SULTAN WILL GET BUSY IMMEDIATELY

MANHUA, November 6.—(D. J. M.) Mohammed Jamil in Kinnon, Sultan of the Sultanate of Manhua, was a second cabin passenger on the transport Sher-mah which arrived in port Monday. The Sultan is filled with the largeness of things in America and other countries, and is planning to make his first visit to America as possible. "Though," he says, "I can't have any newspapers and elevated railroads yet, I would like to get people educated up to date."

He plans to have a grand feast upon his return to his home, by which all the head men will be ordered. They will be fed to their hearts' content, five or six different and have them immediately educated in American. Then a complete change will be made in the methods of living in the Sultan's capital. The Sultan does not expect this all to happen in a minute, but he wishes to be able to report that progress would be made to the States in 1912.

The Sultan, however, was very much impressed with the things that I had about my face and he will try hard to show the great leader of the Sultan and make his people be good people. One of the most interesting things about the party is the wild and woolly character they have with them from one of the farthest tribes and the wildest in the world. This chap always has a reputation as a bad man that would make the Wild Man of Borneo blush for shame. When asked if he ever ate anyone, his eyes sparkled brightly, though he master the Sultan dropped a diplomatic hint that controlled the Sultan's answer. The party leaves on the Saturday for home, and they expect to return in solution for a time resting and digesting what they have seen and eaten. The Sultan's party found a market in London for 60,000 pesos. Some of them were taken to America as was reported.
