

POETRY.

BY LORANCE WILSON.
 Night! thou'rt the time for rest
 When wearied limbs repose,
 And on thy calm maternal breast
 The aching eyelids close;
 Night! thou'rt the time for rest.
 Night! thou'rt the time for dreams,
 When visions of the past
 Gush o'er the soul from memory's streams,
 Too fresh, too fair to last;
 Night! thou'rt the time for dreams.
 Night! thou'rt the time for prayer,
 When no world-haunting thought
 Disturbs the mind, but, like thine air,
 It is with stillness fraught;
 Night! thou'rt the time for prayer.
 Night! thou'rt the time for grief,
 Which daylight hath suppressed;
 When pent-up feelings find relief,
 Nor fear the worldling's jest;
 Night! thou art the time for grief.
 Night! thou'rt the time for tears,
 Which no intruders know,
 Whose idle pity, scarce hid tears
 Would mock them as they flow;
 Night! thou'rt the time for tears.
 Night is the time for peace,
 When gentle thoughts hold sway,
 And all the tempest-passions cease,
 That tear the heart by day;
 Night is the time for peace.
 Then welcome, gentle night,
 Most welcome—for my soul
 Is wearied of life's pageant bright,
 And needs thy soft control;
 Then welcome gentle night.

DISCONTENT.—How universal it is. We never knew a man who would say 'I am contented.' Go where you will, among the rich or poor, the man of competence, or the man who earns his bread by the daily sweat of his brow, you hear the sound of murmuring, and the voice of complaint. The other day we stood by a cooper who was playing a merry tune with an adze round a cask. 'Ah! sighed he, 'mine is a hard lot—forever tottering round like a dog, driving away at a hoop.'—Heigho! sighed a blacksmith, in one of those hot days, as he wiped the drops of perspiration from his brow, while his red hot iron glowed on the anvil, 'this is life with a vengeance—melting and frying one's self over the fire.' 'Oh, that I were a carpenter!' ejaculated a shoemaker, as he bent over his lap-stone, 'here I am day after day, working my soul away in making soles for others, cooped up in a little seven by nine room.' 'I am sick of this out door work,' exclaims the carpenter, broiling and sweating under the sun, or exposed to the inclemency of the weather, 'I'll be only a tailor.' 'This is too bad, perpetually cries the tailor, 'to be compelled to sit perched up here, plying the needle all the while—would that mine was a more active life.' Last day of grace—the bank won't discount—customers won't pay—what shall I do? grumbles the merchant, 'I'd rather be a truck horse, a dog, any thing. Happy fellows, groans the lawyer, as he scratches his head over some perplexing case, or pores over some dry record, 'happy fellows. I had rather hammer stone than cudgel my brain on this stuporous, vexatious question.' And through all the ramifications of society, all are complaining of their condition—finding fault with their particular calling. 'If I were only this, or that, or the other, I should be content,' is the universal cry, 'any thing but what I am.' So wags the world, so it has wagged, and so it will wagger to the end of time.

