

LABOR UNIONS TO NAME MEMBER OF AMARILLO B. C. D.

TYPOGRAPHICAL BODY BECOMES AFFILIATED WITH CENTRAL ORGANIZATION.

Tuesday night of next week has been set as the date for selecting an Amarillo union labor man as representative on the board of city development. The selection will be made at an open meeting to be held in W. O. W. hall, J. W. Cummings was recently selected to fill the place at a meeting of labor men, but declined to serve.

The Central Labor body is centering efforts to bring the twenty-fourth annual convention of the Texas Federation of Labor to Amarillo in 1922. This year's convention is to be in Galveston, May 16. Delegates from the Amarillo Central Labor body desire the support of all local and civic bodies of the city as well in pressing the invitation to come to Amarillo. The typographical union affiliated with the Central Labor body this week.

R. M. Nash has been asked to appear before the meeting next Tuesday night and present his building plans. In a letter to the Central Labor body on the building situation, Nash wrote:

"The growth of the city in the matter of home building is a problem that will have to be solved by its own citizenship and can be solved by the earnest co-operation of its wage earners and business men of the city."

MONTGOMERY BROS. BUY FAIRSEX STORE

Consolidation of The Fairsex, an exclusive ladies' ready to wear store with the Montgomery store, 607 Polk street, has been effected and will hereafter be conducted under the name of Montgomery Bros.

The Fairsex store was established in Amarillo, a year ago by Mrs. Mayme Smith, and held a place as one of the most up-to-date in the city. Mrs. Smith has had extensive experience in ladies' ready-to-wear line having had charge of a store in Fort Worth before coming to Amarillo.

While not as large a stock as some, the stock she carried was the finest in its line ever shown in Amarillo, Leon P. Montgomery says.

The Montgomery Bros. store was organized and established in Amarillo four years ago, and also has borne the reputation of being one of the city's high class shopping places. "Quality and service" is the motto at the new Montgomery Bros. consolidated store, and the proprietors propose to serve the entire trading territory as well as stores in larger cities.
