JIM JEFFRIES AND BARNEY
OLDFIELD TO VISIT HAWAIISpeed Artist Will Bring Prince Henry Benz
Racing Machine to Honolulu---Coffroth
Is With the Party.

Participants and spectators Jim Jeffries and Barney Oldfield are coming to Honolulu, and Jimmie Coffroth too. The speed artist is going to bring his Prince Henry Benz racing car and the peaceful and speed limit abiding citizens of the metropolis of the Pacific will catch a glimpse of the "how you see it and now you don't" kind of gaso line which would not go by before you know it's coming. It is just going to be a pleasure trip, but maybe old stuff wants to see what the ability of these Parade Boys can do for him in the way of renovation. After he has quitted the Indiana ozone for awhile, Mike Paton may try him out to see if he can come back.

Then those is the Australian wonder, the heavyweight Alf Hall. Jim might like to cover his five hundred dollars' worth of self confidence and give the young gentleman a chance to disclose his identity as a pugnile phenomenon. Anyway, some folks are likely to be left around here, and Barney will adjust the atmosphere in a way that will let a few folks outside may relax soon, too. Anyhow, they are coming to see what a Los Angeles dispatch says.

Barney Oldfield has planned a pleasure trip to Honolulu, with Jimmie Coffroth and Jimmie Jeffries. The original plan was swapped out for Coffroth and Oldfield included a trip to the Auto park, but because of business the two have decided to make the Hawaiian Islands their destination.

Barney will take with him his Prince Henry Benz racing car. The Prince Henry is a fresh looking machine, capable of tremendous speed, and it will pique his curiosity to the native Hawaiians, who have never seen a racing car in their land.

Coffroth and Oldfield have been pals for a number of years and are interested in several racing deals together. Jeffries will accompany Barney and Jimmie, and will travel incognito if that is possible.

Aliiolani's Arrange
SUNDAY SOCCER GAME

The Aliiolani College students have organized a strong soccer team and have arranged a game with the alumni eleven for tomorrow afternoon at the college. The match is scheduled to start at two o'clock.

With an Aliiolani College student team the outlook for an interscholastic triangular soccer series improves. The Kamehameha Highs and a College of Hawaii eleven a while ago, and the Highs were the only ones to act on the suggestion. Sing Hwang formed a team which has had some practice and, now, with the Aliiolani, a series between these three teams would help some to develop wind for the track meet next spring.

SENIORS BEAT PICKED
BASKETBAL TEAM

The McKinley High School senior basketball team beat the picked five from the other grades 6 to 1 yesterday afternoon and two of the four points scored by the Juniors were made on free throws granted for fouls. Joe Dwight made the one basket which gave the picked team the other two points. The seniors scored their six points on three baskets. Cushingham landed one in the first half and Solomon Ho and Josh McRae Pratt put the other two in.

Yesterday morning Spender, an old Punahoa student who is now promoting minstrels and other novelties at the Pacific Settlement, entertained the Puns with an account of his doings.
