LOCAL NEWS.

King Kalakaua is fifty years old to-day.
The Palace is beautifully decorated for the jubilee festivities.

The Registrar is going to have accounts due his bureau collected monthly.
'Kulikul' is what the initiated say when asked about the new secret society.

Jubilations in song and dance began early and continued all night at the Palace.
Electric lights were glowing round the Palace last night, and the gasoline lamps looked sick.

Mr. Antone Rosa has been appointed Attorney General in place of Mr. Kaulukou, resigned.

The crew of the German bark Pacific will enter a ship's boat in the regatta of to-morrow.

Mr. William Auld has been appointed Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, in the place of the late W. B. Wright.

Majors A. B. Hayley and W. H. Cornwell have been made Knights Commander of the Royal Order of Kapiolani.

It is said that the Kilokilo Society will speedily become a thing of the past, official and private sentiment choking it to death.

On and after to-day the Honolulu police will wear spiked helmets the same as the military, and be equipped with belts and batons.

No orders were issued to the military companies to be present at the Palace to-morrow, at least no general or published orders.

All who wish to enjoy the regatta to-morrow to the best advantage should secure one of the official programmes at Mr. J. H. Soper's in the morning.

The bark Theobald when first sighted on the evening of the 14th inst., had her flag at half-mast. Investigation proved that it was an error of one of the jolly jack tars.

No decision has yet been arrived at regarding whom to pardon, or not to pardon, out of the tender care of Captain Tripp. The subject will again occupy the attention of the Privy Council on the 19th inst.

The firemen assemble at the Bell Tower by companies at 7 o'clock this evening. At 7:30 the procession will start, going through the streets denoted in the advertisement elsewhere. There will be brilliant illuminations of the several fire halls.

His Majesty yesterday sent, through Hon. John A. Cummins, a gift of several hogs and a quantity of bananas to the Queen's Hospital, for the purpose of helping toward a feast for the patients and attendants, in honor of the royal jubilee birthday.

The Masonic burial service was rendered at the funeral of the late Mr. Wright by Mr. W. B. Davey, W. M. of Lodge Le Progres de l'Oceanie, assisted by Mr. J. M. Monsarrat, W. M. of Hawaiian Lodge, and Mr. D. Dayton, P. M. of the first-named lodge.

Quartermaster General S. Nowlein is naturally delighted with the handsome ice pitcher presented him by the King's Own. Desirous of his friends participating in his joy, he has placed it on exhibition at the Merchant's Exchange, where he will be glad to show it to any and all of them.

New Paper.
The Daily Bulletin last evening resumed its foreign mail summary, issuing it separate from the day's edition in very neat eight-page form. In this manner it will be much more acceptable to local patrons, and the Daily Bulletin Summary may be entered as a regular fortnightly publication. The proprietor's enterprise is commendable.

Quick Work.
The bark C. O. Whitmore began discharging her cargo of 638,000 feet of lumber at noon of Monday, November 8th, and finished yesterday at noon, taking precisely six days. This makes an average of a little over 106,333 feet per day, and was accomplished by the unaided work of the ship's crew. Captain Thompson thinks this beats the record, and he is justly proud of his men.

The Best Tonic.
Mr. Henry Billings, Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used your Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky for medicinal purposes. As a tonic I consider it superior to the hundreds of concoctions which are now flooding the land as stimulant liquors."

SUPREME COURT.

Intermediary Division.
Before Chief Justice Judd, yesterday, was heard C. R. Bishop et al., vs. A. Kaula et al.; summary possession of land. Mr. Whiting for plaintiffs.

This was a case heard before the Chief Justice sitting as District Magistrate of Koolaupoko the District Judge, Hon. Asa Kaula, being one of the parties and hence disqualified. The complaint alleged nonpayment of one-half year's rent due August 1st, 1886, and prays for possession of the ilaiina of Kikiwaiwala in the ahupuaa of Heeia, Koolaupoko, leased at $300 per annum, said nonpayment operating as a breach of covenant. The Court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of plaintiffs for possession of land and that the lease be cancelled.

