Office of the clerk of the district court, state of Iowa, Marshalltown, Ia.
District court, October term, A. D.
1909.

To whom it may concern:

You and each of you are hereby notified to appear at the courtroom in Marshalltown, Iowa, in said county, at 9 o'clock a. m., on the 24th day of November, 1909, to attend the proof of and probating an instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of H. B.
Fisher, late of Marshall county, Iowa, deceased, at which time and place you will appear and show cause, if any, why said will should not be admitted to probate.

In testimony whereof, I have hereto subscribed my name and affixed the seal of the district court, this 12th day of November, A. D. 1909.

F. M. MARADON,

Farmers, you can not afford to be without apples. Why just think how nice, good, warm apple pie will taste for dinner, after being out husking corn all forenoon, the very thought of the pie will make the corn fly two to one.
E. E. Hood.

Misses Mae and Grace Nell, 406 West Church street, were hostesses Thursday evening at a pre-nuptial event for Miss Grace Kilborn, to about twenty-five of their friends. Miss Kilborn was "showered" with kitchen utensils of great variety, which were hung from the chandelier in the dining room. Music and dancing were enjoyed, and the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

Andrew Buschhorn, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Buschhorn, two miles northwest of Lamolite, who underwent an operation for an appendicular abscess Wednesday, is doing nicely, and all indications are toward recovery. The lad had a very severe abscess resulting from his attack of appendicitis, and the patient's condition was so critical that he was not able to be moved to the hospital in this city for his operation.

The Messrs. Shubert, who have been responsible for a number of first class attractions that have appeared at the Odeon during the present season, have certainly kept faith with the public and have invariably sent us attractions that are first class in every particular. In "The Ringmaster," we are assured one of the first dramatic successes of the present season. This will be seen here Wednesday evening, Nov.
24. Sale of seats opens Tuesday at 10
A. M.

Second street, was hostess to ten young lady friends Thursday evening at a linen shower complimentary to Miss Ollie M. McCoy, who is to be married next week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCoy, 211 West Main street, to Mr. Guy H. Correll, a linotype operator in the employ of the Times-Republican. The gifts were hidden in various places, and the guest of honor was given amusing directions for finding them. Delightfully prepared refreshments were enjoyed, the sisters being assisted in serving by her sister and sister-in-law, Miss Bertha and Mrs. Myo Mendenhall.

In the quality musical play, "A Stubborn Cinderella," that phenomenal Princess theatre (Chicago) success, which Manager Mort H. Singer will bring to the New Odeon next Tuesday evening, Nov. 23, every character is named after, and played with the characteristics of a classmate of Frank E. Adams and Will M. Hough, the authors, at the Chicago University. The first act is laid in the campus of their Alma Mater.
The second shows a railroad wreck in the far southwest, and the third act an orange field in progress at the Oro-noco Beach Hotel, California. The cast is headed by Mr. Homer B. Mason and the original Princess theatre produc-in the city assisting in the revival meetings at the United Brethren church. He will preach this evening on the subject, "Making Bricks Without Straw."

Benjamin H. Phillips has brought suit in the district court to quiet the title to land south of the city against the claims of Mrs. Sarah Dicks, of Oskalosa, Mrs. Ellen Mansfield, of this city, and others.

Unless some one told you about it you would eat our Holstein Butterline and think it just as good butter as you ever ate. If you don't believe it let us send you a pound of it. It's only 20 cents. L. S. Peckham Grocery Company.

The Wiltanemote Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. F. Meeker at the F. L. Meeker home. A talk on Berlin, illustrated by pictures, by Mrs.
C. J. Sheeler, was much enjoyed, and was followed by the serving of refreshments.

"Hearts of Gold," a four act comedy drama, that has strong heart interest and is true to nature, will be presented at the New Odeon tonight by the Frank Long Stock Company. New specialties and songs will be introduced. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

The dramatization of Miss M. E.
Braddon's famous novel is creating more sensation than the book itself.
It's a great play with a great heart interest. Unusual care has been taken by Mr. Mann in his selection of the cast. Undoubtedly this offering promises to be both novel and interesting.
The book is just filled with dramatic possibilities and none has been lost in the dramatization. It comes to the New Odeon Sunday evening, Nov.
21. Prices, 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

the business session.

Wouldn't you rather pay a fraction of a cent more per cup for your coffee and really enjoy it than to save the fraction and not enjoy it? Let us send you a pound of our Batavia coffee at 35 cents. Forty cups for that price is cheap. L. S. Peckham Grocery Company.

The only way to judge real piano quality is by the responsibility of its maker. The Starr piano is the safest investment in a musical instrument that has been offered you. A careful inspection of our pianos is all that we ask. The Gilbert Music Company, 119

Mr. and Mrs. Furnas will be here for the winter.

The Chicago Musical Leader, one of the leading musical journals of America has the following to say about Mme.
Luella Mayne-Windsor: "We mention with pleasure the singing of Mme. Luella Mayne-Windsor, who was heard last Wednesday afternoon in a recital in the Fine Arts building. She is a talented singer and the voice is a clear lyric soprano and of a beautiful quality. She was especially pleasing in the French and German songs. Y. M. C. A. lecture course next Thursday evening (Thanksgiving), M. E. church.
