IN SYMPATHY WITH AMERICA.

Majority of the People of England
Against Spain—Scotland and Northern Ireland Practically
Solid for the United States—Non-
Conformists Are All Pro-American,
While the Roman Catholics
Favor Spain.

LONDON, May 2.—The question as to whether British sympathy is really with America is still agitating those who are chiefly interested in establishing a good understanding between the two nations. Alfred Harmsworth who, personally and through his paper, has been doing the most efficient work in this direction is convinced that a large majority of the people of the United Kingdom are unreservedly in sympathy with the United States. He bases his conviction on a careful canvass of the country, which he has just completed. It shows that Scotland is practically solid for America, and that Ireland, except in the north, is hostile to America. Of the merchants, shippers and business men generally, 30 per cent are keenly American; 35 per cent are neutral and 35 per cent are against war anywhere.

The non-conformists are solidly pro-American, while 90 per cent of the Roman Catholics are pro-Spanish in all cases, according to the figures collected.

The British aristocracy, aside from the Catholics, is evenly divided, while the Jews are opposed to America.

On the subject of Catholic opposition to America, the Daily Mail in an article printed to-day, says: "It is largely due to distinguished members of the Catholic aristocracy and to the Catholic prelate of the United Kingdom and Ireland that a slight sympathy for Spain has been worked up during the past few days. The priests and people alike are intent on showing their interest in the country which is a firmer stronghold of the church than Italy, and great efforts are making to force the trend of public opinion. This fact and the strong Irish feeling explains why so few Nationalist members of the House of Commons have spoken publicly in favor of the United States. Redmond and Dillon have spoken, but the latter was immediately attacked by the widely circulated Catholic organ in England, the Catholic Times."

PAPERS HAVE CHANGED TUNE.

The German Press Called Down Very Hard by the Government—Take Their Lesson and Now Praise the Stand Taken by the United States.

BERLIN, April 30.—Public attention is so engrossed with the Hispano-American struggle that the re-convening of the Reichstag and Prussian Diet have been almost unnoticed. The newspapers print entire pages of war news from all parts, mostly unreliable, and much of it is unfavorable to the United States. Extras are repeatedly issued alleging great naval disasters to the Americans. One of the worst offenders announced on Wednesday evening last that four American warships had been blown up (giving among the victims a fictitious ironclad) off Buenos Ayres. As a whole, however, the German press has ceased its hostile tone toward the United States. For this change the Government is entirely responsible, as all the newspapers which are in the habit of obtaining information from the Foreign Office, which includes all newspapers of importance in the empire, were this week given a hint to stop their abuse of the United States as being directly opposed to the Government's attitude, besides being unpatriotic and politically unwise. The hint was effective, and not a line directly hostile to America has since been printed in any paper. Several newspapers, notably the Frankfort Zeitung, have adopted a distinctly friendly tone respecting the war.

The fact that Paris, Rome and Portuguese newspapers, which are even more unfriendly to the United States than the German newspapers were, all point out that the war is a conflict of the Latins against the Anglo-Saxons, also has had some effect in bringing about the quick change in Germany, and some of the formerly most hostile German newspapers are now emphasizing the view that the interests of Germany are entirely on the side of America. For instance, the Berlin Post, which enjoys close relations with Prince Hohenlohe, the Imperial Chancellor, and which hitherto has roundly abused the United States as "rapacious" and "pharisaical," now quotes utterances of French newspapers and deduces therefrom that it must be clearly to Germany's interests to side with the enemies of France.

Cheerily, Oh! The Anchor's Weighed.

Two of the most popular men in town have been installed in the renowned Anchor Saloon. Mr. Carlisle has taken the managerial helm as captain, and Charley Andrews has shipped as first mate. With such a crew the wants of every passenger will be carefully and properly attended to, and only the very best class of refreshments will be served to them in the most affable and cordial manner.

Succeeds Itself

Last year Seattle "Bock" Beer was waited for and sought after by the masses and pronounced the best Bock ever shipped to Honolulu.

This year this popular brew is better than ever and in anticipation of a larger demand than ever before the Criterion Saloon has laid in a large supply.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

To appear respectable is to be decently shaved, which can only be attended to at the European Barber Shop, Chas. Molteno, proprietor.

Scotland is famed for its fine whiskeys, and the best brands of it are obtainable at the Pacific Saloon. Ask for Andrew Ushers O. V. G.

Good eyesight restored by having a good practical optician examine your optics, and S. E. Lucas is the only oculist that can do it well at the Love Building, Fort street.

For straight and soft merry beverages one should call at the Cosmopolitan Saloon, where the finest of Pabst Milwaukee and bottled goods are served by George Cavanaugh.

Major Hawkins of the "Royal" wishes it to be known that Pabst Bohemian has superseded the famous draught of Doppelbrau. The latter in bottle is an excellent tonic at 25.

The favorite beverage of the nobility is Andrew Usher's whisky and Schwenke's famous soda. The Royal Annex, always up to date, is now responding to the frequent calls for "U. & S."

Our best efforts have been expended for nearly quarter a century in making desirable connections for the purchase of high class foods.

Now is the time of year to entertain—that's when you need us.

Some one said "I never come into your store without feeling that I would like to buy it out."

The price of a thing is generally what it is worth, competition regulates that. The higher the price, the better the quality as a rule; but price doesn't always guarantee quality, the reputation of the seller counts.

There's great responsibility selling groceries.

Life and health depend on good nutritious food.