Messrs. Kinney & Peterson for Afa, one of the lessees, noted and perfected an appeal to a jury.

In re estate of J. M. Daigle, reported by the HERALD a few days since, His Honor the Chief Justice yesterday filed an opinion that the widow can only take her dower in the equity of redemption of the Kapalama land, that is, upon the surplus remaining after satisfaction of the mortgagee's claim. Her dower will be one-third absolute of $1,800, proceeds of the Pensacola street property, and a life interest in the one-third of $135 surplus as above.

Police Court.

The drunk list yesterday comprised J. Patterson, Samuela, Ioane, Kaloke, Kahale alias Apiki, Lawrence and W. T. Clemens, making up $42 in forfeits and fines.

Two Chinamen charged with violating the Sabbath were reprimanded and discharged.

Seventeen Chinamen charged with gaming were remanded until the 19th inst. at their request. Hon. Paul Neumann appeared for them.

Keokeawe was fined $10 for assault and battery on Hoohuli.

Ah Hu and Ah Tong were both cleared of assault and battery on each other.

E. F. Miller was tried for assault and battery on Kumahoa on board the steamer Likelike on or about the 12th inst. The evidence went to show that complainant had interfered with the defendant, who is mate of that vessel, when the latter was sending a sailor boy to his duty. The mate and Kumahoa got into a struggle and were parted by the captain. Afterward, according to Kumahoa, defendant struck him on the head with a belaying pin. Other witnesses testified to the same effect, but Miller denied that he struck the man with the pin. He was discharged.

Alo was committed to the Insane Asylum on the evidence of Dr. Webb that he was a fit subject for that institution.

To give its literary and mechanical workers at least one day of this festive season, the HERALD will take a holiday to-morrow, appearing again on Thursday.

THE KING'S JUBILEE

Events of the First Day.

At six o'clock this morning the Marshal of the Kingdom and the Honolulu police will march to the Palace, headed by the Reformatory School band, and the guardians of the peace will present their loyal congratulations. The same hour the Royal Hawaiian Band will station itself for the day at the Palace.

At a quarter to ten the Cabinet, Judiciary, Governors, Nobles, Privy Councilors and Representatives will pay their respects to the King.

From ten to eleven will be devoted to receiving the two divisions of the Liliuokalani Educational Society, the Ladies' Savings Bank Society and Nihoa Society.

At half-past eleven representatives of foreign countries will call on His Majesty, and at noon Government officials.

Several societies named in the official advertisement, also the Honolulu Fire Department, will appear at one o'clock.

The public will be admitted to the royal audience at three o'clock, ladies to be received by Her Majesty, and at half-past three the military will have their turn. The King's Own and Queen's Own will form line in the yard without arms, and present loyal offerings to their sovereign.

Last evening Mr. F. P. Hastings, United States charge d'affaires, was received at the Palace and presented congratulations forwarded by President Cleveland in anticipation of the King's jubilee birthday. This was a change from the original programme, where in 1882 this forenoon was appointed for the presentation of the regards of the American chief magistrate.

The Honolulu Rifles will assemble at their armory (see advertisement elsewhere) at ten o'clock in the morning, and proceed to the Hawaiian Rifle Association's Range for their annual target practice. Afterward a match between teams from the Association and the Rifles will take place.

The evening will be taken up with the firemen's grand celebration.

At midnight the Jubilee was ushered in by the ringing of the tower bells of the city, artillery salutes, bonfires at six points on Punchbowl, together with a pretty display of fireworks, and a terrific din of firecrackers and bombs in the city. The Royal Band also performed a fine programme at the Palace, concluding at one o'clock.

The Benefit of Cleanliness.

