Vol. 1.

Wilmington, Delaware, Friday August 16, 1833.

No. 73.

Lots of land for sale or rent.

SIXTEEN ACRES of land lying on the northern side of High street, east of Walnut street, and about 73 acres on Broad street or Church lane, opposite the old Swedes church—Also 5 acres on the Kennet road, opposite the dwelling of Doctor Wm. Gibbons. There are also several BUILDING LOTS, to sell or let on ground-rent, all in the City of Wilmington. These grounds were the property late of Joshua Wollaston, dec'd: they are advantageously situated, of an excellent quality, nearly all in grass, and under good fences. These Lots will be sold at private sale for fair prices, either entire, or divided to suit purchasers. The titles are indisputable, and immediate possession can be given.

Apply to

JONAS PUSEY.

115, Market St.

N. B. The GRASS on some of the above lots is to be let for the remaining part of the season, if not sold.

POETICAL.

[From Mellon's Poems.]

THE BUGLE.

But still the dingle's hollow throat

Prolong'd the swelling Bugle's note;

The owllets started from their dream,

The eagles answer'd with their scream,

Round and around the sounds were cast,

Till Echo seem'd an answering blast.

Lady of the Lake.

O, wild enchanting horn!

Whose music, up the deep and dewy air,

Swells to the clouds and calls on Echo there,

'Till a new melody is born!

Wake, wake again, the night

Is bending from her throne of Beauty down,

With still stars beaming on her azure crown,

Intense and eloquently bright!

Night at its pulseless noon!

When the fair voice of waters mourns in song,

And some tired watch dog, lazily and long,

Barks at the melancholy moon!

Hark! how it sweeps away,

Soaring and dying on the silent sky,

As if some sprite of sound went wandering by,

With lone halloo and roundelay.

Swell, swell in glory out!

Thy tones come pouring on my leaping heart,

And my stirr'd spirit hears thee with a start,

As boyhood's old remember'd shout!

O, have you heard that peal,

From sleeping city's moon-bath'd battlements,

Or from the guarded field and warrior tents,

Like some near breath around ye steal!

Or have ye, in the roar

Of sea, or storm, or battle, heard it rise,

Sister! than eagle's clamour to the skies,

Where wings and tempests never soar!

Go, go; no other sound,

No music, that of air or earth is born,

Can match the mighty music of that horn,

On Midnight's fathomless profound!
