THIEVES ROB TWO GROCERY STORES; ESCAPE

Other Burglaries in Night Fail to Net Much Loot for Prowlers.

Two street car men emptied their revolvers at a burglar who was robbing a grocery store at 2502 Martindale avenue, owned by W. E. Andis, early today, but the thief escaped. It is believed he is the same man who robbed the Economy grocery, 2230 Baltimore avenue.

A motorman and conductor on a Columbia avenue street car discovered the man robbing the store on Martindale avenue. They ran to the store and one opened fire. The thief jumped through the glass of the front door and escaped. Andis said 50 cents was missing from the cash drawer.

W. J. Uhl, manager of the Economy store, found his cash register, worth $200, and $10 in cash were gone. The other loot included five boxes of laundry soap worth $25, two barrels of flour worth $20, two dozen aprons valued at $24, two sacks of chicken feed worth $5, and a large supply of fresh beef and pork, smoked meat, lard and canned goods.

T. T. Marshall, 824 North Gladstone avenue, was robbed by pickpockets at Illinois and Washington streets last night of his purse containing $17.

Henry L. Trickett, 1330 North Illinois street, reported two revolvers, two razors, two blankets, some automobile pumps and tools were stolen from his room. The value of the missing articles is $113.50.

All for Severely Tailored TAILLEUR SUITS

"All for one and one for all." This not only describes the spirit that kept the three musketeers banded in chivalry, but it equally well expresses the state of the severe navy blue tailors in the summer fashion.

At this time the greatest suit demand is for the navy blue plain-tailored model, long and unbelted of coat; and, in justice to the suit, we must say that it is more generally becoming than any other style. It accentuates smartly the slenderness of the slender girl, and slenderizes in effect the woman whose lines are not so sylph-like.

At $39.50 and $49.50

Poirot twill suits of this order, with 38-inch-length coats, slashed seams, and notched collars, or perfectly plain ones, braided-bound and self-stitched, are very desirable for wear at home and for vacation wear. They are lined with crepe silks. And are good values at these two prices.