ANECDOTE OF THE PENNSYLVANIA WHISKY INSURRECTION.—The march of the Macpherson Blues against the insurgents in 1791.—An anecdote is related of one of the 'citizen soldiers' in this expedition, which is worthy of being recorded. The person referred to was a German by birth, of the name of Koch, and was well known in Philadelphia, in his day, as a large out door underwriter. He died some years since in Paris whither he had gone for the benefit of the climate leaving a fortune estimated at $1,200,000. Mr. Koch like young Shaw, was a private in the Macpherson Blues. It fell to his lot for one night to be stationed sentinel over a baggage wagon. The weather was cold, raw, stormy and wet. This set the sentinel to musing. After remaining on post half an hour, he was heard calling lustily, 'Corporal der quartz—Corporal der quartz.' The corporal came, and inquired what was wanting. Koch wished to be relieved for a few minutes, having something to say to Macpherson. He was gratified, and in a few minutes he stood in the presence of the General. 'Well, Mr. Koch, what is your pleasure?' asked Macpherson. 'Why, general, I wish to know what may be der value of dat wagon over which I am sentinel?' 'How der d—l should I know Koch?' 'Well, somet'g approximat—'not to be particular.' 'A thousand dollars, perhaps.' 'Very vell, general Macpherson, I write a check for der money, and I will go to bet.' 'A WICKED MAGNETIZER.—Mrs Harriet L. Johnson, of Burlington, Vt., publishes an account of the imposition practised upon her by Dr. Smith, a magnetizer and phrenologist, who pretends to cure all diseases by 'lateral' applications! She warns all young women who would maintain good characters and cherish virtuous minds, to keep clear of Dr. Smith's phrenology and magnetism. This dangerous scientific gentleman she says, 'pretends that he has full power over me, that he can stop me in the street, and the like. I have discovered him to be a man devoid of all good principles which ought to influence the mind of a gentleman. I have discovered him trying to gain my affections, and trying to practice upon me a course of conduct that would inevitably lead me to disgrace and ruin. He came where I was, and asked me several questions, all leading to one point, that of attracting my mind and gaining my attachment. I had previously accused him of exciting organs which would have effect on my mind and cause an attraction. He acknowledged that he had, and seemed gratified that he had so far succeeded in effecting his object. From information which I have no reason to dispute, it seems that I am not the only young woman that he has insulted, and that he has imposed upon some of them in the same manner that he would have done upon me, if it had been in his power.'

DISTINCTIONS.

To the man of sense, who views society as a necessary compact of intelligent beings, met for mutual benefit upon the broad ground of equality, those petty distinctions founded on the possessions of wealth, or other extraneous appendages of character, appear ridiculous and amusing. In this country, where the boast of equality is on every lip, there are more distinctions in society than in any other country in the world; and there are grades of aristocracy, in each of which there is more exclusiveness manifested than among the nobility and gentry of any kingdom in Europe. There are distinctions in society that should always exist, on the perpetuity of which sound morality greatly depends. They consist in the various phases exhibited by virtue and vice; and the more vicious a member of the compact becomes, broader and more decided should the virtuous draw the line of distinction, which should never be passed except on an errand of mercy by the latter, to reclaim the former. This is a distinction of character, depending upon the violation of each, not on any fortuitous circumstances, and consequently is a legitimate distinction. But to see men building their structure of superiority upon the sandy and uncertain foundation of riches, upon the frame of some distinguished progenitor, or upon the more foolish and ridiculous idea that one employment is more genteel than another, excites the smile of mingled pity and contempt upon the lips of the sensible. Yet we daily meet with those who assume superiority on these grounds, and it is to this practice, arising from the error of the judgement, or the absolute want of common sense, that we may ascribe nine-tenths of the evils with which the harmony of society is disturbed.

Several years since, we made a journey to a thriving village in a neighboring county, and while tarrying at the house of a friend, saw a practical illustration of the above remarks. A social party had gathered on the occasion of the return of another birthday of one of our friend's daughters, and it was really a congregation of pretty and cheerful faces. During the evening a cotillion was proposed, and couples immediately formed upon the floor. From a retired corner came a neatly dressed young man, with an intelligent countenance and pleasing address, and invited a gay butterfly girl, who seemed disposed to flirt with every body, to join in the dance. She scarcely deigned a recognition, and coldly refused. The young man bit his lips, while the flush of offended pride mounted to his cheek, and passing to the opposite side of the room, found his hand acceptable to a pretty, modest miss, and in a moment more they were moving in the dance.

'Who was that young man?' asked a merchant's clerk, addressing the coquette first mentioned.

'He is an impudent puppy, responded the frail one, curling her pretty lip haughtily; 'he is nothing but a mechanic, and I wonder at his presumption in asking me to dance.'

'Twas presumption indeed, and extraordinarily and shockingly impertinent, responded the clerk, tucking in the ruffles of his dickey, and throwing one leg over the other in an important attitude. 'I wonder Mr.—was not more select in choosing the members of this 'ere party. But so it is society here is gittin' as bad as Bosting and other induracious places, where gentlemen are continually perforce with these 'ere infernal mechanics. You done right, miss, awfully right, in scorning to accept such like company.'

