PERSONAL.

—FRANK CORDIER, Rowland, has been granted a pension.

—REV. AND MRS. A. S. MOFFETT went to Louisville Tuesday.

—MR. AND MRS. W. J. SPARKS went to Louisville yesterday.

—FRANK, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. SWAYNE, is very ill of fever.

—MISS LOU GRANT, of Lancaster, was with the Misses Beckley this week.

—MISS LAURA KELLER, of Harrodsburg, is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Metcalf.

—MISS LIZZIE ALEXANDER, of Harrodsburg, is visiting Miss Joe Engleman.

—MISS BELLE ROSE is spending a month at her brother's, Mr. Dwight Ross, in the country.

—MR. AND MRS. J. T. LYNN, of Louisville, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. WEST.

—MISS ROSE RICHARDS and Lizzie Beckley went to Louisville yesterday to hear Moody.

—MRS. FORT COULTS and Louis are spending a few days at their former home in Greensburg.

—MISS S. H. ROUT received an elegant set of silver table-spoons from her uncle, Mr. J. W. Harris, of Leavenworth, Kansas.

—MR. R. G. WILLIAMS, representing that excellent paper, the Mt. Vernon Signal, was here Friday asking in subscribers.

—MR. AND MRS. H. J. McROBERTS went to Harrodsburg Wednesday to attend the marriage of Dr. Dixon to Miss Julia Cecil.

—MR. HARRY RANEY and wife and Mrs. W. R. Veach are visiting in Mercer. Mrs. Raney is in very bad health, but is some what improved.

—MRS. SEAN F., widow of the late Geo. R. Cooper, has been granted a pension for the service of her husband in the Mexican War. She will draw $8 a month, beginning with January, 1888.

—MISS SALLIE HARRISON writes that she is now located in the Hotel Emory, Cincinnati, and would be glad to fill orders from her friends for any kind of goods. She will also "chaperon" ladies visiting Cincinnati shopping and sight seeing.

—HON. WILLIAM BERKELEY, the cleverest republican that draws breath, takes exactly 24 newspapers, and shows his good sense by including the INTERIOR JOURNAL in the number, and has done so for many years. He and his good wife are decidedly partial to it too.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

No connection with the Cincinnati Southern yesterday.

CALL on us when you want a saddle. It will pay you. Metcalf & Foster.

A new line of China, Glass and Queensware just received at A. A. Warren's "Model Grocery."

We have just received a new line of harness and saddlery. Call and examine. Metcalf & Foster.

The wife of D. G. Burrow, of Clark, a relative of Mr. R. E. Burrow, of this county, died Wednesday.

TWENTY FIVE DOLLAR suits at $14 and only a few left, at the Great Bargain Store of S. L. Powers & Co.

CARPETS.—We have in stock and are receiving daily an elegant line of carpets, oil cloths, etc. Owsley & Craig.

OUR Liberty bell tolls of a murder and a jail delivery. Cases seems determined that she will keep up with the procession.

THE man who sticks his tooth into an Irish potato now can almost taste the money in them. They sell at $1.50 a bushel here and are scarce at that.

AND now comes the report that owing to the heavy rates they are required to pay since the adoption of the Interstate Commerce law, the circus companies have resolved not to use the railroads this year, but follow the water course.

I HAVE just received a new lot of Hamburg. S. H. Shanks.

Two car loads of fresh salt just received at Metcalf & Foster's.

OLD sewing machines repaired and an elegant line of new ones at Peter Hamilton's.

BEN BARTLE, a brakeman on this division, had his leg broke while coupling cars at New Haven, Tuesday.

We have received our first spring order of clamburg edgings, laces, &c. Please call and examine. Owsley & Craig.

DRIED FRUITS of all kinds, Mince Meat, Preserves, Pickles and Canned Goods at A. A. Warren's "Model Grocery."

PAY ATTENTION.—I wish to say to my customers to call and settle their accounts. I need the money and must have it. Do not neglect this thing. Mrs. Kate Dudder.

THERE will be a grand free show to-morrow evening from 6 to 7 o'clock. The man in the moon will give a trapeze act and do other wonderful things, which everybody can see if they get the right position.

REMEMBER this is no money making sale, the only object being to close out the stock within the shortest time possible. These coming first will find greatest assortment to select from. Powers' Great Bargain Store.

"Bow," said his girl to him the other night, "Needham's marriage bill knocks you out on the first count." "How's that?" said Bob, with a faint effort to smile. "Idiot," she sweetly replied and now they do not speak as they pass by.