The tug Eleu, since her cleaning, has carried joy to the hearts of Captain Rice and Engineer Farnsworth by the manner in which the vessel now "walks the waters like a thing of life." A trial of her speed was made on last Sunday, on the arrival of the bark Theobald; time was taken on the passage out between the Spar and Bell buoys, half a mile apart, the distance being accomplished in 3 minutes and 34 seconds under 60 pounds pressure. After hooking on to the vessel, time was taken between the same points on the return trip, 4 minutes 35 seconds, with the same pressure. Captain Rice now sighs for a marine combat with a vessel of the Eleu's size.

Famine of Light.

There is a dearth of gasoline in the city. Vessels coming from the Coast lately have had no room on deck, the only place on shipboard where the fluid may be carried. The Queen's Hospital is the only institution in the city which has anything like a surplus of the article, and the Board, through Mr. John H. Paty, has loaned the Palace, the Hawaiian Hotel and some private dwellings quantities to tide them over the scarcity. Even naphtha, the illuminant that throws shadows of the street lamp posts on the paths, has run so low in stock that the city is partially eclipsed when the moon does not shine.

Beautiful Work.

The Visitors' Book to be used at the King's levee to-day is bound in crimson plush, and has an illuminated title on the inside of the cover done in Stratemeyer's best, which is saying a great deal. On the outside of the cover the Hawaiian coat-of-arms is worked with a single thread of white silk, the colored bars where necessary being of inlaid pieces of plush. This exceedingly artistic and painstaking work has been accomplished by Mrs. Nichol, and is one of the finest pieces of art needlework ever seen in Honolulu. Mr. Rasemann did the binding in a workmanlike manner.

A Rich Stock.

Mr. C. J. Fishel sat up last night till long after the Jubilee was ushered in, opening his recent arrivals of goods. Our reporter dropped in on him at a late hour, finding him among huge piles of rich and rare fabrics and articles of lady's and gentleman's wear. It would be impossible to particularize the various lines contained in this gorgeous bazaar with the limited space at disposal this morning, but the public can go and see for themselves, when they will perceive that no description could exaggerate the beauty or variety of the display.

Try Martinelli Cider. It is absolutely pure. Macfarlane & Co., agents.

Regatta Notes.

Everything promises well for an excellent return for the efforts made by Governor Laukea and Mr. Chas. B. Wilson to secure a full day's sport on the waters of the bay in the usual regatta which takes place, this year, on the 17th inst. The list of entries made up by Mr. Jas. W. Robertson, the secretary of the committee, shows that, for the 1st race, there are seven entries; 2nd race, four entries; 3rd race, seven entries; 4th race, four; 5th race, two; 6th race, three; 7th race, eight; 8th race, eleven; 9th race, second class yachts, eight; 10th race, six; 11th race, three; 12th race, three; 13th race, three; 14th race, six, and 15th race, three. The entries have all been made free and the prizes will be paid at the judges' scow.

The races will be started at 9 a. m. sharp. The judges appointed, and who have kindly agreed to serve, are Captain King of the steamer Kinau, Captain Cousins of the brigantine Consuelo and Mr. W. H. Aldrich, Captain Fuller will, as usual, start the boats and Messrs. John Spear and F. L. Clarke will act as timekeepers. Nearly all of the races will be taken part in by oarsmen who have not trained for the occasion, and a jolly day's sport is anticipated.

Invited guests to the flag-ship W. G. Hall will be furnished with rapid transit, from the shore to that vessel, by means of Mr. Herbert's new steam launch which he has kindly placed at the disposal of Mr. C. B. Wilson, the chairman of the Regatta committee.

Mr. Morris gave a splendid exhibition of fan-y billiards at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening. Something like fifty distinct feats, mostly very difficult, were performed. Among others he made the cue ball go in three different directions, and again played a follow and draw with one shot. The balls indeed seemed more to be guided by the player's intelligence than by the mechanical impulse he gave them. Nearly every display of skill was saluted by hearty applause.

The four trash houses of the Kohala sugar mill were burned on Friday night last. Mr. David Dayton, Deputy Marshal, who was the guest of Mr. Chapin, the manager, took part in the ineffectual efforts to save the property.

There will be a pin pool match for a purse of $350, between Morris and McCleery, at the Hotel on Saturday night.
