday afternoon and thereby caused further distress in the Tiger camp. The redoubtable Mr. Bill Thomas tossed 'em over for the Tacoma laddies and that long chap, Baum, did likewise for the Angels. With this combination it looked like Fisher in a romp, Thomas having won every game this season before his sad experience of yesterday, and Baum pitching an almost uninterrupted succession of defeats.

But the enemy could do absolutely nothing with the delivery of the lanky young Morleyite while Dillon's commando were itself out denting the terminal patch. The first and second bags were of no use to Fisher's artists throughout the game and Nurdyke was the only jungletie to connect with the initial cushion once on transportation in the opening period and again in the fourth when he tore off the Tigers' lone base hit.

Baum was given errorless support and Nurdyke, during his short sestas on the first cushion, never had an opportunity to grab a bag. In addition to all this, "Bones" caused six of the northern aspirants to shatter the atmosphere. Nurdyke won lasting glory by his single swat and connected with the first angle both times at the bat.

The Seraphs were mowed down in the introductory inning in succession, but abused Thomas shamefully in the following period.

Dillon opened that canto with a pretty drive to center. Cravath followed with a lift to right and Brashar advanced his colleagues along a notch on a well placed sacrifice. Toman went down, Sheehan to Nurdyke completed the circuit.

Spies was touched by a fast one and meandered down with a hurt expression to Nurdyke's corner. Cravath was making plans on the last patch and came around when Thomas passed over a wild one which eluded "Charley" Graham's mitt.

That was all there was to the second, but the Seraphs went one better in the following period. Smith ripped one to left which "Tommy" Sheehan and McLaughlin debated over until too late, and Dillon was sacrificed. Cravath doubled to center and Smith ambled over. Brashar failed to get on the bags but Toman followed up with a wallop to left which brought Cravath over for the second time. Spies followed with a double to center and Toman tapped the terminal patch.

In the sixth the Seraphs brought their final completed amble around the cushions. Spies was hit by one of Thomas' benders but Davis decided that Henie didn't try to escape contact with the sphere and kept him at the plate. But the Teuton retaliated by reaching along a single over second. Baum sacrificed and Bernard walked. Flood jambed along a safe one and Spies formed the rear guard.

CAT ADOPTS FIVE SQUIRRELS

Special to The Herald. DUNBURY, Conn., May 25.—Five gray squirrels, less than two weeks old, are being nursed by a cat owned by William Duebel, of this city. The cat guards the squirrels as jealously as though they were the kittens she lost a short time ago.

The five kittens came to an untimely end because the cat population of the neighborhood was already large. The next day the small son of Mr. Duebel found in a hollow tree the squirrels, whose eyes were not yet open. They were placed in a basket with the old cat. At first tabby viewed them with suspicion, but finally consented to adopt them as her own.

WOULD BE WIFE ONLY IN NAME

MARRIED SOLELY TO BE FREE FROM MOTHER

NEW YORK CLUBMAN DIVORCED

Mrs. Eugene N. Robinson Took a Solemn Vow That Her Marriage Should Never Be a Real One

Special to The Herald.

NEW YORK, May 27.—It became known today that Eugene N. Robinson, a prominent lawyer and clubman, had obtained a divorce from his wife, Alice Louise.

The ground upon which the divorce was granted was that Mrs. Robinson was willing to be a wife in name only. Mr. Robinson was married to Miss Alice Louise Abell on January 10, 1900, at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, in West Seventy-first street.

For two years Mr. and Mrs. Robinson lived together at 222 West Seventy-first street. The house is a handsome one, and formed part of the dowry of the bride.

The action which he began in the supreme court of Kings county to annul his marriage was undertaken with the utmost secrecy. His lawyer's complaint, which was filed on February 8, 1904, had the following preamble:

"Comes the plaintiff (Eugene N. Robinson) and alleges that heretofore and prior to the 10th day of January, 1900, the defendant (Mrs. Robinson), intending wrongfully to induce this plaintiff to enter a marriage contract with her, did say to this plaintiff that she loved him, and that she was desirous, ready and willing to be his wife and to marry him and be his true and faithful wife and consort in all respects."

The complaint further said that the plaintiff subsequently discovered that these representations "were made with the intention to defraud and deceive this plaintiff and induce him to marry her, and that at the time she married him she had taken a vow that the marriage should never be a real one."

Mr. Robinson also alleged in his complaint that he had been informed by his wife that she considered the marital relation degrading.

One of the first witnesses to testify was Charles J. Poshall, who described himself as a friend of both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson. He recounted an interview that he had with Mrs. Robinson on her husband's behalf, in which the defendant had said that she never was Robinson's wife, and never would be and that she was happy in her present condition, and had only married Robinson as an excuse for leaving her mother.

