

MOB GAVETY AT HAWAIIAN TONIGHT

Complying with the request of a number of the officers and ladies of the Ninth Infantry, Manager Church has consented to have another dance at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel tonight in honor of the famous regiment. The dance last night was so popular that the universal cry was for "more." To add to the enjoyment of the evening the famous Native Quintet Club of the Ellis Brothers will play and sing during dinner and afterwards for the dance. Captain Berger and his world-renowned Royal Hawaiian band will play in the hotel park during the intermissions of the dances. As this band has a reputation second to few in the world it is safe to say that the Ninth will be at the Hawaiian en masse.

Furthermore, several members of the Ninth Infantry orchestra, an organization second to none in the U. S. Army, have promised that this orchestra will play a few selections during the evening. In other words, as usual, Manager Church is keeping things going for his guests, and the "Army and Navy Hotel" will be a scene of great gaiety tonight. All officers of the U. S. S. Boston and the U. S. S. Ranger, if in port, are particularly wished to be present as this is their last night here and of course all other army and navy officers as well as the Honolulu public are most cordially invited to attend.

Home is all right but you want to feel good when you get there.

It isn't nice for the folks to have you go home played out and then fall asleep before dinner.

A glass of cold beer and a snack to eat at the CRITERION before you catch your car will make you feel like a new man.