THE Uncle Tom Cabin Company, which recently played here, went to pieces at Centerville. It played in bad luck all the way, and its fate ought to convince other such companies that nobody here but comes want to see the miserable old chestnut.

REV. J. H. MORAN, who used to be pastor of the colored Baptist church here, but who now lives in Kansas, has nearly entirely lost his sight and is an object for the assistance of the charitable inclined. He wants to have his eyes operated upon and also desires to return to his family. Any contribution will be thankfully received by him.

JUDITH CARSON paid John Williams $30 and costs for shooting on the streets, driving on the pavement and acting disorderly generally, which he promptly paid. Afterwards another warrant was gotten out against him for cursing a man, but this was subsequently withdrawn. We hope this will teach him a lesson so that hereafter there will be no cause for complaint against him. He is not naturally a bad boy. In fact he can be especially nice when he wants to be and for the sake of his excellent family he should endeavor to always set the gentlemen.

KATYDID'S POEMS.—We have received from Mrs. J. I. McKinney a beautifully bound copy of her poems, which has just been issued by the Courier Journal job room. It contains eighty odd of her best productions and as Prof. John Aug. Williams, her old preceptor, says, "A delicacy of thought and fancy, and of purity of sentiment pervades the whole like sweetest perfume." It is a volume of which anyone might feel proud and we thank the donor for so kindly remembering us. A splendid engraving of the handsome authoress ornaments the book and several of the poems are illustrated. It is dedicated to J. I. McKinney in this little verse:

"To him whose every word of praise,
Who loves to linger where my thoughts have been,
And who delights in all my rhyming ways,
I offer first, these efforts of my pen."

THE other day an old gentleman, who has taken the paper ever since we bought it, 13 years ago, called in and said he was too poor to continue it and we would have to stop his copy. We told him if poverty was the only reason and he wanted the paper that he should have it free, but he wouldn't agree to that and we lifted his name out of the list. He only missed an issue before he came in again and ordered it on, saying that he felt lost without it and that his daughters had raised such a row that he was forced to do something. That day we met the young ladies who paid up the subscription and said "Don't pay any attention to us, we want the paper and are always going to have it." We can always depend on the dear women. They cannot resist the winning ways of their trust friend, the I. J., and tell us that once a subscriber means always a subscriber with them.

DURING the Christmas holidays Sam Yowell, a Hustonville man, was arrested and brought to jail, charged with resisting an officer. County Attorney Carpenter started to take him back to Hustonville the next day for trial, but was very quiet.

ly walked off and left Mr. Carpenter to take the cold drive alone. He was tried anyway, and a sentence of 15 days in jail imposed against him. The other day he went to Squire John Bell and asked him for an order to Jailer Owens for the 15 days' board which being given him he promptly delivered to that officer. It is rare that a lawbreaker takes his own medicine to the jail and Sam deserves to be shown some consideration for his act. Another negro, Walker Wheeler, said to be insane, was lodged in jail Wednesday, but Judge Varner thinks he is more a subject for the poor house and will send him there, unless he shows marked signs of insanity. These additions make 15 prisoners now in charge of Jailer Owens.

THE photographer, J. L. Schlegel, will resume his bi monthly visits next Tuesday. Call on him at the McRoberts gallery.

We club with nearly every paper and periodical in the country and can save you from 25 cents to $1 if you subscribe through us.

MR. HENRY MILLER is fixing up his store room preparatory to opening a stock of boots and shoes. He will still continue to do custom work.

SQUIRE MURPHY says the ground hog lost his reputation last year, John Smith and the goose bone have proved valueless and our only dependence now is on Bier Greely.

It is hardly necessary to reiterate the fact that Al Field's Miretrels will be here next Tuesday night. Everybody knows it and everybody who can get there will be present.

THE rush continues at the Great Bargain Store. Remember everything must go and the time is short. Don't miss the opportunity to load up with desirable goods. S. L. Powers & Co.

THE cold wave signal was flying yesterday and the mercury was down to 20°, but warmer weather is predicted for today. A heavy rain has about gotten away with the snow since last issue.

JOHN BRIGHT, JR., has sold his interest in the firm of Hucker & Bright to his partner, Dr. S. G. Hucker, who will continue the business at the same stand. Mr. Bright is not decided as to what he will do.

WHEN Tim Needham's matrimonial law is adopted and a general statute is enacted forbidding people from lingering in church aisles and pottolice lobbies, while those in the rear struggle for exit, scarcely anything more will be needed to make this vain world a paradise for monumental cranks.

THE Rowland people are kicking like mules because the postoffice has been removed from the town proper to the far-end of Needmore. Photographer Cordier has been appointed postmaster and we suppose he takes the office around in his car. Perhaps it will be in the proper place next week.

