

Miss Dimple Terry, Cookeville, arrived last week for a visit of a week or ten days with her sister, Mrs. S. J. Horn.

S. J. Horn is planning to go to Nashville in a short time to have an examination made as he has been suffering for some time with an affliction in his head. He may take a few days rest at the same time.

Be Sure to attend the big Aluminum sale, Saturday, September 23, at Bilbrey Brothers.

T. H. Austin was over from Ravenscroft Saturday. He reports the mines there very active and everybody busy and happy.

LOST—By C. E. McReynolds while out hunting with me on night of July 20th in Blue Spring Cove, a black, white and tan hound about three years old. A good deal of white, red head with least bit of white on ears, black spot on hips and on side or back, medium size. This dog belongs to a gentleman in Alabama. One Hundred Dollars will be paid upon delivery of dog to Mr. McReynolds at Pikeville, Tenn. I can identify the dog. H. C. Smith, Sparta, Tenn.

LIME—Remember we have lime for $1.25 per barrel. Bnady & Walker, 2t.

Rev. Albert Connettes Spartansburg, S. C., was here Sunday visiting Miss Ethel W. Walker on his way to enter a theological seminary at Louisville, Ky. Rev. Connettes was a student under Miss Walker several years ago and stopped for a brief visit as a mark of kindly regard for her. She had not seen him for 16 years.

For drilling test holes and water wells see J. H. Graham, Pomona. 4-5tf

Rev. W. E. Wheeler, who was for many years principal of Pleasant Hill Academy but for a few years has been residing at Weathersfield, Conn., and working in one of the reformatory institutions of the state, has accepted a pastorate at Barkhamstead, Conn., and entered upon his duties Sunday. He will move his family to his new field of labor this week. Rev. Wheeler is a man of splendid ideal and high Christian character and a most tireless worker, all of which would seem to make his success an assured fact from the start.

Be Sure to attend the big Aluminum sale, Saturday, September 23, at Bilbrey Brothers.

Dr. A. J. McClarney left yesterday for Deer Lodge to attend the fair that opens there today.

J. E. Craig was at the Lebanon fair last week looking after a concession he had there. He is attending the state fair at Nashville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Smith of Cookeville, were here last week visiting her brothers, H. I. and C. E. Bilbrey, and families. They returned home Monday.

G. A. Haley made a trip to Monterey last week.

Plenty of Waterman fountain pen ink at the Chronicle office.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hayes motored over from Monterey Saturday for a brief visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Haley, and other relatives. They returned home Sunday.

Cashier J. S. Reed left yesterday for Athens on a brief business trip.

P. V. Widener and family plan to leave tomorrow for a trip of ten days to points in Virginia where they will visit with friends. Bert Widener will enter the Virginia Polytechnical Institute for this year. He will be absent nine months.

P. V. Widener & Son have just completed removing the tie timber from a tract of land they purchased from the M. W. Morrow estate. The last sawing was done last week. They have shipped two cars of the ties and will now load and ship the entire stock of ties, which amounts to several thousand. Messrs. Widener are now considering a tract of timber near the line of the O & C., road to which they may move their mill in a short time. They have sold the land they purchased from the Morrow estate to Garrison Morrow, who may develop it for a farm.

FOR SALE—Ford 5-passenger car in good condition; price reasonable. Address P. O. Box 221, Crossville.

TUCKER-WILSON

Mr. Harve Tucker and Miss Jane Wilson were quietly married at the home of the bride. Esq. James Tucker officiated. They left immediately after the ceremony for Eastland where they will make their home for awhile.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Logan Wilson and has many friends throughout this section.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Tucker, of Flat Rock.

All wish them much joy through out their married life.
