THE WAR IN PHILIPPINES.

Rebels Pay Dearly for Murder—
Vengeance of Fortieth.

MANILA, July 26.—At Oroquieta, in Northern Mindanao, two soldiers entered a native store for the purpose of buying food. While there one of them was killed with a bolo and his head severed from his body. The other escaped and gave the alarm.

A company of the Fortieth Infantry stationed at Cagayan repaired to Oroquieta and killed eighty-nine natives, thirty-eight of them being in a single house.

Subsequently the gunboat Callao, commanded by Lieutenant George B. Bradshaw, shelled Oroquieta, burning the warehouse. One of the crew was killed.

A force of the enemy estimated to number 500, under the leadership of Alvarez, formerly the insurgent President of Yabanga, is now persistently troubling Northern Mindanao.

A marine of the outpost of Isabella Debasilon was bolied by natives and so badly wounded that he died. Isabella is tranquil.

New York, July 26.—The World has this from Hongkong under date of June 12:

"While no proclamation has yet been issued declaring the Filipinos in arms to be outlaws, the American troops are practicing in sports in the Philippines a policy beside which bandit law is a tame affair. The administration has decided the rebellion must be 'kept down,' and in spite of peace proclamations our soldiers here and there resort to horrible measures with natives. Since the war was officially declared to be ended we have killed more Filipinos than the Spaniards did in both rebellions. Captains and lieutenants are sometimes judges, sheriffs and executioners. If a half-dozen natives more or less are shot on suspicion of being our enemies no news of it reaches the Military Governor, who wants none.

"Publicly we are granting amnesties to prisoners. Publicly we are most liberal. Instead of executing our bandits in public plazas in the presence of the people we execute them where they are caught. That keeps the facts quiet—keeps the truth away from the people of the United States, which is considered justifiable because they 'cannot understand the situation and its necessities.'

"If many actual occurrences were literally told people would refuse to believe that such barbarities take place under our flag.

"I don't want any more prisoners sent to Manila,' was the verbal order from the Governor General three months ago. That is the message passed along from officers to privates, and it has been interpreted in several ways. In other words, the volunteer officers and men individually have been guilty of deeds which when committed in Cuba by the Spaniards so inflamed the American people that they went to war to set Cuba free."

1. When Required.

"No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land and naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger." U. S. Const., Amend. Art. 5.

2. How Drawn.

"Until otherwise provided by the legislature of the Territory, grand juries may be drawn in the manner provided by the Hawaiian statutes for drawing petty juries." Org. Act, Sec. 83.

3. Qualifications of Jurors.

"No person who is not a male citizen of the United States and twenty-one years of age, and who can not understandingly speak, read and write the English language, shall be a qualified juror or grand juror in the Territory of Hawaii, and all juries shall hereafter be constituted without reference to the race or place of nativity of the jurors." Org. Act, Sec. 83.

4. Number of Jurors.

"The number of grand jurors in each circuit shall not be less than thirteen" nor more than twenty-three. See Org. Act, Sec. 83.

5. Sessions.

"Until otherwise provided by the legislature of the Territory, grand juries * * * shall sit at such times as the circuit judges of the respective circuits shall direct." Org. Act, Sec. 83.

6. Challenges.

Before the grand jury retires, the prosecuting officer, or any person held to answer a charge for criminal offense, may challenge the panel or an individual juror, for cause to be assigned to the court. All such challenges shall be tried and determined by the court.

7. Foreman.

From the persons summoned to serve as grand jurors and appearing, the court shall appoint a foreman, and may remove him for cause. The court may appoint another foreman when the necessity arises.

8. Oath of Grand Jurors.

Substantially the following oath shall be administered to the grand jurors:

"You, and each of you, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will diligently inquire, and true presentment make, of all such matters and things as shall be given you in charge, or shall otherwise come to your knowledge touching this present service; that you will present no one through envy, hatred, or malice, nor leave any one unpresented through fear, favor, affection, gain, reward or hope therefor, but will present all things truly as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding; and that you will keep secret the proceedings had before you."

9. Charge of the Court.

The grand jury, being impanelled and sworn, shall be charged by the court. In doing so, the court shall give them such information as it may deem proper as to their duties and as to the law pertaining to such cases as may come before them. The court may further charge the jury when the necessity arises.

10. Officer in Attendance.

The court may appoint an officer to attend upon the grand jury.

11. Retirement of the Grand Jury.

The grand jury shall then retire to a private room and inquire into the offenses cognizable by them.

12. Clerk.

The grand jury may appoint one of their number to be their clerk, to preserve minutes of the proceedings before them, which minutes shall be delivered to the prosecuting officer, when so directed by the grand jury.

13. Subpoena of Witnesses.

"The several circuit courts may subpoena witnesses to appear before the grand jury in like manner as they subpoena witnesses to appear before their respective courts." Org. Act, Sec. 83.

14. Swearing Witnesses.

Witnesses appearing before the grand jury may be sworn in open court or by the foreman of the grand jury, or, in his absence, by any member thereof.

The oath or affirmation may be substantially as follows:

"You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the evidence which you shall give before the grand jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."
