OAKLAND'S PUNCH.

The Innocent Damsels are Shocked Into Sapiency by Its Strength

OAKLAND OFFICE SAN FRANCISCO CALL,
908 Broadway, Jan. 25.

Society is shocked—it is alarmed. The chaperones and matrons have discovered that the younger set is in grave danger from punch, real champagne punch. There is evidence that there is need of a drastic reform in this direction, and it has already been started.

Not long ago—in fact very recently—a young lady living on this side of Lake Merritt was induced at a ball to partake so freely of the punch that it became necessary to assist her home. In fact, it is stated that she positively fell in the ballroom. It would be unjust to mention names of culprits or victims in this connection, because they all assert innocence and declare that if they had only known how the punch was constituted nothing in the world could have persuaded them to drink anything but pink lemonade.

The particular instance that has set society gossiping and the chaperones on the anxious seat is not the only one of its kind. Not long ago at a fashionable wedding one of the young ladies was so generously served by attending waiter with champagne that she required assistance from the table.

Again, within a year, at a function in classic Berkeley, another young lady was overcome through ignorance of the nature of punch, and in this instance, it is recorded that a coupe was hastily summoned to hide the evidence of the little scandal.

Now the question is being debated as to whether the crusade which has been rendered imperative in local society shall take the form of educating the young ladies into a knowledge of how much each can safely drink, or whether the attractive punchbowl shall be abolished altogether.

One of Oakland's best known women, after extracting a promise that her name should not be made public, said this afternoon: "It is an unhappy fact that there have been a few mistakes made during the past season. The girls cannot be expected to know the strong qualities of punch, and I think that such a beverage should not appear at a young folks' gathering. The matrons are giving this matter much discussion, because they realize that some rule must be established. It would be very cruel and unfair to give to the world the identity of the very few who have been the victims of an unfortunate mistake. Perhaps it is true that punch is served more frequently than in past seasons, and this may account for the fact that the subject has been made prominent at this time. However, I think in future the liquids at young folks' gatherings will be restricted to tea, coffee, ice-cream soda and pink lemonade."

Just how this decision will be received by the younger element of society remains to be seen.

GROCERY PHILOSOPHY.

It isn't uncommon at all for folks to say "No old KONA coffee comes here, and when discussing oil those same doubters say "it's cotton-seed oil."

They're right, there's nothing genuine in the world, everything's a sham, every person is a hypocrite, some folks think.

You have often heard it said "The best fruits of California go east and the ordinary is consumed at home."

Yet when speaking of coffees and olive oils, these same wise acres tell you the choicest is kept at home and the ordinary exported.
