LOCAL NEWS.

Messrs. Allen & Robinson's block is being painted.

Foreign jurors are required at the Supreme Court this morning.

St. Andrew's Cathedral Sunday school will hold an Easter festival on Tuesday, April 12th.

Mr. H. A. Richter, of the Victoria restaurant, has lately furnished several recherche dinners in private houses.

Neither the Claus Spreckels nor the Saranac brought a mail. All the more for the steamer Australia to bring today.

Mr. F. P. Hastings has knocked spots out of the best previous record of left hand bowling by making a score of 101 on Friday night.

A misprint in Saturday's HERALD report of the Friday evening concert made Mr. L. A. Thurston "signal" master instead of singing master.

Mr. A. M. Hewett has kindly supplied the HERALD Office with an excellent file of the latest San Francisco papers, from his literary emporium on Merchant street.

Mr. Nolte received a soda water apparatus from San Francisco by the Claus Spreckels, for the benefit of customers of the Beaver lunch and refreshment saloon.

A horse belonging to Messrs. Hus-tace & Robertson ran away on Queen street yesterday, and, hitting his head on a telephone post, fell dead opposite Mr. Waterhouse's store. It was a valuable draft horse.

One of the road department jack-asses ran away with its cart at Palama yesterday, making a lively racket down the Asylum road. An aged Chinaman was so terrorized at the flying team that he fell down in a swoon.

Col. J. Harbottle Boyd has received a friendly caution from a neutral foreigner, not to attempt any acquisition of Uncle Sam's territory, on the occasion of his projected trip to the Coast as one of Her Majesty's traveling party.

There was a large attendance at the complimentary band concert to Commodore Dickerson at the Hotel last night. The King and other distinguished personages were present, and amused themselves in the billiard rooms after the concert.

His Majesty was on the Kinau wharf on the departure of the steamer last evening, and bought a quantity of leis with which he decorated several foreign ladies. His Excellency L. Aholo, Marshal Kaulukou, Col. J. Harbottle Boyd and Q. M. G., S. Nowlein were also on the wharf.

Three Reformatory School boys, one of whom wears three stripes for good conduct, are in custody on a charge of stealing stuff for navy uniforms out of the Principal, Captain Jackson's house. Mr. J. A. Magoon will probably appear for them when called up.

Police Court.

At yesterday's session Ah Yun, for larceny of $25, was remanded to the 7th.

Kahelemaunio, Liwai, Kaubane, F. S. Keiki, Kimo Keie, Henei, Liona, Vila, Welehu, Kaleiauki, Kapuni, Kealaka, Jas. Hiron, Kekala, Kealoha and Ehu (w), drunkenness, $6 each.

Ah Lai, obstructing the streets, contrary to Act of 1886, $8.60.

Ah Tin, Ah Choy, An Yit, Hay Hu, Tan Chan, Ai Yuk, To Yai, Lee Chong, Ah Hao and Lee Fu, gaming on Sunday. Remanded to the 7th.

Robert Robinson, selling spirituous liquors (beer) without license. Remanded to the 7th.

Ah Wai, assault and battery, remanded to the 6th inst.

Accident to a Policeman.

A painful accident happened to Officer Hopkins on Saturday. He was sent by the Marshal to Waikiki for the purpose of assisting a private claimant to a horse and buggy in securing possession of the property without the usual formalities of law. The officer undertook himself to drive the horse to the claimant's home, but there was a nut off one of the axles, and before he had driven far a wheel came off and the buggy careening over the horse let fly his heels. The kick took effect on Hopkins' mouth, disengaging several teeth and cutting the lower lip. He was taken to the house of his namesake, Mr. Chas. Hopkins, Marshal's Clerk. Dr. Trousseau attended him there and dressed his wound, after which he was removed to the Queen's Hospital. The bug, was imported from San Francisco three years ago, and could not be replaced for $300. It is badly broken up.

SUPREME COURT.

