NATIONAL GUARD SOLDIERS TO PATROL PACKER PLANT

ST. PAUL, Dec. 6 (By Associated Press)—Announcement that national guard troops have been called out to patrol the packing plant district in South St. Paul, where close picketing by striking employes has prevented the use of strike breakers was made tonight.

Calling out of the troops follows unsuccessful attempts of both the Swift and Armour Companies to bring in men to take the place of strikers and after conferences with labor leaders had failed to effect an agreement for a discontinuance of the picketing.

The announcement was made [illegible] adjutant general's office [illegible] forced upon the [illegible] on [illegible] A. O. Dunn [illegible] tion.

STRIKERS CLAIM RANKS GROWING; PLANTS OPERATE

UNIONS SAY 6,000 MORE OUT; EMPLOYERS HIRING NEW MEN.

By Associated Press

CHICAGO, Dec. 6—At the close of the seventh day of the strike of the packing house employes' union officials asserted that six thousand more workers had joined the strikers' ranks in Chicago, while the packers reported that between 80 and 95 per cent of their men were working, and that the places of strikers had been filled from the hundreds of unemployed applying for work.

Charges were the main point of dispute during the day, and while spokesmen for the packers admitted that more employes had joined the walkout they also asserted that part of those that went out Monday had returned, and that there was no difficulty in hiring men. In other packing centers of the country, representatives of the "big five" packers reported the strikers returning to work, while the officials of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, which called the strike, said the ranks of the strikers were being augmented.

Khiva Temple Will Give Dance Dec. 22

An informal dance for the evening of Dec. 22 has been arranged at the W. O. W. Hall by Khiva Temple. This dance will be free of charge to all Khiva nobles and visiting nobles, the fez and the 1921 card being the only prerequisite for admission.

Farwell's orchestra will play and will have six pieces, it is announced. The hall will be decorated in keeping with the Yuletide spirit, announced the committee in charge.

PHILIPPINE REPORTS RECEIVED BY HARDING

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President Harding is understood to have accepted the conclusions and recommendations of the Wood-Forbes mission which studied conditions in the Philippine Islands and recently submitted a report.

The action of the Philippine legislature in adopting a joint resolution asking that action on the proposal be postponed until the Filipinos have been given a hearing is not expected to influence the administration in carrying out the recommendations of Governor Wood and former Governor Forbes, it was learned today from high officials. These officials said they did not see how the report would seriously affect the future of the Philippines as was charged in the resolution adopted by the legislature.

TEDDY DEALEY BURNS TO DEATH IN DALLAS

By Associated Press

DALLAS, Texas, Dec. 6.—Teddy [illegible] son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Dealey, 3619 Bowen avenue, was burned to death shortly after noon today in the home of his parents. The boy [illegible] how it happened is not known but it was believed by the family of the boy's playmates that his clothing caught fire and was almost entirely burned off before aid reached him. The greater part of his body being very badly burned. After being given medical attention at home, he was hurried to the St. Paul Sanitarium where he died.

The funeral will be held at the family home this afternoon afternoon.

MANAGING EDITORS NAME NEW OFFICERS

By Associated Press

DALLAS, Texas, Dec. 6.—The Texas Association of Managing Editors of Associated Press papers closed a two-day meeting here today. A. L. Perkins of Galveston was re-elected state chairman and O. B. Colquitt of Dallas was named secretary. The association tentatively accepted the invitation of Galveston to meet in that city next year. A feature of today's session was a talk by E. T. Gibbs of Chicago, division superintendent of the Associated Press. The meeting was the guests of the Adolphus Hotel at luncheon.

Colonel Sanger Dies.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Colonel William Cary Sanger, assistant secretary of war from 1861 to 1863 and an authority on military affairs, died in a hospital here today. Col. Sanger, who was in his 68th year, was born in Brooklyn, but made his home in Saigerfield, Oneida County, N. Y.

IRISH-BRITISH PACT TEXT IS ANNOUNCED

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

the collection of revenue in Northern Ireland; (C) safeguard with regard to import and export duties affecting the trade and inquiry of Northern Ireland; (D) safeguard for the minorities in Northern Ireland; (E) settlement of financial relations between Northern Ireland and the Irish Free State; (F) establishment and powers of a local militia in Northern Ireland and the relations of the defence forces of Free State and of Northern Ireland, respectively, and if at any such meeting provisions are agreed to, the same shall have effect as if they were incorporated amongst the provisions, subject to which the powers of parliament and the government of the Irish Free State, to be exercisable in Northern Ireland under Article XIV hereof.

Article XVI—Neither the parliament of the Irish Free State nor the parliament of Northern Ireland shall make any law so either directly or indirectly as to endow any religion or prohibit or restrict the free exercise thereof or give any preference or impose any disability on the ground of religious belief or religious status or affect prejudicially the right of any child to attend school receiving public money without attending the religious instruction at that school or make any religious belief or religious status a qualification for any office, franchise or right in the State, and shall not endow any religious institution. Provided that it shall be competent for the parliament of Northern Ireland during the period in which that parliament and government of the Irish Free State shall be exercising concurrent powers to make such provision as it deems necessary and proper for safeguarding the rights and privileges of any denomination or denominations with respect to the time or manner of the exercise of their rights of pilgrimage to places beyond the seas.

Article XVII—In the event of proposals by the government of Northern Ireland during the period in which that government has the power to make laws with regard to the matters specified in Article XVI hereof, the Irish Free State shall by its legislature or executive authority be entitled to request the submission of such proposals to a conference representative of the parliament and government of the Irish Free State and of Northern Ireland, and the conference shall consider such proposals within one month of the request or within such longer period as may be necessary in the circumstances.

Article XVIII—This instrument shall be submitted forthwith by the provisional government for the approval of the parliament and of the Irish electorate in accordance with the law relating to the constitution of the Irish Free State and shall be ratified by the necessary legislation.

Signed on behalf of the British delegation:

LLOYD GEORGE,
AUSTEN CHAMBERLAIN,
BIRKENHEAD,
WINSTON S. CHURCHILL,
HAMAR GREENWOOD,
GEO. N. BARNES,
LIONEL CURTIS.

On behalf of the Irish delegation:

ART O'GRIFFITH,
MICHAEL O'COLLINS,
RICHARD MULCAHY,
GEORGE GAVAN DUFFY,
EAMONN DUGGAN.

Dated the 6th day of December, 1921.

19 COUNTIES WILL BACK CHAMBER FINANCIALLY

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

the following counties [illegible]

Shackelford [illegible]
Stephens [illegible]
Throckmorton [illegible]
Young [illegible]

[illegible] 15 [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]