'So says Miss Ann—don't you Ann? said the indignant coquette, addressing her butterfly companion.

'Yes, you did, Hetty—and I'll be hanged if I'd dance with one of them mechanics if I lever did. But do look! as sure as eggs, the impertinent fellow is dancing with Judge B—'s Philippina. I think she ought to be ashamed of herself, for such a disgrace in open company.'

'She's astoundingly foolish,' said the clerk, shifting his legs importantly. 'But come, Miss Hetty, will you dance?'

'With all my heart,' said Miss Hetty, and they simultaneously sprang to the floor.

We listened to this colloquy with superlative contempt for the utterers, and having formed an opinion of their characters, from the index just given, resolved to discover that of the young man. We ascertained that he was a coach-maker, respectably connected, of industrious habits, possessed of a mind far above the ordinary standard, and withal well cultivated. He viewed society as a man of sense ought, and presumed that equality should or ought to exist within the circle of a social party. Courtesy prompted him to offer his hand to the haughty coquette, and the refusal wounded his fine feelings. But they were healed by the frank and courteous address of the daughter of Judge B., and in truth, a motive more exalted than mere courtesy actuated them both. They were betrothed, but the gossips had not yet heard the secret. While leading the modest Emma to the cotillion ring, he looked with proper contempt upon the haughty Hester M—, the misguided daughter of a broken merchant. She drew a line of distinction between herself and the honest mechanic, while he also traced a demarkation. Hers was drawn by an erroneous judgement, his by correct principles. The sequel is brief. The mechanic became the son-in-law of Judge B., emigrated to Indiana, and at the late election in that State, was chosen a member of the popular branch of its legislature.

After seasons of flirtation and coquetry, Hester M—became the wife of the 'engaging' young clerk, who, carrying his exclusive principles into his business relations, and endeavoring to ape his wealthy neighbors, was soon numbered with a list of bankrupts, and now gains but a scanty pittance in the metropolis a third rate clerk. There are distinctions in society, but they are too often drawn by ignorance, or erring judgement.

SWAN'S HOTEL.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his old friends and customers, and the public in general, that he has refitted and repaired at much expense and trouble, his large and commodious Hotel for the accommodation of members of the legislature and all others who may favor him with a call. His rooms are well furnished and warm and he has procured servants who he guarantees shall be attentive and accommodating. His table will be furnished with the best of the market, and his terms such as will be satisfactory to any gentleman who may favor him with a call. In connection with the establishment, he has a large, commodious and warm stable, which will be furnished with horses, carriages, sleighs, &c. &c.

This Hotel is situated convenient to the Capitol, with a good pavement connecting the two—and but one door from the Post Office—and he flatters himself that he will be able to accommodate his friends and the public in a style of convenience and comfort, equal if not superior to any hotel in the far west. He therefore, respectfully solicits a share of public patronage in his line of business.

CHAUCE SWAN.
 Iowa City, Nov. 24, 1843—3-1f.

IOWA HOUSE.

AND GENERAL STAGE OFFICE.

THE undersigned having leased his long established and well known TAVERN STAND for a term of years, and added to it such an addition as will enable him to accommodate travellers and visitors in a manner more acceptable than its former dimensions would permit, returns his thanks for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon his house, and solicits a continuance of the same. Having taken the stand for a number of years, placing his reliance for patronage upon his merits, he is determined to continue, as heretofore, to strive to merit a liberal share of patronage by the use of every effort to render the stay of his guests pleasant and agreeable. His TABLE shall at all times be supplied with the best of the market affords, served up in a style not to be surpassed in any country. The BAR will be kept supplied with the choicest Wines and Liquors, and the bar room having always been quiet and free from noise, those wishing to be retired need not entertain any fears of the least disturbance. Porters always in attendance to transport baggage from and to the House free of expense.

His STABLE is kept, at all times, provided with all kinds of provender, and under the charge of a careful and attentive OSTLER, so travellers may rest assured that full justice will be done to their horses.

