Home lunch at the Anchor with Rainier beer or other beverages from 11:30 to 1:30.

Blasts on public streets in midday, without warning, are not conducive to health or safety of limb. Nervous horses and people are apt to come to grief.

In replacing the old fire hydrants for the new perhaps the proper Department will see to it that they do not interfere with pedestrian travel.

Don't worry and make under wear when you can buy it so cheap, all ready made at N. S. Sachs.

Why cattle, pigs and sheep should be driven through the streets in midday, is as much a puzzle to strangers as is the habit of throwing banana and orange peel on the sidewalk without remarks from the police officers.

Company B's meeting last evening was healthy and a manly one, and from all appearances it will remain on the roster as a crack Company. The cloud of financial obligations will soon float away in the sun of business and patriotic prosperity.

Mr. Harry Gillig will arrive here by the Coptic on the 23d. In his party are editor Jerome A. Hart of The Argonaut and Alexander Hamilton of the firm of Baker and Hamilton, San Francisco. The Gillig party will return to California on the 10th of February.

To find a beer to suit all tastes was not an easy battle. But the Louvre won when it obtained That favorite draught Seattle.

In addition to the Rainier Seattle beer the Anchor keeps the finest blends of liquors. Notably amongst them are John Dewar's Scotch Whisky Standard Time, O.P.S., Long Life and Duffy's Malt.

One of the largest shipments of beer for the season was received by Harry Klemme of the "Louvre" from the Seattle Brewing Co. Importers of Rainier Beer find it necessary to increase their orders every month to meet the increasing demand. Sold in bottles or on draught at the Louvre.

Children's fancy Handkerchiefs at 50 cents a dozen, Sach's White Hemmed Stitch Handkerchiefs at 85 cents a dozen, fine Embroidered Handkerchief 2 for 25 cents at N. S. Sachs.

THE INDEPENDENT adds its few words of sympathy and condolence with his family on the death of James H. Bolster. He was a young man full of promise in the profession of journalism. Honest, modest, reliable and popular and a quiet friend maker. His labors are over on the threshold of a prosperous career.

Under the management of W. Carlyle, assisted by James Olds, Jr., the Empire is continually making improvements, and it is rapidly becoming to be one of the "tony" places in town. Now that the new ice chest is in place the Wieland beer comes up bright, clear and sparkling and recalls past memories when that beer was the best on the market. The Empire has always been celebrated for its old and imported wines and its liquors are clean and pure.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

The Doors of the Opera House will Open

It was stated a while ago that two of the leading musicians of San Francisco, probably would pay a visit to Honolulu; and during their stay here would give one or two concerts.

Mrs. Macquardt and Donald de V. Graham are the artists referred to and they have been induced by Mr. Harry Gillig to join his party which will arrive here by the Coptic on Friday the 22nd inst.

A concert will be given at the Opera House on Tuesday the 26th, and the musical people of Honolulu will have an opportunity to enjoy a thorough musical treat.

Mrs. Macquardt is perhaps the most brilliant harpist in the world. The gifted lady has been heard in Honolulu some years ago and she was received with well-deserved enthusiasm.

Mr. Donald de V. Graham is prominent as a musician in and outside of California. He is a welcome guest in the most exclusive society in San Francisco, and it will be a great pleasure to hear him at a public concert here. Mr. Graham has visited Honolulu before but could not be induced to give a concert.

The object of the voyage of Mrs. Macquardt and Mr. Graham is simply pleasure. Mr. Gillig, however, has persuaded them to give one concert here and we understand that he may be found willing to assist his friends by letting his magnificent voice be heard at the concert in one or two songs.

The box plan will be opened at Wall, Nichols & Co. to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and it will be necessary to secure seats as early as possible.

The Waikiki Cases.

In the Police Court this morning the cases against John Ashworth of Saratoga and Jim Sherwood of Long Branch were called.

Owing to the illness of a witness the Ashworth case was postponed, at the request of his attorney, A. G. M. Robertson. The Sherwood case was then proceeded with. Marshal Brown prosecuted and Creighton & Correa appeared for the defendant, who was charged with selling liquor without a license, at Waikiki on the 16th inst., to which charge a plea of "not guilty" was entered.

The first witness called was a mounted patrolman, who gave his name as Chas. C. Conley, but under cross-examination admitted the use of an alias. He testified to having been instructed by the Marshal to try to "catch" Sherwood, for which the Marshal liberally furnished him with eight dollars (taxpayers' money) of which four were marked. Mr. Conley, alias etc., testified that he drove in a buggy to a dark corner on Queen street, where he was met by Gus Cordes, Marshal Brown, and a soldier named Sinclair. There he received more instructions, and he and Sinclair drove to Waikiki, where they eventually bought beer from Sherwood and paid with the marked coin. In cross-examination Mr. Creighton asked a lot of disagreeable questions of Mr. Conley, alias Conley, eliciting from him answers which indicated that the Marshal's employee deserted from the U. S. S. Philadelphia by the advice of an officer of that ship. Mr. Creighton blandly asked the witness whether the naval officers of the U. S. are in the habit of advising the men to desert, a question which yet remains unanswered.

