NEW VIEWS!

Mr. Melvin Vaniman is now at the Volcano, where he hopes to get a photo which will do the subject justice. His wonderful photo of Honolulu, the largest direct photo ever made in the islands, not to mention the smaller, but not less perfect pictures of the Paia, Waikiki Beach, etc., place him in the front rank of his profession. It is not unreasonable to expect equally good results from his present trip, which will include all points of interest between Honolulu and the Volcano.

When completed, Messrs. King Bros., who are associated with Mr. Vaniman, will have a series of photos equal to anything made anywhere, and which will do more toward advertising the islands than any other medium.

Part of the series are now ready and on sale at

COMING TO HONOLULU

New China Com- missioner Is En Route.

OFFICIALS TO MEET AT SHANGHAI

T. S. Sharretts to Negotiate for Conversion of Ad Valorem Into Specific Duties.

Among the important United States officials who are to visit Honolulu is Thaddeus S. Sharretts of Maryland, who has just been appointed United States Commissioner to China. He was commisioned by President Roosevelt, and was to have taken passage on the America Maru at San Francisco on October 22. He will make a stop in Honolulu to look around the islands, and will also make a short stay in Yokohama and Manila, before proceeding to Shanghai, where his real duties commence.

His commission recites that he has been invested with "full and all authority for and in the name of the United States of America to meet and confer with any person or persons duly authorized by the government of China, by any government or governments having treaties with China, being invested with like powers and authority, and with him or them to agree on a plan for the conversion into specific duties, as far as possible and as soon as may be, of all ad valorem duties on imports into China, in conformity with these provisions and these requirements and contained in the final protocol, signed by the diplomatic representatives of China and the powers at Peking on September 7, 1901, the same to be submitted to the President of the United States for approval."

Mr. Sharretts, in a recent statement in regard to his mission, said:

"It seems quite probable that the meeting will begin in about six weeks after my arrival in Shanghai. As I understand, the commissioners of the other powers are to leave for China about the same time that I do, so we will arrive there within a few weeks of one another, and the meetings will begin soon afterwards. When my arrival in Shanghai, I will be furnished with the clerical force that is to assist me in the performance of my mission. My entire stay in China may consume a year.

"Before leaving China for home I am practically certain of having another duty to perform. The acting Secretary of state informs me that I will probably be selected by the President, in conjunction with the American minister to China, Mr. Conger, to negotiate a new commercial treaty with China. This duty may or may not keep me abroad a little longer than I at present expect.
In regard to my appointment, I have only to say that it came to me wholly un solicited. Indeed, I may say that I am, in a sense, regretful of my selection, but I do not feel that I can refuse it, having been selected for the position.
During Mr. McKinley's administration I was selected by the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Gage, upon the request of the President that he should recommend someone, and would have received the appointment from him except for his tragic death. I was to have left for China on September 12 last."

The new commissioner is well equipped by education and experience for the important work ahead of him. He is a native of Maryland, and has had a varied experience as a wholesale grocer, a lawyer and a newspaper man. In 1881 he was appointed United States Appraiser at the port of Baltimore, and after four years of excellent service he was transferred to New York, as a member of the United States board of general appraisers, and is still a member of that body. His appointment as Commissioner to China was not, it is reported, interfere with his former position, which has a salary of $7,000 per annum, and he receives no additional compensation for his work in China, but will be allowed all his actual expenses.

HOUSE JOURNAL READY TO FORWARD

Copies Will Be Sent to President and Members of Congress.

The Journal of the House of the Hawaiian Legislature of 1901 has been completed under the compilation of J. D.
Avery, journal clerk of the House, and copies are in readiness to be forwarded to Washington for various officials there.
The books are bound in legal leather, and the names of those for whom they are intended are lettered on each book.
There will be seventeen copies for the members of the House committee on Territories, and eleven for the members of the Senate committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico; one each for the presiding officer of the two branches of Congress, and personal copies for President Roosevelt, Mrs. McKinley, Secretary Hitchcock and Secretary Knox, the members of the Hawaiian Commission, composed of Senators Cullum and Morgan, Congressman Hitt, Chief Justice Frear and Governor Dole.

The volume consists of 880 pages, and contains, besides the regular House journal, a directory of the Legislative committees, committees, and a footnote on Moloka, calling attention to the fact that the leper settlement comprises but a very small part of that island. This is intended to convey the information to the members of Congress that the island of Moloka is not entirely set apart for the segregation of the lepers of Hawaii, which impression has evidently taken hold throughout the States. The footnote is printed to offset the recommendation to Congress that all lepers in the United States be sent to Molokai.