WM. FRYE.
 Bloomington, Dec. 8, 1843.

GUNSMITHING
 AND ALL PRICES
 ALL QUALITIES
 HEAPER THAN EVER.

HENRY MOLIS would respectfully inform the public that he is prepared to manufacture Rifles, of any size, and warrants them as good as any to be found west of the mountains. Also, to repair guns, locks, or any thing in his line. All at lower prices than have ever been asked in this place. Produce of all kinds taken in payment for work, for which the highest market price will be allowed.

N. B. All those indebted to me are informed that the same can be paid in produce, if delivered soon at A. Ogilvie & Co. Store.
 Bloomington, Dec. 22, 1843—7-3m-4d.

Sheep.

SIXTY head of fine sheep, in excellent order, for sale. Apply to J. B. BENNETT & CO.
 Nov. 17.

J. Bennett & Co

RETURN their thanks to the citizens of Bloomington and the surrounding country, for the very liberal share of patronage bestowed upon them, and beg leave to inform them that they have just received from the Eastern Cities a large and splendid assortment of Foreign and Domestic

DRY GOODS,

Which they offer for sale at very reduced prices, and flatter themselves that by their strict attention to business, they will merit and receive a continuance of the same liberal patronage.

Bloomington, Oct. 6, 1843—48-1y.

IRON.

10 TONS assorted IRON, just received, and for sale by J. BENNETT & CO.
 Oct. 27.

25 SACKS RIO COFFEE, just rec'd and for sale by J. BENNETT & CO.

25 BBLs. N. O. SUGAR, just rec'd and for sale by J. BENNETT & CO.

GUN POWDER, IMPERIAL, and Y. H. TEAS, just received and for sale by J. BENNETT & CO.
 Oct. 27.

QUEENS & HARDWARE, a splendid assortment, just received and for sale by J. BENNETT & CO.
 Oct. 27.

WHITE BEANS & FLAX SEED. ONE THOUSAND BUSHELS WHITE Beans and Flax Seed, wanted by J. BENNETT & CO.
 Oct. 27.

1000 YARDS 4-4 Domestic, just received and for sale, by J. BENNETT & CO.
 Oct. 6.

BROWN BLACK and GREEN 4-4 Merinos just received and for sale, by J. BENNETT & CO.
 Oct. 6.

KENTUCKY and YANKEE Jeans, just rec'd and for sale, by J. BENNETT & CO.
 Oct. 6.

BROADCLOTHS and SATINETTS, a fine lot, just rec'd. and for sale, by J. BENNETT & CO.
 Oct. 6.

Farm for Sale.

A N excellent farm, under a good state of cultivation, with comfortable buildings thereon, situated ten miles north of Bloomington, is offered for sale on reasonable and accommodating terms.

Apply to J. BENNETT & CO.
 Nov. 17.

SALT! LIVERPOOL, and GROUND AL.

LUM Salt for sale, cheap for cash, by F. O. BECKETT & CO.

PARVIN'S BRICK HOTEL,

Corner of Second and Walnut Streets—half-way between the River and Court House.
 THE SUBSCRIBER, thankful for past patronage, assures his friends and the travelling public, that his exertions in their behalf have suffered no diminution, and will at all times be exerted to minister to their comfort and convenience.

His house will be re-opened for the reception of BOARDERS on the 1st of October next, when good accommodations can be had for the following low prices:
 Board per week, including Lodging, $2.50
 do do without do 2.00
 Single meal, 25
 Attached to the Hotel is a good STABLE, where he keeps Horses at the rate of 25 cents per day and night.
 JOSIAH PARVIN.
 Bloomington, Iowa, Sept. 29, 1843. 47-6m

Fahnestock's Cheap and Popular Family Medicines.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE,

A SURE REMEDY FOR WORMS.
 A PERFECTLY SAFE A D CERTAIN CURE FOR WORMS.
 Certificates of its efficacy can be seen at the store of the subscribers sufficient to satisfy the most incredulous. Price 25 cents.
 For sale by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co.,
 STILL MORE PROOFS.
 Upper St. Clair Township, Feb. 25, 1843.
 Mr. B. A. FAHNESTOCK.—I certify that I have made use of your Vermifuge in my family for several years, and in every case it had the desired effect. After giving your Vermifuge to my children, one of them discharged at one time 20, another 50, and a third 80 worms, and were immediately relieved from the dangerous and unpleasant symptoms under which they labored.

FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE,

A D CERTAIN CURE FOR WORMS.

Certificates of its efficacy can be seen at the store of the subscribers sufficient to satisfy the most incredulous. Price 25 cents.
 For sale by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co.,

STILL MORE PROOFS.

Upper St. Clair Township, Feb. 25, 1843.
 Mr. B. A. FAHNESTOCK.—I certify that I have made use of your Vermifuge in my family for several years, and in every case it had the desired effect. After giving your Vermifuge to my children, one of them discharged at one time 20, another 50, and a third 80 worms, and were immediately relieved from the dangerous and unpleasant symptoms under which they labored.

SAMUEL TURBETT.

CARMINATIVE LOZENGES,

A SURE REMEDY FOR SUMMER COMPLAINT.
 AT this season of the year, bowel complaints are always very troublesome and frequently dangerous: every family should therefore, be provided with a box of these Lozenges, which will allay the morbid irritability of the bowels, restore the checked perspiration, stop the debilitating discharges, and in a short time cure the most inveterate case of diarrhoea, chronic dysentery, or habitual looseness. They are very pleasant to the taste, and are sold at the low price of 25 cents a box.
 FAHNESTOCK'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.
 A gentle but efficient cathartic, expressly adapted for a family physic; and are not surpassed by any other pill in use, for all cases in which a cathartic is indicated. They will operate thoroughly without griping. Price 25 cents, for a box containing 30 pills.
 PNEUMONIC, OR COUGH BALSAM.
 A valuable remedy for Coughs and Colds, Price 25 cents.
 COUGH LOZENGES.
 These Lozenges possess all the virtues of the best Cough Syrup, are convenient to carry in the pocket and are very pleasant to the taste. Price 25 cents.
 LIQUID OPODEDOC.
 This penetrating article possesses double the strength of the common Opodeldoc, is more cleanly; and much more conveniently applied. Price 25 cts B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO'S EYE WATER
 For the cure of weak or inflamed eyes. Price 25 cents.
 Prepared by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO.
 Corner 6th and Wood sts, Pittsburgh Pa.
 From the long and eminent standing of the Messrs. Fahnestock as Druggists, the public have the strongest assurance that all the above medicines are scientifically prepared, and wherever they have been introduced, stand unrivalled in curing the complaints for which they are designed.
 To be had genuine only of
J. B. DOUGHERTY,
 Druggist of this city,
 SAML. TOWNSEND,
 Merchant, Wappello,
 N. B. The public are cautioned against purchasing other medicines, similar only in name to the above—also one has been found shamless enough to alter his name to avoid the law of counterfeiting, and assert that it is as good as FAHNESTOCK'S! A word to the wise, &c.
 Bloomington Nov. 10, 1843. 1-1-y

FAHNESTOCK'S CARMINATIVE LOZENGES.

At this season of the year, bowel complaints are always very troublesome and frequently dangerous: every family should therefore, be provided with a box of these Lozenges, which will allay the morbid irritability of the bowels, restore the checked perspiration, stop the debilitating discharges, and in a short time cure the most inveterate case of diarrhoea, chronic dysentery, or habitual looseness. They are very pleasant to the taste, and are sold at the low price of 25 cents a box.

FAHNESTOCK'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

A gentle but efficient cathartic, expressly adapted for a family physic; and are not surpassed by any other pill in use, for all cases in which a cathartic is indicated. They will operate thoroughly without griping. Price 25 cents, for a box containing 30 pills.

PNEUMONIC, OR COUGH BALSAM.

A valuable remedy for Coughs and Colds, Price 25 cents.

COUGH LOZENGES.

These Lozenges possess all the virtues of the best Cough Syrup, are convenient to carry in the pocket and are very pleasant to the taste. Price 25 cents.

