

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

A Better Way Now Discovered, Which Cures Every Form of Piles Without Pain or Inconvenience.
Many people suffer the pain, annoyance and often serious results from piles for years, and after trying the many lotions, salves, ointments and so-called cures without cure or relief, give up the hope of a final cure rather than submit to the intense pain and danger to life which a surgical operation involves.

Happily all this suffering is no longer necessary since the discovery of the Pyramid Pile Cure, a remedy which is approved by the medical profession as being absolutely safe, free from any trace of opiates, narcotic or mineral poisons and which may be depended upon as a certain cure (not merely relief) in any form of piles, whether itching, blind, bleeding or protruding. Some of the hundreds of cures recently made are little short of miraculous, as a perusal of the following will demonstrate:

Dr. J. W. Megan, Leonardville, Kan., writes: "I have used a box of Pyramid Pile Cure and received more benefit and relief than from any remedy I had used in the past twenty-five years."

James Jemerson, Dubuque, Ia., says: "I suffered from piles for six years; have just used the Pyramid Pile Cure and am a well man."

Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi street, Indianapolis, Ind., says: "Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of piles for fifteen years; the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure."

The Pyramid Pile Cure may be found at druggists at 50 cents per package. A book on causes and cures of piles will be sent by mail by addressing the Pyramid Drug Company, Marshall, Mich.

A CASE OF SMALLPOX

Family of Gules Oleson, Living Near Marathon, Suffering From the Disease.

Three Sick, One of the Patients Being in Advanced Stage of the Malady.

Five Cases at Storm Lake Under Strict Quarantine—Christian Science Crime.

Special to Times-Republican.

Marathon, Nov. 18.—Dr. George B. Jackman, of this place, was called in consultation by Dr. Ohug, of Sioux Rapids, Iowa, to the home of Gules Oleson, seven miles southwest of here. Three of the family are sick, the attending physicians pronouncing the disease as smallpox, one case of which is seriously advanced.

At Storm Lake.

Storm Lake, Nov. 18.—Dr. R. E. Conliff, of the state board of health, has just returned from Storm Lake, Iowa, where he went to investigate the cases of smallpox reported from that place. In all he reported he found five cases of the terrible disease, and steps have been taken to prevent its spread, if possible. The town has been quarantined and the doctor says the health officers of Storm Lake are doing everything in their power to stamp out the disease, and orders have been given that vaccinations begin at once. It is hardly feared there will be a spread of the disease to other parts of the state, but health officers in all sections of the state have been notified to look carefully out for any signs of the dread malady anywhere else. It was brought to Storm Lake by a laboring man working on a railway grade, but he has recovered. So far no deaths have occurred. The authorities in Sioux City are keeping a close watch of everyone who comes in from the affected town, so as to prevent its start here.

ASSAULTED BY STRANGER.

Railroad Man at Kinnear Attacked by a Stranger.

Special to Times-Republican.

Kinnear, Nov. 18.—Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock Mr. Sampson, the C. & N. W. section boss at this place, was assaulted by a stranger who was traveling through town on a bicycle. Sampson was beaten up unmercifully. The stranger then made good his escape and has not yet been apprehended. No cause can be assigned for the dastardly assault, as Mr. Sampson says he had never seen the man before. It is thought here that he is the same man who stole a wheel at Webster City Thursday.

SHERIFF WELSH RESIGNS.

Final of a Somewhat Celebrated County Case.

Iowa City, Nov. 18.—Sheriff Joe Welsh handed in his resignation yesterday to the board of supervisors, which at once accepted it. The new sheriff-elect, A. E. Hoefer, of Solon, was appointed to finish the term. His bond was approved and he commenced work at once. The resignation of Welsh settles a case which has had state notoriety. Last winter he allowed a prisoner he was taking to the penitentiary to escape from his custody in Cedar Rapids, and it was claimed that he made the rounds of disreputable resorts with the prisoner did as he chose. He was brought to trial, and the verdict rendered by Judge House was not guilty. The case was carried to the supreme court, where the decision of the lower court was set aside and was sent back here for retrial. The case was placed on the docket for the first week in the coming December term.

Roy Elliott, a high school student, had his left arm blown to pieces by a stick of dynamite. He was visiting the quarries, found the dynamite in his wanderings, and in endeavoring to remove it, the explosion occurred. He had a narrow escape from death, and is thankful that his injuries are not worse.

Mrs. Rebecca Ogden passed away at her home in this city Friday. She had lived here many years and had attracted state wide attention through her kindergarten, which she had conducted in this city for the past many years.

Mrs. James Ryan, a Johnson county pioneer, passed away at her home in this city yesterday. She leaves a son and daughter.

Private McLean's Funeral.

