GRASSY COVE

The people in this section are busy working the roads.

Our principal, Mr. Williams, went home on a visit, and on account of sickness in the family will not return.

Mrs. G. W. Davenport gave a lawn party for her Sunday School class of twenty, Sunday evening. She served hot chocolate and cake for the first course and candy and apples for the second. All seemed to enjoy themselves splendidly and went home in the best of humor.

All the farmers are very busy this fine weather taking care of their crops.

Paul Davenport went to Rockwood Thursday.

Rev. Watts is holding a revival at the Baptist church.

Mrs. J. C. Kemmer and Mrs. J. C. Kemmer, Jr., and little son, John C., made a trip to Knoxville last week.

G. W. Davenport is getting ready to build on his place near the Cumberland Mountain School in order to send his children to school. While Mr. Davenport owns two or three farms in Grassy Cove, he is going to try the mountain soil for awhile. He was elected Justice of the Peace a short time ago and will fulfill his duty to the fullest extent, for he will have a home at both ends of the line and will come and go as duty demands.

County Superintendent, Miss Ethel Walker was in this section visiting schools this week.

Oct. 7. Chatterbox.
(Chatterbox must give her real name or we will have to decline publishing items sent us. Her real name will not be published, if she so desires.—Ed. Chronicle.)

Rev. P. E. Radford filled his regular appointment here Sunday morning.

Rev. Jess Smith of Georgia, and Rev. Watts of Rockwood are holding a series of meetings at the Baptist church here.

Miss Gladys Davenport spent the week-end with home folks.

E. E. Ford and Crock Knox went to Rockwood today.

W. B. Andrews is doing some work for Mr. Radford at Ozone this week.

Road working is the order of the day here at the present writing.

Mrs. J. C. Kemmer Sr. and Mrs. J. C. Kemmer Jr., spent a few days in Knoxville recently.

Our school is on a drag at this time as the principal has gone home. We are in need of another very badly.

FREDONIA

The balmy September days have passed, and October brings thoughts of winter fast approaching, when we sit around a warm fire and roast the chestnuts or eat apples and know our crops of corn, hay and potatoes are safely stored in their respective places. J. S. Johns made a business trip to Creston Wednesday of last week.

Chas. Tabor attended church at Creston Sunday evening.

Wade and Walter McCuiston attended the meeting at Stebs Chapel Thursday evening.

Virgil Tabor was the guest of J. S. Johns Sunday evening.

Quite a crowd of young people from here attended the revival at Stebs Chapel Monday evening.

J. L. McCuiston and sons, Elmer and Dwight, of Howard Springs, were the dinner guests of J. S. Johns Sunday.

Oct. 10. Chrysanthemum.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

vs.

W. H. ROCKWELL

In the Chancery Court at Crossville, Tennessee—

It appearing from the bill in this case, which is sworn to, that W. H. Rockwell, is justly indebted to Frank Liebrock, the complainant, and that he resides out of the state and an attachment having been issued and levied on the defendant's property, it is ordered that publication be made for four consecutive weeks in the Crossville, Chronicle, requiring the said defendant to appear before said Chancery Court on or before the first Monday in November, 1922, and make his defence to the bill filed against him in this cause, otherwise said bill will be taken for confessed and the cause proceeded with ex parte.

This September 21, 1922.

This wonderful picture is an accurate portrayal of the famous gambling resort of Monte Carlo and represents the thrills of that world famous place of the high debauchee and villain.

"FOOLISH WIVES" portrays a bogus count and his two accomplices, Russian Princesses, in the foul scheme of attempting to drag down the beautiful wife of an American diplomat. The story of villainy and its tragic outcome are vividly portrayed.

It is claimed it cost more than a million dollars to produce this marvelous film and required more than eighteen months to execute it. It has had long runs in many cities and is regarded as one of the masterpieces of the movie world.

It is very likely that never before was it shown in a town the size of Crossville because of the heavy cost. It will be shown at the MECCA THEATER THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY nights OCTOBER 26, 27 and 28.

What Do You Demand From Your Roof?

WEATHER-TIGHTNESS. Carey Asphalt Shingles are water-tight, sun-proof, wind-tight. The tempered asphalt compound on a wool-felt base used in Carey Asphalt Shingles is the most perfect and durable weather-proofing known.

Fire-Protection. Crushed-slate surfacing makes Carey Asphalt Shingles proof against chimney-fires or flying sparks.

Permanence. Extra heavy construction makes these shingles withstand weather-wear. Their colors never fade.

Beauty. Carey Asphalt Shingles conform to every architectural conception and harmonize with any surroundings. No type of roofing is so adaptable to all conditions.

Let us show you some fine homes beautified by Carey Asphalt Shingles.

CRAB ORCHARD

Mrs. Lennis Martin Tedford has returned home from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Fred Wallack in Alabama.

Misses Nota Mae Borden and Gladys Davenport spent two days in Knoxville at the fair September 29 and 30. They drove through with Mr. Elgin and little son in his car.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Martin are the happy parents of a baby girl since October 3. Mrs. Martin's mother, Mrs. C. G. Black, of Crossville has been down to see the little lady.

An enjoyable time was spent Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Myers by a crowd of little girls in honor of their little daughter Esther's 10th birthday. Those present were: Mabel Hubbard, Margie Lee and Mildred Sherrill, Flossie Jernigan, Cora Sherrill, Willie Monday, Hazel and Thelma Martin, Flora Mae and Ethel Yates, and Esther Howard. They were entertained with games and plays, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Three of the teachers, Misses Gladys Davenport and Nota Mae Borden and Mrs. Burke Burno went to Ozone Friday afternoon and spent a delightful evening at a social given by the community club of that place.

