

A SALE OF INTEREST TO HOME-BUILDERS

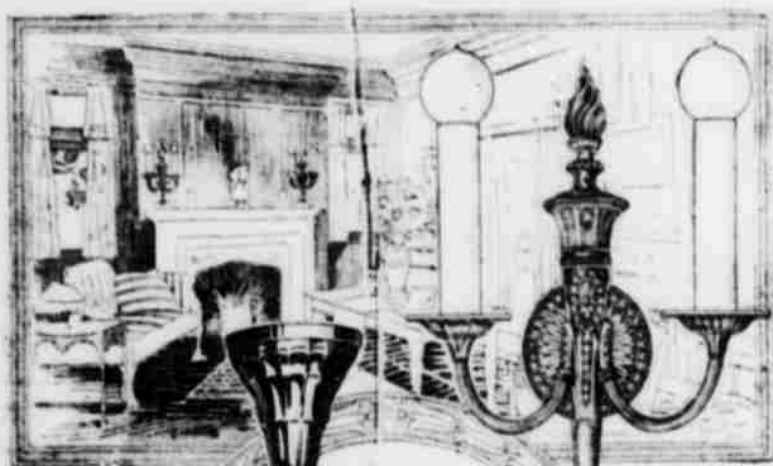

You have had presented to you sales of wearing apparel, luxuries, articles both of wear and use, but never have you had an opportunity such as this to get something for your home—something really necessary to the making of a homey home.

We have had no notice of any contemplated reduction in prices. Our reason for this sale is our immense stock. Last spring we placed orders which have been arriving during the past few weeks so rapidly that we are tremendously overstocked. Some of this merchandise is bought considerably under today's cost and you will get the benefits of these purchases.

Our prices are marked in plain figures—the same prices you have seen on our merchandise on your visits to our store. Look at the price tags and figure your own costs.
