Francisco Takes Both Games Played Yesterday and Series with Vernon

VILLAGERS PLAY RAW BALL

Make Eleven Misplays in Two Contests, While Seals Pile Up Even Dozen

BY JAY DAVIDSON

Twenty-three misplays in the doubleheader yesterday that wound up the first series between Vernon and San Francisco did not serve to put the fans in any enthusiastic frame of mind, especially after Vernon had made eleven of these misplays and lost both games of the dcuble-header, the series and drop to third place after working its first piace. San Francisco, while not way out of the cellar up to the front playing the gilt-edged ball that the Angels and Beavers put up against the suburban boys, goes away this morning with the distinction of being the first team to win a series from Vernon, the series standing four to three in their favor. This is all the more regrettable and inexplainable, as well as inexcusable, when it is recalled that Vernon got away to a flying start and took the first three games in a row With four more games to play i looked like a cinch that they would hold on to second place and take the series. But Cy Young would not have been forced to pitch another of his famous games to win for Vernon yesterday.

In the morning game the Seals won by the score of 5 to 2, despite the fact that they made seven of the ten misplays. Brackenridge was in the box for Vernon and Miller opposed him. Brack gave up nine hits, while Miller allowed only six, but notwithstanding the numerous errors behind him, the Frisco twirler was able to win because his men backed him up at critical his men backed him up at critical stages and batted like fiends when a run was in sight. Miller kept what few hits he allowed so well scatttered that they were of little value in the run-getting line. On the contrary, Brack-enridge allowed the Seals to hit when men were on bases, and when hits could not produce runs the villagers kindly assisted the visitors with a few costly

The afternoon game was about the rottenest exhibition of league baseball that the fans ever witnessed at the Chutes, and it is doubtful of any cover the country of the cou of them ever saw such amateurish work on the sand lots about town. of them ever saw such amateurish work on the sand lots about town. Vernon absolutely refused to win, and made eight costly errors, while the Seals erred five times. As in the morning game, every error by Vernon counted. Even Happy Hogan had to contribute his mite in this line. Then Carlisle, by dumb base running, refused to score after getting on third with no outs. Long fly balls to the outfield could not tempt him to take his arms from around the cute little third sack, and he hugged it like he imagined he was adrift at sea on a life preserver. preserver.

Frisco started the scoring in the fourth inning of the afternoon game, putting over a pair of runs after two hands had been retired. Tennant singled infield and beat out the throw.

Shaw bunted to Schafer, who threw the ball to the right field bleachers. Mundorff popped threw the ball to the left field in his frantic efforts at catching Henley asleep off third. Henley scored. Melchoir raised a little pop fly to Kitty Brashear, who dropped it. Tennant hit through short and Martinke booted the ball over to center, Shaw scoring white the outfield was playing soccer. Careless playing by Melchoir caused him to be retired between third and home. Another run was scored by the Seals in the sixth on clean hitting, it being the only earned run tallied by the visitors. Williams was an easy infield out. Griffin doubled to right and Hen-ley followed with a double to left, which Martinke misjudged, Griffin scoring.

The solitary run scored by Vernor, came in the eighth, although they had to do some terrific base running to keep from scoring before that period. Schafer flew to center and Carlisle walked. Kitty Brashear hit through the state of the secore:

Coy turned two bad tricks yesterday, each costing a run, and Kitty Brashear helped out the visitors with three very helped out the visitors with three very bad ones. Hogan presented Frisco with one run when he got excited and threw the ball to left field when he intended throwing it to third. Hogan has a fine bunch of young players who know how to play the game, but it seems that they are sadly in need of practice and a steadying hand. When one fielder makes a bobble they seem to go to pieces. The pitching staff is fine and dandy and is being badly mistreated by the fielding staff. And the Villagers are slumping in their hitting, too. There are a lot of other things that might be said of them, but this probably will be enough for this time. It is rather tough for a team to Matchmaker Hancock, who will be married this afternoon, completed the card yesterday so that he could get away for a week of honeymooning, adding Young Hatton and Roy Rogers to the card previously announced, this pair balas and sunction next week, the santa Clara college pitcher, worked for San Jose in the afternoon game, when Baldwin began to weaken, and made good. Both games were featured by great fielding on the part of Second Baseman Keller of San Jose, and Outfielder Miller of Stockton. Scores: ers to the card previously announced, this pair being matched to step lively over the six-round course.

The completed card is as follows: Danny Webster vs. Frankie Conley Jack Johnson, exhibition bout, four rounds.

This makes an attractive card, even without the added feature of Jack Johnson and his exhibition bout. Webster will have ten rounds in which to show the local fans whether he really was entitled to the decision over Conley when they fought in February at Portland. While the boys will meet at cathwaights, there will be pracerounds. at catchweights, there will be prac-tically no advantage to either, as the weights will be about even. him.

Jeff put in a strenuous Sunday. A large crowd of visitors came to the camp, and promptly at noon Jeff, attred in his gym togs, appeared in the gym and began an endurance exhibition with the pulley weights. For half an hour Jeff hauled away at the weighted ropes and then followed with shadow boxing, rope skipping and bagshadow boxing, rope skipping and bag-punching for an hour and a half." Jeffries explained that his pro-

Jeffries explained that his prolonged session with the chest weights was also for the purpose of limbering up his neck and shoulder muscles, with a view of avoiding any future cramps, which suddenly stopped him last Friday in the middle of a boxing bout with Bob Armstrong.

Jeffries left his camp long enough
this afternoon to take an automobile run to Santa Cruz and inaugurate the run to Santa Cruz and inaugurate the baseball season there by pitching the first ball. He returned to camp this Dick Adams came from Oakland today with the report that Mrs. Jeffries, who was operated upon yesterday, is getting on well, which tended to put Jeffries in good humor.

PACKARD WINS MEDAL AT REVOLVER SHOOT

Makes Score of 276 and Average of 92 in Contest with Douglas

Notwithstanding the unusually hot weather, a number of the members of the Los Angeles Revolver club ambled take part in the pistol medal contest and indulge in the usual hand-gun practice at fifty yards yesterday. In the medal contest Dr. L. M. Packard and A. B. Douglas ran a race for the trophy, but the tooth carpenter won out by three points. Young Douglas bored out a score of 273, an average of 91, while the doctor recorded an average of 92 by his score of 276. R. J. Fraser, who usually shoots ex-cellent scores in the pistol contests, was not present yesterday.