The primary department of our school gave another one of their monthly programs Friday afternoon. Quite a few of the parents were present.

We have several cases of sickness in our little town which seems to be critical. The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rose is low with pneumonia. Also Mrs. John Hawn is very sick with the same disease. Mrs. W. A. Durham is not expected to live. She is suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Word was received here late Sunday afternoon that Mrs. Easterly who lives at Daddys Creek bridge is very sick.

HOT CHASE BY OFFICERS

LANDED ALEX SMITH

Escaped From Marshal Lyles While on Way from Court House to Jail.

As noted in these columns last week Alex Smith, Ross Parker and Hensy Smith were supposed to have stolen a Ford car from Rose & Haley. Friday Alex Smith was tried on the charge and Judge Snodgrass charged the jury that in a larceny case a person could not be convicted on the unsupported testimony of another person charged with being implicated in the crime. It seems that the only testimony given in the case was by Ross Parker, who was charged with being implicated in the theft and who it seems admitted the charge but in doing so turned state's evidence against Smith. The jury stood four for conviction and eight for acquittal. It seems that the eight felt just as strongly as the other four that Smith was guilty, but under the law as charged by Judge Snodgrass, a verdict of guilty could not be rendered and they voted for acquittal.

As Marshal Lyles left the court house with Smith to put him in jail he made a break for liberty and got away from the marshal.

Sheriff Henry and his deputies joined in the chase and Smith was finally caught lying in a thicket west of town. It seems he had sprained his foot or leg and for the time being could not run to do much good. He surrendered without resistance.

Marshal Lyles took him to Cookeville and he was placed in jail there for safe keeping pending his trial in the federal court on charge of bootlegging.

He is an old offender, having broken into the store of J. E. Burnett & Sons a few years ago and stole a pair or two of shoes. He left at once for Alabama where he was arrested in a short time for stealing and as a result served 14 months in the penitentiary.

FIRE IN ONTARIO, CANADA TAKES TOLL OF 50 LIVES

Fire raged through a portion of Ontario, Canada, last week and the loss of life is estimated at over fifty while the property loss may run to fifteen millions.

Temperature in deep mines is regulated by forcing compressed air into the shafts.

LIBERTY AND PROPERTY MUST BE PROTECTED

If Gompers Does Want Liberty Let Him Teach It and Oppose Lawlessness.

The statement by Mr. Gompers that the injunction against interference with interstate commerce will "promote the manufacture of bolshevism," adds nothing new to the world's knowledge of Mr. Gompers' teachings. Gompers backed the policemen who struck in Boston and turned the city over to bandits. Gompers backed the I. W. W. leader Foster, in the steel strike, notwithstanding the fact that Foster had been a teacher of sabotage and violence for years. Gompers declared that organized labor would "resist to the uttermost" any decrease of war time wages, even though all other lines of occupation were compelled to take losses.

"Resist to the uttermost" means just exactly what it says, and there can be no doubt that Gompers knew what he was saying and meant what he said when he used those words three years ago. He is talking no new language now. He is in full harmony with his teachings and practice when he cooperated with the I. W. W. leader in the steel strike. The people of the United States know just where to place Gompers and he can surprise no one by the radicalism of his utterances.

All that the government has done in the injunction proceedings is to enjoin men from unlawful interference with the operation of trains in interstate commerce. The injunction compels no man to work. It deprives no man of the exercise of his full liberty so long as he does not interfere with the liberty of others. It recognizes the right of one man to quit, just as it insists upon the right of other men to work unmolested.

The way for Mr. Gompers and his lieutenants to keep out of trouble with the government and with the people of the country, who will back the government "to the uttermost," is clear. Let them mind their own business and let other people's business alone. Let them work at any occupation they choose, and concede the same right to others. Let them enjoy the freedom they love, and permit the same enjoyment to others.

If radical labor leaders don't wish to feel the violent hand of the government upon them, let them cease to teach violence. If there be any who do not want to be restrained of their personal liberty, let them refrain from interfering with the liberty of others. If they do wish to enjoy the privileges of a country where law and order prevail, let them teach and practice order and uphold the law.

Neither the United States government nor any state or local government will deprive any man of his liberty or molest him in any manner so long as he goes about his lawful business in a lawful manner. But the first duty of government is to protect its citizens in the enjoyment of life, liberty, and prosperity, and this duty the government will perform "to the uttermost" to use Mr. Gompers' words. President Harding and Attorney General Daugherty have left no doubt on that point. Their assurances, backed up by action, give renewed confidence in the stability of popular government administration by duly chosen representatives and administrators.

APPOINTED JAILER

Sheriff J. H. Henry has appointed Marshal V. C. Lyles as jailer and he will move into the jail as soon as G. W. Walker and family vacate. The keys to the jail have been turned over to Marshal Lyles by Mr. Walker. Mr. Walker seems not to know how soon he can vacate the jail as he has a man on his farm near Crab Orchard, who has not vacated yet.

LOSES GOOD "ROLL."

Oliver Rector met with a serious loss yesterday afternoon about three o'clock. He lost $100 from his hip pocket while going from the store of Garrison & Garrison to the pool room. He discovered his loss as soon as he reached the pool room and immediately retraced his steps hoping to find the roll but failed. It seemed evident that some one had beat him to it.
