RUMORS

There have been various rumors afloat for the last two or three days as to a position the Government has taken or intends to take on the Hawaiian silver question.

The people generally, and the large business firms of these Islands, who represent the bulk of the taxes of the Kingdom, are naturally somewhat anxious to know just what the new position of the Government on this question will be.

From the disclosures made by some of the American newspapers, it seems that England is not the only country which has the dishonor of a criminal traffic in the virtue of young girls, entailed upon it.

One of the best evidences of the healthy moral tone of Honolulu foreign society is to be seen in the Sunday influences exerted by our churches.

Several officers, acting under order from the Board of Health attempted to separate, last Friday morning at Kalawao, Molokai, the children of a leprous couple from their parents.

Trouble at Hakalau Plantation October 26. A Portuguese threatened to strike Mr. H. Morrison, one of the managers of the plantation?

The Pata-Afata. Our Island correspondent writes from Hamakua, Maui, as follows: "It would seem that the late tiff between the managers of Paia and Haiku Plantations on the one side and the Board of Immigration on the other, had resulted, after all, to the great advantage of the plantations.

I may add that during the past five years I have facilitated the emigration of several thousand agricultural laborer from the Azores and Madeira to the Hawaiian Islands, where they have found continuous and remunerative employment.