April Term.

The April term of the Supreme Court opened yesterday morning, Judge McCully presiding and a large representation of the bar being present. A summary of the day's business appears below.

The King vs. Piipilani, selling liquor. Stricken from calendar for non-perfection of appeal.

Two cases of ejectment, Kimo vs. Kailianu and Kanaloa vs. Quinn, were laid over for the term.

A jury trial was waived in the case of Parke vs. Robinson, trover.

Waahia vs. Enos, assumpsit, was put over for the term.

A jury was waived in the case of Lonowahine vs. Campbell, ejectment.

A demurrer was entered in Kahoo-hui vs. Hamauku, ejectment.

Spreckels vs. Macfarlane, assumpsit, was put over for the term.

Rice vs. Cornwell, assumpsit, was set for trial before a foreign jury on Monday the 11th.

Hymian vs. Sanford, assumpsit, foreign jury; also Parke vs. See Hop Co., assumpsit, were set for Monday the 18th.

The probate appeal in the estate of Uneca was withdrawn.

A Hawaiian jury was empanelled in the case of the King vs. Kaulana Hale, adultery. This trial proceeded, occupying the rest of the day. Attorney General for the Crown; W. A. Kinney for defendant.

AT CHAMBERS.

Before Chief Justice Judd. The petition of Kahuhu Baker, of Lahaina, Maui, wife of John Baker, sets forth that her husband is of the age of 78 years, is of unsound mind and asks the appointment of a guardian. The Court, after hearing, decides from the evidence and from the examination of John Baker himself, that he is incapable of attending to his own matters of business, and appoints W. O. Smith to act as his guardian under a bond of $500.

In the matter of the estate of Kealoha (k.), deceased. The application of Mirama, administratrix, for a decree of the Court to sell certain lands for the payment of debts against the estate was heard on the 16th of March and all interested notified to appear on the 4th of April and show cause, if any, why such decree should not be issued. Publication of notice was proved in the usual form. The hearing was postponed one week owing to the absence of Mr. Kinney at the opening of the Supreme Court term.

Before Judge Preston. Habeas corpus. A petition had been filed on Saturday by Mr. A. C. Smith on behalf of Manuel de Souza, a prisoner, for a writ of habeas corpus, which was issued and made returnable at 10 o'clock, when the prisoner was brought into Court in charge of Captain Tripp, Jailor. Messrs. S. B. Dole and A. C. Smith appeared for the prisoner, and Mr. A. Peterson, Deputy Attorney-General, for the Marshal. The prisoner was convicted in the District Court of East Kau, Hawaii, on the 29th January last of the offense of "hoeha me ka mea make," before George Timoteo, District Justice, and sentenced to a fine of $150, costs $4.65, and hard labor for six months.

It was alleged on behalf of the petitioner that (1) the District Court of Kau had no jurisdiction to try the offense specified; (2) it nowhere appears in the mittimus that the offense charged was committed within the district of Kau; (3) it is nowhere stated in said mittimus that the assault and battery charged was committed on any particular person, or upon any person at all; (4) there is no such offense known to the statute as that named in said mittimus.

The answer on behalf of the Marshal sets forth the grounds of the prisoner's detention as stated in the mittimus.

The prisoner's counsel put in a denial to the answer of the Marshal, to show that the judgment under which the mittimus was issued was illegal.

The Court orders that time be allowed until the 20th instant to produce the record of the lower Court, and that petitioner be admitted to bail with one surety for $300, or two sureties for $150 each.

Voyage of the "Morning Star."

