

ARRIVAL OF THE PERU.

Big Cargo of Oriental Merchandise and 663 Chinese.

The Pacific Mail liner Peru arrived Saturday afternoon, eleven days from Yokohama. Strong southeast winds prevailed nearly the entire voyage, causing the steamer's arrival one day late. She brought six cabin passengers for Honolulu, besides 663 Chinese and 52 Japanese. The cargo of the Peru amounted to 959 tons of Oriental merchandise. The Peru is a new vessel and was here something over a year ago. She was built by the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, in 1892, and is considered one of the best liners of the Pacific Mail fleet, though somewhat smaller than their other steamers. Her gross tonnage is 3528.

The officers of the vessel are: D. E. Freile, commander; F. C. Helland, chief engineer; J. R. Puckering, purser; A. O'Neill, surgeon.

The Peru continued her voyage to San Francisco early this morning.

Dutch Soldier Visitor.

An individual with red whiskers, dressed in a gaudy uniform and a helmet hat, attracted considerable attention yesterday while walking about the city. Investigation proved the man to be John Smit, a Dutch soldier. He was a steerage passenger on the Peru en route to Chicago, where he goes to visit relatives and reside. Smit has been stationed in the Dutch army in Bavaria for twenty-four years, and is now on the retired list. He ranks as sergeant, and, according to his story, has seen much active service. His fare was paid by the Holland Government, from which he will now draw a yearly pension. The soldier wore a number of medals—long-service, marksmanship, trophies of honor, etc. He was piloted around by George Stratemeyer, who speaks the Dutch language fluently.

Dissolution of Partnership.

H. H. Williams has withdrawn from the Pioneer Furniture Company and the firm of Williams Bros. The business will be carried on by E. A. Williams and C. E. Williams under the name of C. E. Williams & Son.

H. H. Williams will engage in the furniture and undertaking business on his own account. He has secured the two stores on the corner of Fort and Beretania streets and will open up in a short time.

Miss Cahill's Opening.

Miss Cahill has secured a portion of the Dai Nippon store on Hotel street and will open this morning a large and varied stock of the latest styles of millinery goods. Today, tomorrow and Wednesday will be devoted to showing the fine stock she has secured. Miss Cahill is well known to the Honolulu public, and the ladies should bear in mind that her goods are all new and of the latest designs.

Gillig Party Here.

H. M. Gillig, wife and maid, and Frank L. Unger, were among the passengers for Honolulu by the Peru. They are journeying homeward from a tour around the world and took passage on the Peru at Singapore. The party spent some time in Bombay. They will remain here until April 28th, sailing for San Francisco and home by the Gaelic.

Bishop of Salisbury.

The Right Rev. the Bishop of Salisbury will be a through passenger on the steamer Warrimoo due today from the Colonies en route to Vancouver. Should the arrival of the steamer be convenient, there will be a special service in St. Andrew's Cathedral this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at which the Bishop will preach.

Steamers in April.

The month of April will be prolific in the arrival and departure of steamers. From the Coast there will be the China on the 2d, Australia 8th, Arawa 11th, Warrimoo 24th and Ooptic on the 30th. Outward, the Warrimoo on the 1st, Alameda 4th, Australia 13th, and Gaelic on the 28th.

The HAWAIIAN GAZETTE is issued on Tuesdays and Fridays.

MOUNTED POLICE.

Force of Twenty-five—H. Cook Succeeds Cordes as Captain.

Gus Cordes is no longer captain of the mounted police. His resignation took effect last night. It is the intention to reconstruct the mounted force, and many changes will be made in its personnel. H. Cook, late sergeant of Company F has been appointed captain. Twenty-five men will form the detail, squads doing duty on shifts. The men are to be drilled according to United States cavalry tactics and equipped in a like manner. While one squad is on duty the others will be given instructions.

Wichart will likely be made lieutenant. Several specials have also been released from duty.
