Mounted Men for Home Service.

THE GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL HAVING passed the following Resolutions appended below, calling for a Battalion of Mounted Men, Volunteers from the First Corps of Reserves for State service, I propose to raise a company for that purpose, and ask our men of middle age who the Government of the Confederate States has exempted from duty abroad, to join in defending our State at home. For if the enemy should get a foot-hold in force anywhere on our mainland, every available man will be needed to keep him from the interior.

Address the undersigned at Camden, So. Ca.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL CHAMBER, {
COLUMBIA, S. C., June 26, 1862, }

THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTIONS, adopted by the Governor and Council, have been ordered to be published:

Resolved, That the Governor and Council still hold that all exemptions from military service provided for by the Convention of this State, and other competent State authority, are valid in law, and that they will insist upon the same.

Resolved, That the Adjutant and Inspector-General be instructed to issue a general order, directing all citizens of this State holding certificates of exemption from this office, and otherwise exempt by the laws of this State, to claim their exemptions before the enrolling officers of the Confederate Government, and to notify the Adjutant-General of such claim.

By order of the Governor and Council.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

ADJ'T. & INSP. GENERAL'S OFFICE, {
COLUMBIA, June 27, 1862. }

[GENERAL ORDER NO. 27.]
THE GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL, BY resolution of this instant, declared that exemptions from military service authorized by State authority are valid in law, it is ordered:

I. That all citizens of the State subject to the provisions of the Confederate Conscription Act, to whom certificates of exemption have been issued from this office, or who are declared exempt from military service by the Convention of the State, or other competent State authority, shall claim such exemption of the Confederate Enrolling Officers in their respective Districts.

II. That all persons whose exemption so claimed shall be denied by the Confederate Enrolling Officers, shall forthwith report the fact to this office, stating the cause of exemption claimed, the District, militia regiment, battalion and beat in which the claimant is enrolled; and if he holds a certificate of exemption from this office, giving the date and terms of such certificate.

III. That all persons claiming such exemption, and who have not received a certificate of exemption from this office, will accompany the report of his case with an affidavit, setting forth the ground on which his exemption is claimed, as required by General Order No. 20.
