

HARNESS HORSES WILL RACE SOON

LOCAL MEETING WILL OPEN
CALIFORNIA CIRCUIT

HIGH CLASS SPORT ASSURED

Association Will Make Every Effort to Furnish Clean Racing—Oregon and Washington Stables Coming

Another season of harness racing will begin in California one week from today, when the Los Angeles Harness Horse association will open its first meeting at Agricultural park and the California circuit at the same time. That the approaching meeting will mark the beginning of one of the most successful years of sulky racing that has ever been enjoyed by the breeding interest of the west is firmly believed by those who are familiar with prevailing conditions. The local association is composed of business men of known standing, men to whom the mere winning of purses is but an incident and who are willing to labor unceasingly for the upbuilding of the sport upon a clean and honest basis.

Trainers from Oregon, Washington and Idaho have been shipping their strings of trotters and pacers to the local track and the middle west will also be represented during the six days of racing. By the first of July 400 or 500 horses will be stabled at the local track from all sections of the west.

No better appointed track can be found anywhere, and it would be hard to discover a more enthusiastic harness racing public than that of Los Angeles. One of the best managed and largest driving clubs in America is located in Los Angeles and its matinee racing has been famous for years. The world's champion trotting mare, Sweet Marie, 2:04, was the champion of the local club before she entered upon her remarkable eastern career, and many other horses that have won money and fame east and west received their first lessons when being driven by the amateurs of the local club.

The newly organized association which has arranged for the week of racing next month for 1000 purses is composed of gentlemen who are nearly all members of the driving club and their enterprise and money has made the meeting possible.

It is fortunate for the sport that the circuit will have such an auspicious opening as the Los Angeles meet is certain to furnish.

The beautiful grounds, splendid track and large fields of horses leaves nothing to be desired, and with the hearty support of the harness racing public the approaching meet is bound to be remembered as the most successful that has ever been held in Southern California.

Harness racing enthusiasts will be glad to learn that the first of the series of race meetings of the Pacific Coast Trotting Horse Breeders' association will take place at Fresno on the dates originally fixed. Some apprehension was felt that the total destruction of the grandstand by fire recently would make necessary the abandonment of the meeting or a change of dates. Announcement is made, however, that the regular meeting will be held the third week in July, as originally planned. The program for the four days' racing shows a total of $10,000 in purses. The prompt action of the Fresno men in promptly erecting a new grandstand will be appreciated by the harness horsemen, particularly as the Fresno meeting follows immediately after the close of the local races.

A discussion of the "ringing" question prompted the following tale of an old harness racing man as he hung over the Agricultural park rail the other morning:

"It was out in the middle west in the old days. A brace of men who didn't wear medals for honesty worked those rich sporty young chaps, each of whom was the owner of a fairly speedy half mile running horse, into a match. The race was for $250 a corner and was set far enough ahead to allow a good deal of excitement to be worked up. While the talk that usually preceded such an event in a small place was going on a farmer who lived in an adjoining county and also owned a runner was let in on equal terms. This man, it is needless to say, was considered "reliable" by the promoters of the job. It was known by them and a few others that he had a horse that could outfoot easily the three others.

"Finally the day for the race came and the town, so to speak, was out to see the horses run. There was a great hubbub. Everybody had money and everybody wanted to bet. Men who rarely had a dollar had wads of money that day, furnished, it was naturally supposed, by the wealthy young bloods to put on their horses. And the sharks had their friends and emissaries out greedily snapping it up. They were sure they had in the country horse what we would now call a 'pipe,' for it was reported to them from time to time that he was in great condition.

"To make a long story short the horse owned by the young man whom the crooks thought would be the richest picking for them won all the way and the 'reliable' farmer's nag finished last. It afterward came to light that the countryman had played both ways from the middle. He knew the town gang would bet to a man on his horse and he substituted another which was practically an image of the original to compete with the runner of the sporty youths. This beast could hardly run fast enough to keep himself warm and the farmer, through agents, covered hundreds of dollars laid down by the sharks that he would win. This was merely a case of the "finger" getting wrong and it effectively put a stop to the practice in those parts."

The 2:11 trot for the Garland stakes on the Fourth of July and the 2:09 pace promise to result in two of the classiest races of the meeting. Among the pacers Kelley Briggs has cut down a mile in .07 in his workouts and Zelock has been footing it around the same figure. Ira worked a nice mile in 2:08 Saturday. Alone, T. W. Barstows entry, went a fine heat over the San Jose tract the other day in 2:06 3/4. Dedalion galloped it nicely Saturday in the good time of .09 flat.