LIQUID OPODEDOC.

This penetrating article possesses double the strength of the common Opodeldoc, is more cleanly; and much more conveniently applied. Price 25 cts B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO'S EYE WATER
 For the cure of weak or inflamed eyes. Price 25 cents.

Prepared by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO.

Corner 6th and Wood sts, Pittsburgh Pa.
 From the long and eminent standing of the Messrs. Fahnestock as Druggists, the public have the strongest assurance that all the above medicines are scientifically prepared, and wherever they have been introduced, stand unrivalled in curing the complaints for which they are designed.

To be had genuine only of

J. B. DOUGHERTY,

Druggist of this city,
 SAML. TOWNSEND,
 Merchant, Wappello,
 N. B. The public are cautioned against purchasing other medicines, similar only in name to the above—also one has been found shamless enough to alter his name to avoid the law of counterfeiting, and assert that it is as good as FAHNESTOCK'S! A word to the wise, &c.
 Bloomington Nov. 10, 1843. 1-1-y

STOVES & TIN WARE.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Bloomington and the adjoining counties, that he has re-opened his Tin Ware and Sheet Iron Manufactory,
 In the Store House on Chestnut st, a few doors north-west of the Iowa House, where all kinds of tin ware, house gutting, and stove pipe made to order, at the shortest notice.—Also a lot of the Celebrated Premium Cooking Stoves—10 and 7 plate stoves—a few wire gauze safes, which will be sold at St. Louis prices.
 Dry hides, Beeswax, old Copper, and Pewter will be taken in exchange.
 Aug. 5, 1842—40-1f.

LIQUORS.—Just received from St. Louis, an assortment of Liquors, which will be sold cheap for cash or produce.

 je 16
F. O. BECKETT & CO.

FOR SALE.

TWO HORSE WAGGON for sale, for Cash or Produce, by Dec 8, 1843. J. BENNETT & Co.

ST. MARY'S FEMALE ACADEMY,

AT DUBUQUE, IOWA.
 This Academy is under the patronage of the Right Rev'd Bishop LOMAS, and its location on the bank of the Mississippi, is healthy and commands a beautiful prospect.
 The Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin will teach all the branches which are taught in the best schools in this country. The Sisters will use their best endeavors to advance their pupils in their studies, and carefully watch over their health and morals.

TERMS.

Board and tuition, including bed, bedding and washing payable quarterly in advance.
 $100 00
 Day scholars in the first and second classes per quarter, 4 00
 Do in the third and fourth 3 00
 Fuel for the season. 1 00

EXTRA.

For music, and use of the Piano, quarterly. 7 00
 French Language per quarter 4 00
 N. B.—The Mother Superior is Sister MARY FRANCES CLARKE, to whom communication can be addressed.

It is contemplated to establish a school similar to the above in Burlington in the spring.
 Dec. 22, 1843—1f.

COACH AND WAGGON SHOP.

THE undersigned takes this method of announcing to the citizens of Bloomington and the surrounding country that he continues the manufacture of Coaches and Waggon, at his shop in the lower story of the Carpenter Shop of J. C. Irwin, near the Steam mill on 2d street where he is prepared to execute all kinds of work in his line in a substantial, neat and workmanlike manner, on terms unusually low; for instance, he will furnish two horse waggon warranted to be of good materials, for sixteen dollars. Knowing that the public have been deceived by the publicity of pretended mechanics who understand the brag better than the mechanical part of the business, he would only say that he warrants all his work not to break down or give way under the first load that is put upon them.

All kinds of produce taken in payment for work. Repairing done on the shortest notice.
 FRANCIS PERRY.
 Bloomington, Sept. 8, 1843—44-6m.

SHELLED CORN.—5,000 Bushels Shelled

Dec 1
 J. R. BENNETT

SALT! SALT!—500 bbls. first quality—just received and for sale at 40 cts. per bushel, by may 5 cm] A. OGILVIE & CO.

BOOTS.—Kip and Cowhide BOOTS can be had at reduced prices, to close the concern.

 je 16 F. O. BECKETT & CO.