SYRACUSE STUDENTS MUST OUST BULLDOGS

Chancellor Day Orders All Such Animals Gotten Rid of Within Twenty-Four Hours

Special to The Herald.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 25.—James R. Day, chancellor of Syracuse university, has ordered the fraternities to get rid of all bulldogs in their houses within twenty-four hours and threatened to expel any student seen on the street with a bulldog.

The killing of a dog by a bulldog was the cause of the order. The chancellor directed that the animal be killed at once. He declared the bulldog was not typical of the ideals of students.

WEARS FLAG TO STOP GAME

Woman Walks on Diamond and Tries to Get Stars and Stripes Hit

Special to The Herald.

HUTCHINSON, Minn., May 25.—Mrs. Slaughter, a temperance reformer, announced that she would call the attention of federal officers to what she termed a violation of the American flag.

With a large flag wrapped about her, Mrs. Slaughter last Sunday entered the Hutchinson baseball grounds, in which she had placards posted bearing the words: "To attack the flag of the United States while it is being used in the enforcement of law is, according to the statutes, high treason."

When the umpire called "play ball" Mrs. Slaughter walked on the diamond and took up a position between the pitcher's box and the home base. The pitcher attempted to curve the ball around her, but, failing in this, another battery was placed, a little to one side. The pitchers began tossing the ball alternately while Mrs. Slaughter went from one line of fire to the other, apparently trying to get the American flag hit.

Finally the spectators swarmed on the field and, good naturedly surrounding the woman, forced her off the field.

BLAMES FOOTBALL FOR MILITARY SPIRIT

Dr. Darlington, at Friends' Meeting, Denounces Violent Forms of Sports in Schools

Special to The Herald.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 25.—The Friends' yearly meeting in session here discussed the question of athletics in schools. Dr. Richard Darlington, a representative of the Westchester meeting, insisted that a halt be called at Friends' educational institutions on the violent form of sports, which, he said, had caused the death of more than two hundred youths in the United States last year and had resulted in injuries more or less serious to nine hundred boys and young men. He said that football gave an impetus to the military spirit, which was unfortunately too rampant in the country.

Dr. Swain, president of Swarthmore college, spoke in favor of the sports. He said: "Every boy and girl must have the play ground. This committee could not, if it would, forbid participation in what is called athletics. Much experience of twenty-five years with the young convinces me that they cannot do this. The athletic field is a necessity."

DUERER PAINTING JUST DISCOVERED

Special Cable to The Herald.

HEIDELBERG, May 25.—A life-size bust picture by Albrecht Duerer of the Savior crowned with thorns has been found in the house of an obscure resident of Offenburg. The canvas bears Duerer's monogram and the date 1524. Emperor William during his recent visit to Karlsruhe went with the grand duke of Baden to see the picture. Prof. Hans Thoma, an artist and director of the Hall of Art, at Karlsruhe, is one of those who pronounce the picture to be a genuine Duerer.

RABBITS MENACE TO FARMS

Country Club's Game Has Increased Rapidly Around Eastport, L. I.

Special to The Herald.

EASTPORT, L. I., May 25.—Jack rabbits which the Country club liberated a few years ago have increased so rapidly as to prove a serious menace to raising cauliflowers, cabbages and other tender leaved plants on the preserve.

Mr. Gadney, who conducts a large farm here, has about abandoned hope of raising many crops which in past seasons have been completely despoiled by the rabbits.

The club's members have reimbursed him for his losses.

HORSE HAS REVENGE

Shows Itself Almost Human in Desire to Retaliate on Driver

P. A. R. I. S., May 22.—A curious instance of revenge on the part of an animal took place in the Rue Chauchat today.

A dray horse, driven by one Georges Fryer, fell down. When the driver tried to make it rise, the animal caught the man's arm in its mouth, and bit it so fiercely that policemen had to beat it about the head with their swords in order to force it to release the driver, whose shrieks had attracted them.

"Raise Cain and Holler"

District Attorney Jerome of New York visited Philadelphia not long ago and delivered a lecture for the benefit of the men who are trying to reform the politics of the Quaker City. At the conclusion of his discourse, which was eminently practical, one of the local reformers went up to him and said, with the air of a man who was about to put a poser:

"Your remarks were very interesting, but what would you do if what is known as the 'organization' was composed of the machines of both political parties?"

The pugnacious district attorney from New York did not even pause to think, but exclaimed:

"Raise hades and holler murder."—Harper's Weekly.
