Close the Windows

A number of "sports" of both sexes were arraigned in the District Court yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace. The fair ladies—six in number—looked bashful and pleaded guilty to having "whooped" it up. Their male partners did not all appear, but those who responded to the call of the court officer admitted that they had lifted their voices beyond the normal strength, and that they did not belong to any club or society through which they would find immunity. In fact they were not in "society."
 Judge Wilcox remarked that he occasionally drove around at nights, and, like Haroud Al Raschid, in disguise. He had seen the young men and women dressed in a very economical manner and in the costume of Adam and Eve before the fall, enjoying the dance known out of the good old Book as the "hula-hula." The judge fined each of the twelve signers $5, and suggested that in the future they close the windows, pull down the curtain and make less noise when practicing the Adamic dance.
 The fines were paid and the "dozen" asked THE INDEPENDENT not to mention their names. Here they are:—

OUR HILO LETTER.

Miscellaneous Items of Interest from the Capital City.

For the past week we have had a continuous rain, and since Monday morning no less than seven inches have fallen. It is however good growing weather and the young cane is looking fine.
 It is astonishing to see the rapid strides the Olan Sugar Company is making. The young cane, even upon the higher lands, looks better than was expected. If all things go on as smoothly as they are now doing the first crop will be immense. The cane in all parts of the plantation could not look better. There is a great future for this company.
 Hilo is to have another drug store. Mr. F. W. Bosworth, newly arrived from the coast, opens the "Owl" Drug Store tomorrow. We have found for some year or more the Hilo Drug Company, which is as well equipped and well managed as any drug store in the country and supported by most of the plantations on Hawaii, quite able to supply the trade which is not, however, very considerable. Hilo is yet a small town and Mr. Bosworth should remember that "there is always room for one more" frequently means that the room is vacant again after a while.
 The news of the sinking, or whatever it may be, of the City of Columbia struck Hilo with amusement.
 The Ladies' Social Circle of the Hilo Foreign Church gave, on Thursday night, one of its pleasant receptions in the parlors of the Church. Mrs. Jas. Gibb, of Wainaku, had charge of the social, which was considered the best that has been given for some considerable time. The reception was tendered to Mr. Massie, the minister of the Foreign Church on Kauai who, after spending a few weeks with Mr. C. C. Kennedy at Waiakea, leaves for his home by the Claudine tonight.
 The person who is responsible for that tissue of lies, only too readily published in the San Francisco Examiner, to the effect that Hilo had been destroyed as was Pompeii of old, deserves a severe punishment. Those few words have done considerable damage to the immediate prospects and advancement of Hilo. The insurance companies in the States have instructed their agents here to add a clause to their policies to the effect that they do not hold themselves liable for loss by volcanic eruption.
 The proprietor of the Union Saloon has been notified that his liquor license will not be renewed for the saloon in its present location. Mr. Serrao has already commenced upon a new building on Shipman street near the new fish market, to be used as a saloon.
 Hilo is getting a fair share of the stranger professional man. Judge Caldwell, a lawyer of repute from Seattle and San Francisco, and Dr. Wetzell, a physician and surgeon of well known ability, both opened offices this week.
 The Roderick Dhu left Hilo with a full cargo of sugar and coffee, as well as a large number of passengers, on Wednesday last. The Santiago and Archer are both loading the balance of this year's sugar, and expect to get away next week.
 There is still considerable sickness in Hilo. Malarial fever is very prevalent, while typhoid fever is still claiming the attentions of the doctors.
 CECIL MORGAN.