Gus Cordes, Sinclair, and other witnesses for the prosecution were called, and at noon the case was adjourned till 10 a. m. to-morrow.

A Narrow Escape.

Mr. B. Bergerson, the genial sewing machine agent, met with an experience yesterday which he will forget in a hurry.

Mr. Bergerson had closed his office about 5 p. m. and prepared to enter his carriage. The horse started before Mr. Bergerson had placed his foot on the step and he fell between the wheels. The horse started off and Bergerson succeeded in grasping the dashboard and in that position was dragged under the carriage from Bethel to Nuuanu street where the horse ran against a post and was stopped.

The coat trousers and shoes of Mr. Bergerson were torn to shreds during his perilous journey but as by a miracle he escaped any serious injuries and is only complaining of a few bruises.

This fact so pleasing to the genial gentlemen's numerous friends is so much more remarkable as he with justice can be placed in the heavy weight class. The INDEPENDENT suggests that Mr. Bergerson in the future abandon acrobatic feats and stick to the "Singers," and that if he insist in riding in carriages he choose to do it on top as other people do and not underneath the vehicle.

A Street Scene.

Chinese dray No. 92 loaded with Chinese freight made a sensation this morning on the corner of Hotel and Nuuanu streets. The driver evidently wanted to assist the Telephone Company in removing the old posts and he ran his dray into the post on the corner with considerable force and apparent glee. The telephone post, although old, stood the shock. Not so the horses, one which turned a complete somersault, and for a moment the air was full of horses, samshoo, soya, Chinese drivers, and profane language. The "cop" then arrived and ordered dray No. 92 to move on, which the driver eventually did after having put the horse on the dray and a soya in the traces.

Buffalo Beer has proved its immense popularity at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons. The celebrated Pabst is also retained there in draft or in bottle. The interchangeable check system that has proved such a convenience to the patrons of these popular resorts is also in vogue.

Jayasuriya, the Cingalese importer has opened a new store at No. 6, Hotel St., almost at the corner of Hotel and Nuuanu streets, where he has some splendid specimens of Cingalese lace and jewelry. The prices are within the reach of all from the poorest to the richest. An inspection will amply repay the lovers of the curious and beautiful.

Who built the Pantheon? We don't mean the Pantheon of Ancient History but the modern one on Fort and Hotel. The one with the best reading room in the city. Why? Jim Dodd and Enterprise beer, friendly and courteous treatment by all connected with it, and the fact that everything in stock is of the best quality and old Jim stands by as a true friend to all true men.

ONE ON LEAP YEAR.

This is the latest on leap year: A well known young gentleman declined to call upon a very charming young lady living in Queen Anne town When pressed for a reason he said: "She is too much like Ranie. Beer. She's bright, sparkling and pure, and so full of life I am afraid she will 'pop.' On tap or in bottles at the Criterion.

W.W. DIMOND'S

If you have passed our store at night during the past week, you have noticed lights burning and the force of clerks at work opening boxes and cases and marking up goods. The customers took all of the time the clerks had during the day, and the only opportunity we have had to get on with the work, is at night.

Lots of novelties have been brought by recent vessels from the Coast and we are now ready for our spring campaign. The beauty of our novelties lies in their usefulness; there's no wear out to them and each one fills a want. The Primus oil stove is the latest good thing to reach here, and it is destined to revolutionize the cooking industry. It burns nothing but kerosene oil and on the principal of gasoline but without the danger. The Primus will boil water in three minutes.

Mann's green bone cutter is not of much use anywhere but in the poultry house, and there it is a necessity. No other store in Honolulu handles this article. Soap is wasted in the kitchen, unless a soap saver is used. We have them made of wire that are economic gems.

The Crown self-basting roasting pans are so well known as not to require mention, beyond saying that we sell them. The same thing goes with our ice picks—nothing like them have ever been sold here for the money or convenience. Extension toast forks belong in every house where toast is eaten.

LEWIS & CO.

In an establishment like ours so many things for the table may be found that it is difficult to make a selection. We make an effort to secure only the best obtainable and the result is, that our list of customers is large.

We have genuine Scotch herrings and bloater mackerel either of which will be found excellent. An entirely new article to this market is concentrated Tomatoes, Golden Pheasant brand. Lewis & Co.'s Maltese brand of Asparagus and Lewis' uncovered hams. These are goods we can recommend and persons who have tried them once return a second time. Smyrna figs and FARD dates, new crop are especially fine. Genuine New York Sage Cheese is another delicacy not often found in Honolulu but we have a stock of it.
