Women, battles to contest for California honors at Inglewood, are given tremendous play by All Player Attent

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1—The baseball prospects never brighter for the University of California. The current team is likely to be equal to the championship of the Pacific Coast, according to Coach Bob Gorton.

The spring training will begin within the next few days at the Santa Cruz beach, where the team will spend a week. The starting date is to be announced later.

The university will play series of games with professional teams, and will also witness a series of games with the rival teams of the conference. The start of the spring training was delayed because of the weather conditions.

The University of California will be one of the leading teams in the Western Conference, and will play a full schedule of games with the teams of the conference. The team will be coached by Bob Gorton, who has been the head coach of the team for the past two seasons.

The team will be composed of the following players:

Catcher: Philip C. Gross, San Francisco, California, 21

First Base: Roy H. Bishop, Los Angeles, California, 21

Second Base: Jack Ebbets, Los Angeles, California, 21

Third Base: E. B. Muller, San Francisco, California, 21

Center Field: W. B. Billow, Los Angeles, California, 21

Left Field: John S. W. R. Barnard, San Francisco, California, 21

Right Field: Fred C. R. W. Barnard, San Francisco, California, 21

Pitcher: D. B. Kirk, Los Angeles, California, 21

The team will be managed by Coach Bob Gorton, who has been the head coach of the team for the past two seasons.
