How to Treat the Foreigners.

INSTRUCTIONS TO HIOGO KEN POLICE.

Mr. Ikigami Shiro, Chief Police Inspector of Hiogo Ken, has issued the following instructions relating to foreigners to the chiefs of Police Stations:

1.—It is the principle of international intercourse to treat visitors from far off lands kindly and politely, and it is also the common spirit of civilized nations to live in harmony of feeling towards each other and to endeavor to procure smoothness of relations and intercourse.

2.—Many foreign residents understand the Japanese language and it is better to try to first address them in polite Japanese.

3.—Never use any unpleasant words or criticize the foreigners' movements, clothing or his business. He is able to understand our meaning very often even if he cannot speak Japanese.

4.—Try to prevent any unpleasantness towards foreigners while they are shopping by allowing a crowd of bystanders around them.

5.—Foreigners treat dogs better than we can think of and a diligent search should be made and good protection given when notice of a missing dog is given. When a house dog barks at you, you should tell the servant of the house to pacify it. Don't treat it roughly.

6.—Foreigners take it as impudence if you stand or patrol within their hearing while they are engaged in conversation, and you are to be careful about these petty matters.

7.—When you call on a foreigner you should not go in the early morning, at meal hours, or late at night if you can help it. The best hours for calls are from 9 a. m. to noon and 2 p. m. to 6 p. m.

8.—You should pay good attention to your clothing prior to your call and should be very careful not to commit any blunders during your call.

9.—You should ask for admittance by pushing a call-bell or striking a gong placed before the door for the purpose. If there is no bell, knock at the door with your finger, but never call out for admittance.

10.—If the usher appears at the door you should ask him if the foreigner you want to see is in and deliver your card to be conveyed to him.

11.—Before you enter the house you should clean your boots on the shoemats placed at the entrance.

12.—When you call on a foreigner in private clothing take off your hat and overcoat outside the room, and leave them in the proper place. The former is however sometimes carried into the room.

13.—Never carry a lighted cigar or cigarette into the house.

14.—Don't take a seat until you are asked to.

15.—Greetings to foreigners are conveyed by a simple bow. Don't shake hands with them if you are not invited to do so. It is a gross insult to put out your hand to a lady before she does.

16.—A prompt answer to any letter will give satisfaction.

17.—Conversation should be simple yet polite and must not take too much of the foreigner's time.

18.—When ushered into a room before the master, take a seat but do not touch the decorations or articles in the room.

19.—Don't spit in or out of the room. Never smoke in presence of a lady.

20.—Leave the doors or gate at your exit just as they were when you entered.

21.—Dress your hair and beard always. Dirty clothing and an unkempt head are an insult in civilized countries.

22.—Cut the finger nails properly and keep them clean.

23.—Button up your uniform and pay special attention to the trousers.

24.—Keep your boots clean always.

25.—Keep your handkerchief clean and never carry a soiled one. —Kobe Herald.
