Amarillo Military Academy

has existed one year and a half as a military training school for boys only; yet we have registered cadets from Georgia, Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico.

Boys have come from many of our best Panhandle towns and from such towns in Central and East Texas as Texarkana, Sulphur Springs, Hillsboro, Nacogdoches, Waxahachie, Dallas, Van Alstyne and McKinney.

Did you know that we were building up a training school like this, here on the Plains? Ours is the only school of its kind in this part of the West. We are meeting a real educational need.

Won't you co-operate with us by giving us the names of boys in Texas or elsewhere, who might be interested in such a school.

B. G. LOWREY, Pres.