College Springs, Nov. 18.—The funeral services of Private William Alexander McLean, of Company E, Fifty-first Iowa Volunteers, were held here on Wednesday. The funeral was the largest ever conducted in Page county and the crowd far exceeded any gathering ever held in College Springs. McLean was 24 years of age, was a student of Amity College for several years, graduating with a class of ten on June 9, 1898. He was a favorite among his schoolmates, and also proved a great favorite among his comrades of Company E. Physically he was almost perfect. He played right end in the big Amity football team of 1897 and was considered one of the best men in the team. He was the first among the eleven Amity students to join the army on June 14, went with the regiment to the Philippines, was engaged in eleven battles, and on May 15 was sent to the hospital with dysentery, remaining in the hospital until the regiment took the transport at Manila for the return home. He was the only one of the company to be carried off the transport at San Francisco. His parents and betrothed were sent for on Tuesday, Oct. 31, reaching here on the Saturday following. Mr. McLean was conscious and hopeful of recovery to the very last. He died on Tuesday, Nov. 7.

A military burial was given him here yesterday. Capt. Mount and almost the entire company were present, besides about fifteen members of Company M, six of the Fourth Missouri and several others of various regiments. His was the only death in Company E.

Christian Science Crime.

Sioux City, Nov. 18.—The 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Madsen, of this city, died yesterday of diphtheria, no doctor having been called in to see her. The parents are Christian scientists, and the mother has been treating the child herself. Even the house was not quarantined, and for three days the child had been up and around as she chose and mingling with other children. The authorities are looking into the case.

AN IOWA ROMANCE.

Clinton Woman Finds a Long Lost Daughter.

Special to Times-Republican.

Clinton, Nov. 18.—A romance has just come to light here which reads more like a fairy tale than a true story. Fifteen years ago Mrs. S. L. Potter, of this city, separated from her husband, one Gruber, who took with him their only child, a beautiful little girl of 7 years. During all this time the mother has been trying to secure a trace of her missing daughter, but failed to learn her whereabouts. In the meantime the little girl had grown to womanhood, married and now has a family of her own. As soon as the daughter learned the true state of affairs she commenced to hunt for her mother and never abandoned the search until finding her parent from whom she was separated many years ago, notwithstanding the fact that she often pleaded with her father to tell her what had become of her mother. The family moved to Portland, where they now reside. A few weeks ago a sister of Gruber was on her death bed and to her the distraught woman appealed for information relative to her mother. At first the dying woman refused to divulge the secret, but the pleadings of the young woman were so pathetic that she told her niece that her mother resided at Clinton, Iowa. The daughter at once wrote a letter to Mrs. Potter here and after some explanations they became convinced of the relationship existing between them. The daughter sent her mother a ticket to Portland and last night Mrs. Potter started to the Pacific coast and soon there will be a happy reunion of mother and daughter, who have been separated for a decade and a half.

IOWA CITY STRIKE.

Iron Workers on New College Building Quit.

Iowa City, Nov. 18.—Another strike is on at the state university collegiate building and this time every ironworker on the building has quit work and things in that branch of the work are at a standstill. The cause of it all is a frightful accident which occurred on the work this morning. The ironworkers were engaged in putting up the mammoth floor beams of the second story and the work was progressing finely when one of the men made a misstep and fell. He plunged headlong to the hard cellar floor, fully thirty-five feet below, and as he fell he struck against the beams of the first floor about fifteen feet below. He was injured seriously and taken to Mercy hospital for treatment. It is feared that he will not recover from the accident.

Shortly after the accident the iron foreman went to the superintendent of the building and demanded that the first floor be covered with plank and more scaffolding be put up so that the ironworkers be erected. This demand was not acted upon and words took place between the foreman and the superintendent resulting in the foreman's discharge. When the action of the superintendent was reported to the ironworkers every man on the job walked out and most of them have returned to their homes in Chicago, refusing to work if proper and safe scaffolding is not provided for their protection.

Tama County Matters.

Special to Times-Republican.

Toledo, Nov. 18.—The board of supervisors adjourned this morning after a busy week. Mr. John Ladue was re-elected steward of the poor farm. He is a most efficient manager of the insane department, and he and our people have no patience with the comments of the board of control nor "looker-on" in their criticisms of the manner of the incurable insane are kept at least in Tama county.

Poison in His Wine.

Council Bluffs, Nov. 18.—Abraham Snyder, 71 years old, in his petition for a divorce, says that his wife, Zishna, 69 years old, attempted to poison him by placing arsenic in his wine. The aged couple were married in Poland forty-two years ago and lived together until a few months ago, when domestic troubles reached such an acute stage that Abraham decided to ask for a legal separation. He claims his wife attempted to kill him a number of times in his sleep, and says he is in mortal terror of her.

MANY SEE HENDERSON

The Iowa Congressman Besieged by Newspaper Men on Arrival at Washington.

Declines Interviews on the Questions of Committees and Prospective Legislation.

