 Attorney John M. Vivas was a sick man last night. He was feeling unwell and used some medicine given to him by a friend. A mistake had evidently been made and the symptoms showed that the sufferer had been poisoned. Mr. Vivas had slightly recovered this morning but was obliged to ask for a continuance of his cases in court to next Friday.

A Serious Accident.

A serious collision happened on King street near Likelike street last evening at 7:30 o'clock which resulted in a serious accident to Dr. J. R. Shaw, who was thrown out of his buggy and sustained a fracture of his leg near the hip.
 An eye witness to the smashup states that the doctor was driving towards town in his buggy at an easy gait and with a lighted lantern in front of his vehicle. Outside Hopper's residence a hack was moving towards town very slowly. The doctor passed the hack in front and collided with another hack coming in the opposite direction and being on the wrong side of the road!
 The statement by the driver of the hack that he did not see the doctor's buggy or any light on it is plausible. He probably saw only the hack behind which the doctor's carriage was driving up, but he had no business to be on that side of the road.
 The statement that Dr. Shaw had no light on his carriage is incorrect. The lantern on his buggy was picked up after the collision together with the cushion.
 The injuries to Dr. Shaw are very serious and an investigation should be made and full statements obtained from all present at the unfortunate occurrence.
 The injured man was assisted to his home and Dr. Herbert summoned. The fracture is rather serious but the many friends of the doctor have good hopes that he will fully recover the use of his leg and be able to show himself around in a few months none the worse for his accident. Dr. Shaw, by the way, is one of the most careful and experienced drivers in town, and his horse couldn't beat a tramcar mule in speed.

His Own Lawyer.

Mr. O'Neill, the second mate of the Willscoot, appeared in the District Court this morning to answer to a charge of assault and battery on the cook of the vessel. The cook who presented a sorry sight claimed that he was an awfully nice fellow, and that O'Neill was a very bad man and had treated his face in the manner that any first class cook would do mashed potatoes.
 Mr. Magoon assisted the prosecution but did not succeed in "rattling" the defendant, who had no lawyer, or his witness the captain of the ship.
 The cook, who evidently had been "punished" was supported in his evidence by his wife, who is a stewardess on board the Willscoot.
 Eventually the mate was fined $25 and costs, the magistrate holding that the assault was proven beyond doubt and could not be justified by any possible provocation on the part of the cook. The fine was paid.

The Garonne Sails.

The band played the S. S. Garonne off for Seattle yesterday afternoon, and there was a quite a concourse of spectators to watch the vessel steam away. It is understood that, in spite of rumors to the contrary, she is to be kept permanently on the new line. She took away the following passengers and a number of the Columbia's men:

F Mahoney, J F La Casse, Mr Walker, Mr Devine, Mr Barber, P A Albertsen, E C Johnson, Hugh McCarty, A Johnson, Frank Jara, P W McCarthy, A S Brown, Miss Houghton, Miss Swafford, Mrs Otis Sprague, Miss Tuttle, John Wilson, William Jeffrey, M Lacy, Arthur Garrity, W P Harmonson and wife, N J Johnson, W P Mormon, Miss Gertrude Clark, Mrs W E Haskell and son, Miss Alice Strong, Mrs Clough, S P Richardson, Mr Ogden, E A Hatch.