The missionary steam barkentine Morning Star arrived in port early yesterday morning, 49 days from the Mortlock group. From Captain Turner our reporter has obtained an outline of the whole cruise. Left Honolulu, July 24, 1886; was 17 days to Tapateuca, Gilbert Islands; thence cruised among the islands to the Marshall group, and on to Kusaie in the Carolines; thence to Ponape, same group, and on to Ruk, taking missionaries to the general meeting of the mission there; thence back, calling at minor points, to Kusaie. At the latter place they took on board the superintendent, teachers and scholars belonging to the Gilberts, depositing them as required on ten different islands, after which the vessel returned to Kusaie. There taking on board a similar party to the above, belonging to the Marshalls, a cruise was made among the latter, picking up new scholars and leaving old ones at their own island homes, where some of them were elected to serve as missionaries to their kinsfolk. Returning again to Kusaie, the Morning Star sailed for Ponape, taking thence a fresh party from the mission school there to the islands of Pinlap and Mokil in the Caroline group. Going back to Ponape and thence to Ruk, the vessel took another party of teachers and scholars to the Mortlock Islands. From the island of Lukunor in that group the Morning Star set sail homeward bound for Honolulu, on February 14. The distance sailed, the course being somewhat zigzag on account of contrary winds, was about 4,900 miles, and that traversed from leaving till returning to Honolulu being about 13,000 miles. The Morning Star steamed about 15 days all told on the return trip.

In answer to a question regarding the truth of a report that a boiler tube had burst on the vessel while on the cruise, Captain Turner said lots of them had burst. There are two boilers in the vessel, and both are in bad condition, one being used on the voyage while the other was repairing. The stern of the vessel is also badly affected by dry rot, a fact well known before she left Honolulu, but a board of survey advised that the vessel could be made temporarily seaworthy with a few bolts in the weak part. Before again going on an expedition among the heathen isles, the vessel will have to receive repairs more or less extensive to both hull and boilers.

The Morning Star left Rev. Mr. Logan and the other missionaries in good health, of course excepting those returned by her. Of these Miss Hemmingsway, who went down by the same vessel, has had to return on account of her health. Mrs. Hina, who came back with her four surviving children, had the misfortune to lose her husband, a native Hawaiian missionary. He started with his son and several others to go from one island to another, but the frail craft never reached its destination, and all its occupants had to be given up as lost.

The Morning Star was docked at the Pacific Navigation Company's wharf yesterday afternoon, when many of Captain Turner's friends went on board to give him a cordial welcome back to Honolulu.

Death and Burial of Mrs. Severance.

The death of Mrs. Anna Hamblin Severance, which took place at the residence of Hon. W. C. Parke, Kukui street, Saturday afternoon, leaves another blank among the old residents of this city. Mrs. Severance had attained the ripe age of nearly eighty-six years, and was highly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Deceased was a cousin of Mr. Hamblin, one of the Vice Presidents of the United States. She came to the Islands with her husband, Hon. Luther Severance, who was appointed United States Commissioner to these Islands under President Pierce, and remained here until the summer of 1854 when she accompanied Mr. Severance, then in ill health, to the States.

After the death of her husband Mrs. Severance returned to Honolulu in 1857 and since that time made her home with her daughter Mrs. W. C. Parke. During the last five years of her life, deceased has been ill and unable to leave the house. She leaves two sons and one daughter, Mr. H. W. Severance of San Francisco, Mr. Luther Severance of Hilo and Mrs. Parke. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from Mr. Parke's residence, and was largely attended, friends coming in from all quarters to pay their last tribute of respect to the worthy lady. Among those present were Her Royal Highness the Princess Liliuokalani; with her husband, General Dominis. Floral offerings were numerous and elaborate. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Cruzan and a quartet from Fort Street Church sang appropriate hymns. The pall-bearers were Chief Justice Judd, Hon. C. R. Bishop, Mr. J. Austin, Mr. J. T. Waterhouse, Jr., Mr. A. J. Cartwright and Mr. W. W. Hall. The remains were interred in the Nuuanu cemetery.

The San Francisco Examiner of the 16th of March has a column and a half of rather spicy reading on Hawaiian affairs in which the financial frivolities and extravagances of the government are detailed with a minuteness the worst element in which is the quantity of truth it contains.
