Freckles and His Friends

You Never Miss the Water Till the Well Runs Dry. Suppose, tomorrow, all newspapers were discontinued. What a future would be created. For we must have news! Or suppose, that beginning tomorrow, the newspapers stopped running advertisements. We would discover that politics, the doings of society, notices of fires, accidents, deaths, scandals, sports, and activities of the police and criminals of one sort or another, add little to our comfort and happiness in this age of enlightenment.
