Mobile and Ohio's Exhibit. With its customary enterprise the Mobile and Ohio Railroad company, through its bustling general passenger agent, E. E. Posey, is reported by visitors to the Atlanta exposition to be doing much valuable work in enlightening visitors as to the agricultural and horticultural resources of Alabama.

It is said that the Mobile and Ohio company's exhibit of Alabama's agricultural and horticultural products greatly relieves the lack of a full exhibit in the agricultural department and demonstrates that Alabama can successfully and profitably grow nearly or quite all products that are grown in any other States. It is reported that the Mobile and Ohio is distributing some very attractive literature which describes the resources of Alabama very fully.

Short Items. The Alabama Great Southern paid off its employees between Birmingham and Meridian Sunday. The pay car was attached to the passenger train.

The Alabama Great Southern train brought forty negroes from Chattanooga yesterday to work in the quarries at Compton.

Claude Lewis, commercial agent of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, went down to Montgomery yesterday afternoon.

W. P. Adams, commercial agent of the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham, is in Montgomery on business for his road.

Captain Walter Glenn, formerly passenger conductor on the Birmingham Mineral road between Birmingham and Blocton, but now running on the Georgia and Alabama, is with friends in the city.

R. F. Beasley, passenger agent of the Louisville and Nashville, returned from Louisville yesterday.

A GREAT MANAGERIAL TRIO. The horses and horsemen of all nations, not by the dozen or by the score, but by the hundred, will be seen in infinite variety in the great Wild West exhibition which is shortly to be given here. In this exhibition the wonderful west of a few years ago will be revived in all its rugged and romantic splendor, with its plains, prairies and mountain passes; with its log cabin of the frontiersman, the swiftness of the Sioux, the burly bison, the pony express and the lumbering treasury coach of the overland route to Deadwood. The Mexican with his lariat, the cowboy with his bronco and the cavalry troops of the United States will all be here in picturesque grouping. With them will come also the rough-riding people from many foreign lands. The Cossack and the Russian steppes, the Ranchero of the Rio Grande, the Bedouin from the Arabian Desert and the trained horse-soldier of the strongest European nations, including the French Chasseur, the German Ulan and the English Irish Lancers; and at the head of this great aggregation, Col. William E. Cody, ex-scout, ex-Indian fighter and ex-legislator, the handsome, long-haired and imperious Buffalo Bill, deservedly the most popular of men, whose worship by all America has no other character in national history.

The Wild West exhibition, while entirely familiar of late years in the great cities of Europe, and later to the visitors to the Columbian Worlds Fair in 1893, and in 1894 to New Yorkers, will be entirely a novel entertainment in this section, and will no doubt attract, as it merits, an enormous attendance, as it will afford an opportunity of seeing a most novel, and at the same time, truthful object lesson, portraying as it does many of the important incidents of pioneer history.

For the present season the exhibition has in many directions been enlarged and Improved, while all the salient features of previous years have been retained.

Associated now with Mr. Cody and his long-time partner, Mr. Nate Salisbury, is Mr. James A. Bailey, the experienced and enterprising head of Barnum's great show. This trio of accomplished managers have left no effort untried and have succeeded in perfecting the details of the Wild West of 1895. It will be given here with the utmost completeness in a monstrous arena, with seating capacity of 20,000 people, who will be comfortably seated from rain or sun, and will be lighted at night by an electric outfit of 250,000 candle power, the largest portable apparatus of the kind in existence.

Of course every one will visit the great Wild West, but this will not prevent them from enjoying a preliminary treat in the shape of the free cavalcade, which will appear in the morning and will be made up of detachments from the various departments of the exhibition and will be conducted by the music of three fine bands, not the least important of which will be the famous mounted cowboy band. The date fixed for the appearance of the cavalcade and the Wild West here is Wednesday, October 23.

TWO FIRE ALARMS, But No Fire—A Negro Church Threatened by the Flames.

Shiloh Baptist church, colored, at Avenue F and Eighteenth street, was threatened by fire Sunday morning, but prompt work saved it. A defect in the flue, which had just undergone repairs, permitted some sparks to pass through to the shingle roof, thus igniting it. The South side fire department turned out in response to the alarm and quickly put out the blaze.

Another Fine Burn. The northside department ran to Twenty-third street, between Fourth and Fifth avenues, just before noon yesterday in response to a telephone alarm, but there was no fire when they got there. A defective flue in the residence occupied by E. Bloch caught fire and caused the alarm to be given.

THE BEST OF ALL IN ALL THINGS ALL THE TIME.

THERE are many GOOD life insurance companies, but among them all there must be one BEST. THE BEST IS THE EQUITABLE. If you wish to know why, send for: 1, the report of the Superintendent of Insurance for the State of New York on the examination of The Equitable; 2, for actual results of maturing policies; 3, for statement of death claims paid in 1894. Then you will know the three great reasons of The Equitable's supremacy: First, its financial stability; second, its great profits and advantages to living policy-holders; third, the promptness of its payments and liberality of its settlements.