Peter's Pills.

"TRUTH HAS PREVAILED."

PETER'S Vegetable Pills have now been ten years before the public. During that period they have obtained a celebrity unparalleled in the history of the most popular medicines which preceded them or have followed in their track. The happy combination of vegetable ingredients, to which these Pills owe their efficacy is the result of years of earnest study and experience in the properties of medicinal substances, the pathology of disease, the nature and modus operandi of the various fluids which minister to the support and sustenance of the human body, and the organization by which those fluids are prepared, modified, and distributed. The triumph of skill, and patient experience has been complete. Throughout the length and breadth of our land, in British America, England, the West Indies, and on the continent of Europe, the curative virtues of Peter's vegetable Pills, are gratefully acknowledged. They may be termed the medicine par excellence of the Southern States. Their consumption south of the Potomac, is enormous, and continually on the increase. No other Pill "goes down" there, however sugared over with hired puff, and home manufactured certificates.

PETER'S VEGETABLE PILLS.

may termed a universal medicine, for there is scarcely any derangement or obstruction of the organs and functions of the human machine which they will not alleviate or remove. When administered in the early stages of congestion of the stomach or bowels, they speedily relax those organs, reduce the attendant fever, and restore the sufferer to health. Containing no irritating or drastic substances, their exhibition is never followed by that prostration of the bodily powers which characterises the operation of most other cathartics, and they may be administered without the slightest fear of producing the local inflammation so frequently caused by the pungent compositions vended by the quacks and charlatans of the day.

In almost all stages of disease Peter's Vegetable Pills will be found of beneficial effect, but they should always be resorted to when the first symptom makes its appearance. The conquest of the complaint will be easy and immediate. In bilious disorders, remittent, or intermittent fever, dyspepsia, dysentery, cholera, cholice, diarrhoea, dropsy, sour flatulencies, enlargement of the spleen, sick head ache, complaints growing out of imperfect or too rapid digestion, torpor of the bowels, female obstructions, habitual constiveness, and all other diseases in which a purgative medicine is proper, Peter's Vegetable Pills will be found unrivalled in the speed, certainty and gentleness of their operation.

It is asked upon what principle these extraordinary effects are produced? We reply that Peter's Vegetable Pill acts as a purifier of the blood by purifying the chyle and other fluids of which blood is composed. Chyle is a milky fluid deposited by the digested matter on the coats of the intestines, and which when combined with the chyliferous secretion is conveyed into the veins and becomes the primary of life. This medicine acts directly upon the chyle, from which it expels all acid particles, and all humors detrimental to a healthy circulation. It cleanses the juices and fluids before the chemic change takes place which fits them for the immediate purposes of vitality. This is beginning at the beginning. To imbue the streams of life with health, it is necessary to purify them at their sources.

Such is the radical mode in which this medicine performs its cures. Testimonials which would fill volumes (many of them from high scientific authority) are its vouchers, and it is used in the practice of the Physicians here, and abroad.

In the early months of Spring, when the animal and Vegetable worlds are alike influenced by the change of season, aperiient medicines are especially beneficial. One dose of Peter's Vegetable Pills taken at this season, may save hundreds of dollars in Doctor's bills during the approaching heats of Summer. Be wise in time. "Preserve and regulate" now, that you may not have to contend with disease in its fiercest forms hereafter.

Are you subject to pain in the stomach or bowels after eating accompanied by depression of spirits, and an indisposition to active employment of body or mind—shooting pains in the back and limbs—uneasiness in the region of the liver and kidneys—cold feet—faintness and trembling after strong exercise; in short, have you any of the sensation, which denote a derangement of the digestive and secretory functions, and consequently an impure state of the blood? If so, and you value health, take Peter's Vegetable Pills, and insure the restoration of that invaluable blessing.

For sale as follows in Bloomington, by J. B. DOUGHERTY, J. R. BENNETT, JOHN ZIEGLER.
 Also, by agents throughout the States and Territories, &c.
 Bloomington, Oct. 9, 1843—49-1y.

Cabinet & Chair making,