Late War News.

Liaoyang, Aug. 31.—The entire Japanese army, commanded by Marshal Oyama and including the divisions of Kuroki, Nodzu and Oku attacked General Kuropatkin's position yesterday. The Japanese brought 1200 guns to bear and the contending forces numbered 400,000 men. All arms of the service were engaged and the fighting was desperate. The Russian cavalry made several effective charges. The losses of life on both sides were enormous. The Russian hospitals in Liaoyang are full.

Today the Japanese made several attempts to turn the Russian flank but were unsuccessful. They lost ten guns. Tonight (note difference in time between the eastern and western hemisphere) the artillery fire has ceased. The battle will be resumed tomorrow when the fighting promises to be of the bloodiest character. On it depends the future of the entire war. Gen Kuroki's forces took no part in today's action.

Tokio, Aug. 31.—Two thousand Japanese were killed and wounded at Anping and eight Russian guns captured.

Madrid, Aug. 31.—Ten Russian warships are cruising on the coasts of Spain, Portugal, France and Africa, searching British colliers bound for Japan.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 31.—A war loan of $250,000,000 is being arranged with German bankers.

Chefoo, Aug. 31.—The assault on Port Arthur continues.

Davis of West Virginia.

The Republican press is profoundly concerned about the Democratic vice presidential candidate on two scores. It regrets his advanced age more than words can tell and is already beginning to admit the possibility that if elected he may not outlive his term of office and also to suggest that his would be too aged a hand to hold the helm of state should he be called upon to assume the presidential chair. Secondly, it is pained that he should be a man of wealth, worth, they say about $30,000,000, instead of one of more moderate fortune. There is a vague suggestion in the editorials that have come to our eyes that a vice-presidential candidate should not have that much money and that the Democratic party has somehow surrendered its principles by nominating him.—New Orleans Picayune.

An Ideal Candidate.

The great conservative business element of the country, whose interests demand an orderly, conservative, stable government, will find in Judge Parker a candidate exactly to their liking, and they will see that the Democratic platform is like the candidate, safe, dignified, conservative and indicative of caution in all things, the conservation of our national prosperity and the preservation of the national dignity and honor.—Irish American.