Among the 2:11 possibilities Briney K., the well known matinee horse, has been working around .12 and .13. Ole has been worked easily and has a figure of .16 1-3. Lady Madison cut down a mile in .14 1-2 Saturday and H. D. B. in .13.

Facts About the American Indian's Healthy Hair

The American Indian accustomed from time immemorial to go bareheaded in all kinds of weather is never troubled with falling hair or baldness. The close atmosphere caused by our "civilized" head-gear is conducive to the breeding of infinitesimal germs which dig into the scalp and thrive on the sap of the hair-root.

This true cause of baldness is of recent discovery and explains the non-success of all hair-vigors which treat baldness as a functional disorder. Newbro's Herpicide is a direct exterminator of the germ. It destroys the cause and permits the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Tozer Pitches Classy

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—A week of prolonged contests between the San Francisco and Los Angeles teams ended this afternoon with a sixteen-inning game in which the local players secured a hard fought victory. At the closing of the half of the ninth San Francisco made a run and tied the score. Neither side for the next six innings could get a man around. In the second half of the sixteenth Wilson, for the home team, hit for a single but was forced at second by Shea, who advanced on Whalen's single. Spencer hit to Flood, who threw the runner out at first, and Dillon returned the ball to Brashear, but it was dropped and Shea scored. The game was full of sensational plays.

Tozer, the new Los Angeles pitcher, made a very good impression under his trying ordeal. Williams pitched thirteen innings for San Francisco and Whalen was on the slab for the balance of the game. In the morning game the errors of San Francisco, coupled with timely hitting, gave Los Angeles the game. The score:

JEFFRIES WILL REFEREE
HART-ROOT FIGHT

Departure of Former Champion Causes Postponement of Flood Benefit Game

Owing to the decision of James J. Jeffries, retired champion heavyweight pugilist of this world and any others that may apply, to accept the offer to referee the Hart-Root fight to be pulled off at Reno, Nev., on July 3, the benefit game for Tim Flood has been postponed until July 9. In addition to the interpretation of the national game by prominent citizens of Los Angeles and contiguous territory it is planned to have the retired champ engage in a four round family quarrel with "Brother Jack" as an additional attraction and since he will be unable to be in Los Angeles next Sunday it has been wisely decided to postpone the entire event.

In the meantime Morley is signing the greatest bunch of ball basters that ever agreed to appear under one management and local fandom is awaiting anxiously for the great day when Earl Rodgers, Corney Pendleton and other followers of the national game strive to "clout the sphere," "pinch torried grounders" and other baseball doings of a kindred nature in a worthy desire to increase the rotundity of Tim Flood's wallet.

POLICE BASEBALL TEAM IS SCALPED BY LIONS

At Chutes park yesterday afternoon the baseball team of the Los Angeles police department was clubbed into submission and finally subdued by the Lions, a strong amateur nine, who piled up eight runs on the Coppers while they were making heroic efforts to pinch the terminal patch. The minions of the law couldn't get within hailing distance of the rubber, however, and had to be content with a shut out. It makes the nineteenth straight victory for the Lions, and they are now looking for other worlds to conquer. Whaling fanned twelve men for the guardians of the peace, but when his delivery was found it was found a plenty. Ferriras and Mangivena formed the battery for the winning nine.

GIRL TRADES PETTICOAT
FOR RAILROAD TICKET

Special to The Herald.

PITTSBURG, June 25.—A pretty young woman with blonde, wavy hair, en route from New York to Columbus, O., was stranded for a few minutes in Pittsburg, having lost her money on the train, she said.

She was well dressed, having among her other wearing apparel a beautiful red silk undershirt, the lower ruffle of which showed as she sat for a few minutes in the Union station, thinking. She did not sit long, but acted at once. She struck a bargain with another woman in the station. She would sell the red silk petticoat for enough money to pay her way to Columbus.

The pair retired to the ladies' waiting room and soon emerged together, but the silk petticoat had changed owners. The Pittsburg woman carried the beautiful garment over her arm, while she who had worn it but a moment before walked up to the ticket window and laying down a bill asked for a ticket to Columbus.

The former owner of the petticoat refused to give her name, and the purchaser said her name was nobody's business.
