Proclamation.

The following is the text of President Dole's Thanksgiving proclamation:

The past year has brought varied experiences to the Republic. With abundant crops and fair business prosperity, both foreign and domestic, have come the critical incidents of domestic disturbance and dangerous pestilence; from both of which the country has been mercifully delivered with small loss of life through the blessing of Providence on the efforts of the government and its citizens.

In view of these things and other countless benefits which have been vouchsafed to us, I, Sanford B. Dole, President of the Republic of Hawaii, recommend that Thursday, the 28th day of this present month, November, be set apart as a day of National Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings of the past year and the promise of the future, and of prayer for the continuance of His favor.

(Signed) SANFORD B. DOLE.
