

Theodore Roosevelt Succumbs

(Continued from Page One.)

In view from the platform his views on international affairs.

In November he was invited to return to the hospital for treatment of rheumatism. Today, through an announcement of his physicians concerning the cause of his death, it became known that three weeks before he left the hospital to return to Sagamore Hill on Christmas day, he had suffered a pulmonary embolism which finally proved fatal.

Flage at Hall Most

All Flage in October lay in bed for half a year, but in the winter of 1918 he was able to walk and to make short trips to the office. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter, and he was able to walk and to make short trips to the office.

A special meeting of the board of trustees of the university was called for January 7, and the trustees of the university were called for January 7, and the trustees of the university were called for January 7.

Throughout the past few days and telegrams of sympathy addressed to Mrs. Roosevelt, it is such a comfort to her to have the sympathy of the people.

Among the messages made public were those from Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Wood.

Personal messages also were received from Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Wood.

On January 7, Mrs. Roosevelt and her family were in the city. She was accompanied by her daughter and her son.

Speaking for Mrs. Roosevelt, Mr. E. B. Taylor, secretary of the university, said that the following statement was made by the attending physician.

"Colonel Roosevelt has been suffering from an acute inflammation of the lungs for about two months. His condition has been steadily improving, but he has not been able to get away from the hospital."

On January 7, Mrs. Roosevelt and her family were in the city. She was accompanied by her daughter and her son.

"He died about naturally without any suffering from what seemed to be a natural cause. The cause of his death was pneumonia."

"Dr. J. M. Richards."
"Dr. John M. Richards."

ROOSEVELT'S DEATH COMES AS DISTANCE TO WORK TO PARIS

PARIS, Jan. 7.—President Wilson's death was a shock to the public here, who were expecting the fulfillment of a prophetic word in France.

The news of Colonel Roosevelt's death was communicated by the Associated Press to the press commission and other officials in Washington, creating general expressions of shock and regret.

J. J. Goodrich, the French Ambassador to the United States, said that the unexpected death of one who had spent all his life in the service of his country was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Dr. J. M. Richards, the attending physician, said that the death of Colonel Roosevelt was a great loss to the world.

Washington Expresses Regret Over His Death

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(Special Telegrams)—The nation today gave solemn and sincere expressions of sympathy for the death of Theodore Roosevelt and his achievements.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Washington Expresses Regret Over His Death

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(Special Telegrams)—The nation today gave solemn and sincere expressions of sympathy for the death of Theodore Roosevelt and his achievements.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Flage on every government building throughout the United States and at every court and on every street corner were displayed in honor of his death.

Wilson Due to Return to Paris Early Today

FROM VISIT TO ITALY

(Continued from Page One.)

where an honorary degree was conferred upon him. President Wilson and his party departed for Paris, where they are due to arrive tomorrow morning.

1,000 Mayors Gather

The most picturesque feature of President Wilson's visit here was the gathering of more than a thousand mayors of cities and towns in Piedmont to greet him.

They came from the hills, the fields and the valleys, and virtually every little town and community was represented, as well as the large cities.

Each of the mayors wore a sash of the national colors. They represented all walks of life and every condition of society.

There were among them prominent business leaders, merchants, cultured and distinguished citizens, men, typical village blacksmiths and artisans, each representing the heart of his community.

The mayors passed before the president in a long line and each received a smile and a kind word.

Some of the mayors were an shy that when they looked in through the door at the brilliant, bearded reception team they had to be dragged inside by their friends.

Some of them kissed the president and others bent their knees in reverence. One of the men as he passed the president muttered the only English words spoken, "God bless Mr. Wilson."

Others of thousands passing the square before the palace of the duke of Piedmont and heard President Wilson from the balcony deliver a short speech. The crowd was so dense that it was not possible to see the president, but none the less the people were enthusiastic.

Thousands of hats were raised in the air and there was a continuation of the cry of "viva Wilson."

Later in the afternoon, President Wilson, accompanied by the secretary of state, returned to the city of Milan to spend the night of the working classes for their part in the war and telling the people of Italy that while they were in Paris in Paris it was their business in Paris to carry on their efforts for a lasting peace.

War Won at Great Price

The day has been a great day for the president and his party. They have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

Wilson Due to Return to Paris Early Today

FROM VISIT TO ITALY

(Continued from Page One.)

where an honorary degree was conferred upon him. President Wilson and his party departed for Paris, where they are due to arrive tomorrow morning.

1,000 Mayors Gather

The most picturesque feature of President Wilson's visit here was the gathering of more than a thousand mayors of cities and towns in Piedmont to greet him.

They came from the hills, the fields and the valleys, and virtually every little town and community was represented, as well as the large cities.

Each of the mayors wore a sash of the national colors. They represented all walks of life and every condition of society.

There were among them prominent business leaders, merchants, cultured and distinguished citizens, men, typical village blacksmiths and artisans, each representing the heart of his community.

The mayors passed before the president in a long line and each received a smile and a kind word.

Some of the mayors were an shy that when they looked in through the door at the brilliant, bearded reception team they had to be dragged inside by their friends.

Some of them kissed the president and others bent their knees in reverence. One of the men as he passed the president muttered the only English words spoken, "God bless Mr. Wilson."

Others of thousands passing the square before the palace of the duke of Piedmont and heard President Wilson from the balcony deliver a short speech. The crowd was so dense that it was not possible to see the president, but none the less the people were enthusiastic.

Thousands of hats were raised in the air and there was a continuation of the cry of "viva Wilson."

Later in the afternoon, President Wilson, accompanied by the secretary of state, returned to the city of Milan to spend the night of the working classes for their part in the war and telling the people of Italy that while they were in Paris in Paris it was their business in Paris to carry on their efforts for a lasting peace.

War Won at Great Price

The day has been a great day for the president and his party. They have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

The president and his party have seen the people of Italy and have heard their words of welcome and affection.

"Get Away from the Dirty" Gasoline Odors. A Modern Dry Cleaning Plant Don't Have Them. Why not let us solve the problem for you? IT DON'T COST MUCH. And we both get pleasure out of it.

Kwitcherkikkin

PHONE 22
DRY CLEANING DEPARTMENT.

Look for the emblem tag; it is your guarantee of Master Service.

Return Gifts

We are offering at very attractive prices just the gift you want to give.

Snowbound

Well, if you were and have not had an opportunity to do your shopping, pay us a visit. You will find our stock complete enough to supply your wants.

Remember, I sell an honest man a diamond on easy terms

E. E. FINKLEA, Jeweler

Eversharp Pencils Optical Parlor

Wilson's Speech at Milan Palace.

MILAN, Italy, Jan. 7.—(Special Telegrams)—President Wilson's speech at the Milan Palace was a masterpiece of statesmanship.

The president spoke for the peace-loving people of the world and for the people of Italy who have suffered so much during the war.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

Wilson's Address at Mazzini Monument

MILAN, Italy, Jan. 7.—(Special Telegrams)—President Wilson's address at the Mazzini Monument was a masterpiece of statesmanship.

The president spoke for the peace-loving people of the world and for the people of Italy who have suffered so much during the war.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

Wilson Speaks to Mother's League

MILAN, Italy, Jan. 7.—(Special Telegrams)—President Wilson's speech to the Mother's League was a masterpiece of statesmanship.

The president spoke for the peace-loving people of the world and for the people of Italy who have suffered so much during the war.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.

He said that the war had been a great tragedy for the people of Italy and for the people of the world.