Peculiar Case of Attempted Suicide at Cedar Rapids—News of Iowa.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Register special: Col. D. B. Henderson, prospective speaker of the national house of representatives, arrived last evening and registered at the Normandie. The coming of Col. Henderson had been anticipated by the alert newspaper men and in a short time more than a score of the representatives of metropolitan newspapers were at the hotel desk sending up their cards. Col. Henderson received them all, just as he has been accustomed to receiving them during the past eighteen years. But when they asked for interviews that was a different matter.

Nobody knows better, and probably no one now quite so well, that the speaker of the house must be non-committal. Col. Henderson comes to his exalted position well equipped by experience, as well as by natural ability, and he knows that the man who is to have complete control of the initiatory legislation for this republic must not foreshadow the policies which are to be pursued. To give interviews upon pending legislation would be to give notice to all of the earmarks of the lobby what they may expect and what policies they should formulate for their numerous schemes. Moreover, for the speaker to talk about public policies would be worse than imprudent; it would be betrayal of confidences.

The president is always the head of the government of the expanding and expanded republic. To nobody does he give his confidences so completely as he gives them to the speaker of the house of representatives. Moreover, the speaker is the recipient of the confidences of the leaders of the senate, which is the co-ordinate legislative branch of the national legislature.

For the reasons briefly outlined and for numerous co-relative reasons, Col. Henderson declined to be interviewed for publication, but he received all of the newspaper men in the most cordial manner. He talked to them quite freely about the recent elections and about the vast questions which recent events have brought prominently before the people of this republic, and of the world, but his remarks were of a general nature and not one of the trained newspaper men here would dream of distorting his friendly talks into the form of an interview.

Col. Henderson will be busy, very busy, from this date until the adjournment of the Fifty-first congress. There are many congressmen already here, and they are arriving on every train. The prospective speaker must see all of them and listen to their desires in the matter of committee assignments. There are upwards of eighty new members of the house of representatives. Each of them has his individual ambitions, and his ambitions for the people whom he represents. Therefore each one of them will want to be on this, that and the other committee. It will be a gigantic task for Col. Henderson to properly dispose of all of them without making serious mistakes and without causing friction. But we all know that he will be equal to the task.

Col. Hepburn arrived last Monday and has been quietly looking after routine business for his constituents. He is regarded as one of the strongest men in the house and will from the first be a commanding figure in all matters of legislation.

Iowa's five new members are strong men and they will maintain the high standard which Iowa has always maintained in the house by acting in perfect harmony with the veterans, Henderson, Hull, Hepburn, Lacey, Dooliver and Cousins. It seems strange to speak of Dooliver and Cousins as veterans, because it seems but yesterday when they came here as young men, new beginners. But they have held their own and have advanced to committee leadership. Tom Hedge, Joe Lane, Lot Thomas, Smith, McPherson and our friend Hansen will have to "air their stumps" to do as well as these young "veterans" have done from the beginning of their national careers. But nobody doubts that they will keep up with the procession.

The Daughters of American Revolution of Cedar Falls and Waterloo chapters held an interesting meeting on Nov. 9 at the residence of Mrs. H. C. Hent, in this city. Mrs. H. H. Markley, vice president of the Cedar Falls chapter, read a paper on "Our Real Daughters, Mrs. Burr and Miss Readman." The members of this order deem it a great privilege to have these real daughters still with them. This chapter has just issued its first calendar, a dainty booklet bound in blue and silver. The Cedar Falls chapter is in a prosperous condition.

Cedar Falls people desirous of witnessing the meteoric showers for the three nights and mornings, Nov. 18, 19, and 20, have suffered keen disappointment. If there have been any shooting stars they have kept out of sight of our gazers. Our night police have been besieged with requests to wake up those that were not able to stand the strain on their necks for a night or two.

Defeat Soldiers' Monument.

Clarinda, Nov. 18.—The proposition to levy a 1-mill tax in this county for the purpose of erecting a soldiers' monument or hall in this city was voted on at the recent election, and was defeated by the vote of 1,515 to 681. The old soldiers are much disappointed over the outcome of the vote, as they have about $1,000 already on hand for such a fund, and the tax asked would make them a fine building for their home, or a monument to their memory.

PAINE'S Celery Compound Prevents

Breaking Down of the Nervous System: Muscular Weakness: Feelings of Debility and Exhaustion from Care and Overwork.

Edward L. Preetorius, St. Louis, MANAGER WESTLICHE POST Writes: "I have found that Paine's Celery Compound is the only remedy that will restore the nerves which have been shattered by overwork, worry or business cares. I can certainly recommend it without hesitation to all those in need of such a reconstructant of the nervous system."

Without vigorous nerves the stomach, liver and kidneys, are the source of much pain; they make impoverished, acid blood which can not sustain the wasting tissues of the body. Paine's Celery Compound is a great reconstructant of the nervous system.
