Only one man eligible for the Job of gas inspector?
How funny! Where are all the tried and true hotair spouters, so numerous in the anti-saloon fight? They ought to be qualified without even an examination.
It must be getting hot for the beef trust if a number of leading members have been indicted, as stated, by the Chicago grand jury. The government authorities seem to be "taking the bull by the horns" quite literally.
Last of all comes Pasadena with a charge from its mayor of official grafting involving a local judclelal light.
Truly the times must be out of joint when the graft It required thirty-six hours to pump the water out

At the annual convention of dancing masters in columbus, o., it was determined to introduce the old-fashioned jig and clog dances. The jig has never been entirely out of fashion, however, practice of it having been kept up in the domestic woodshed.

subject of universal remark on the part of visitors. Th leading business thoroughfares is something novel to visitors from eastern cities. How is it possible for the owners of so many such shops to earn a living? Tha is the question in the stranger's mind after noting th extraordinary number of such places. But as the San Francisco man remarks, the little ound with the owners of them, as the business is lew. ful and reputable. The numbers of the shops and the magnitude of their business expand in proportion to the demand for the goods kept in stock. So long as man-
