LATE FOREIGN NEWS

Ridiculous Charges.

NEW YORK, December 5.—The World's Washington correspondent this morning reports an anonymous Californian as saying that Senator Stanford, by the conditions of his gift to the proposed university, has placed his $15,000,000 under cover, safe from taxation, while he remains in absolute control of it, and can put this money back into his own pocket whenever he pleases.

Murdered by an Idiot.

JEFFERSON CITY, (Mo.), December 5.—Meager particulars have been received here of a triple tragedy to-day at Lynn Creek, in Camden county. Dr. Lyons, residing on a farm near that place, had for several years, as a matter of charity, cared for an imbecile named Williams, who has been hitherto considered harmless.

Six Boatmen Drowned.

EVANSVILLE (Ind.), December 5.—Last night's gale, did considerable damage along the Lower Ohio river. The flatboat A. W. Bliss was capsized by the waves at Morris' Landing, five miles below Metropolis, Ill. Ten men were on the boat, six going down and three, besides the pilot, saving their lives by jumping into the river and swimming ashore.

Great Expectations.

OMAHA, December 5.—John Donahue, ex-Captain of the Omaha police force, claims to be a nephew of Peter Donahue of San Francisco, who recently died, leaving an estate of over $10,000,000. Captain Donahue left for Ireland to-day, to secure proofs, and if successful, will put in his claim as one of the heirs, with the expectation of receiving $1,000,000 as his share.

Parnell Denounced.

A cable special from Dublin says: Callan is extremely bitter against Parnell for causing his defeat. In a speech at Dundalk, on Thursday, he said, in Parnell's presence: "He (Parnell) said last Sunday that I was truculent and unmanageable. Now, I brand that statement in the face of Parnell as a deliberate, malignant lie."

The Servian Trouble.

BELGRADE, December 6.—It is reported that Bulgaria has proposed new terms for the establishment of peace. The principal condition is that a Servo-Bulgarian alliance against Turkey be formed.

NISSA, December 6.—The terms of peace offered by the Bulgarian Government has been rejected. It is expected that the war will be renewed on Monday.

NEW YORK, December 6.—The Tribune's London cable special of December 5th says: Almost complete obscurity envelops the Servian-Bulgarian question. The latest telegrams say that Servia decided to refuse the Bulgarian conditions, including the continued occupation of Pirot, the hostilities thereupon were resumed, and that Austria will come to the rescue of Servia and Russia will be forced to support Bulgaria.

The British in Burmah.

NEW YORK, December 6.—The Tribune special from London of December 5th says: The rapid and complete success of the Burmese expedition has attracted singularly little attention amid the excitement of the election.

Death of an Old Sailor.

PORTLAND, December 5.—Captain Nathaniel Ingersoll, Port Surveyor, died at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from a paralytic stroke received last night, aged 62 years.

British Columbia Items.

VICTORIA, December 5.—Three hundred Chinese are reported in a starving condition on Fraser river. They are discharged railway hands.

Francis O. Adair, the American who held up and robbed the paymaster of the Nanaimo Railway, was sentenced to fifteen years imprisonment yesterday.

At a fire last night very few firemen put in an appearance. The apathy of the fire brigade is due to the taking over of the property of the Volunteer Department by the city.

A telegram to-night states that trains on the Canadian Pacific Railway will resume their trips early next week.

PACIFIC COAST NOTES.

Dressed raccoon meat is regularly kept on sale at Cloverdale butcher stalls.

The Squatter is the name of a paper just established at Soledad, Monterey county.

Louis Waldman, a contractor of San Jose, has disappeared, having been missing since last Monday.

Coal from Eastern Arizona is sold cheaper in Los Angeles than that from any other source of supply.

During the past eleven months thirty-five insane people have been sent to the asylum from Los Angeles.

A coal vein is being developed near Jackson, Amador county, with favorable prospects for a paying mine.

Riverside orange growers have organized a Vigilance Committee, and threaten to hang any one caught stealing their fruit.

A resident of San Diego has written a pamphlet to prove that the earth is in imminent danger of a second deluge in 1892.

The conductor of one of the trains which collided recently on the Northern Pacific has been held on a charge of manslaughter.

It is estimated that the farmers of Tulare county suffered a loss of $50,000 during the past season from the depredations of jack rabbits.

William M. Boggs, the new Inspector of Fruit Pests, came across the plains in the same train which included the ill-fated Donner party.

The shipments of Carbonado coal from Tacoma were 9,000 tons for November, a considerable falling off as compared with former seasons.

An Indian near Prattville, Cal., recently caught with a seine a trout that measured thirty inches in length and weighed fourteen and one-half pounds.

Three snow-white beavers were recently trapped on the Sacramento river, near Chico landing. They are the only ones of the kind ever seen in that locality.