"BOWLING GREEN"—one of the three negroes arrested Monday charged with the assassination of William Whitecotton on the night of the 18th, had his examining trial at Danville Wednesday, and was held without bail on very strong circumstantial evidence. Jim Catli and Matt Brooks, the other two, waived examination.

Arnold admirer of Mr. F. J. Campbell's horn playing has just presented him with one of Conn's finest solo cornets. No one may leave town on this account for Campbell is not one of those super brilliant, roof lifting horn blowers, but for correct interpretation, exquisite phraseology and sweetness of tone very few amateurs of this day equal him.

NEARLY all of the town people who have ice houses, filled them during the late season with three to four inch ice. Mr. Barrow upon whom devolves the duty of supplying those who have none, only about half filled his houses before the thaw commenced. He pond is supplied with springs in it and does not freeze as soon nor as fast as others.

RE-IGNING.

—Elder John Bell Gibson is attending the Moody meetings and will not fill his pulpit next Sunday.

—Please say through you paper that I will preach at Sugar Grove School-house next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. J. G. Livingston.

—Rev. T. N. McWilliams, of the Danville Theological Seminary, will fill Mr. Caldwell's appointment at McKendree church Saturday night and Sunday morning next.

—The average salary of a Southern Presbyterian preacher is $552. Kentucky pays the highest salaries, the average being $725. The average contributions by church members is $4.08; the Kentucky average is $5.41; Texas leads with $7.83 average.

—Rev. S. A. Dry, of Covington, has just closed one of the most successful revivals that was ever held in Carnegie, Campbell county. There were between 80 and 100 conversions and the whole community is thoroughly aroused. —[Commonwealth.]

—A townsman thinks he detects a spirit of self-laudation about the very looks of some persons, who have been to Louisville to hear Moody; something in their walk and manner that seems to say: "Oh you thoughtless creature, go and hear Moody!"

—A cynical church man thinks that aside from personal pleasure and pride of sensationism in the Moody meetings, the thing comes high at $12,000. That sum judiciously expended in obscure places in our State would bring forth astonishing fruits of righteousness.

—At Baptist church next Sunday eve at 3 P. M., the pastor will preach to the children of the town on reading the Bible, subject: "The Best Lamp." All parents invited to bring the children. Immediately after the service the "Sons-of-Sons" will meet. All of them come. P. G. Elsom.

—The adherents of the religion of Jesus Christ to-day outnumber the followers of any other faith in the world. Christian missions number more than 2,000,000 adherents on best soil, and at the present rate of increase will include 20,000,000 more before the century closes. —[Judson Smith.]

—The Pope said on receiving President Cleveland's present: "In America, the people enjoy liberty in the true sense of the word. Religion there is free to spread itself. I entertain an especial affection for America, and have therefore approved the schemes for a Catholic University at Washington. Your great country has a grand future before it. Your President commands my highest admiration and I thank and bless you and him!"

—Elder R. A. Hopper has accepted a call to devote half his time to work for the General Missionary Board of the Christian Church. Elder Jesse Watson, of Lancaster, closed a series of meetings at the Christian church of Campbellsville Sunday night with seven additions. He was assisted most of the time by Elder A. C. Hopkins. The debt incurred by the congregation in erecting their house of worship was paid off. —[Lebanon Standard.]

MARRIAGES.

—A Milwaukee minister has married 1,300 couples in his time.

—W. W. Gillispie, drummer for a Cincinnati house, eloped with a 14 year-old daughter of Richard Haddison, of Fleming county. They were married at Aberdeen.

—Miss Aggie Bright, a Hoosier beauty, skinned down a lightning rod and rode straddle 20 miles to marry Adam Sharp. Miss Aggie is A. Bright girl as well as A. Sharp won. —[Glasgow Times.]

IN A PRETTY FIX. Jennie sighed, and Robin read her pretty little trembling hand; then with outstretched arms he squeezed her half reluctant form—and—"Loose me!" but he clasped her tighter. "Jennie, say, with thou be mine?" then her bright face grew much brighter, and she whispered, "I am thine." Then they clasped each other fondly, close together as two bricks, then they kissed each other soundly, and—I left them in that fix.

A colored dude engaged to be among the seated passengers in a Washington horse-car. A young woman of his own color entered and he immediately arose and offered her his seat. She gracefully demurred, and said: "I don't like to deprive you, sir, of your seat." "Oh, no depravity, miss," was the reply; "no depravity at all; I prefer to stand."

Wife (3 A. M., 16 below).—"James, don't thou hear the cat?" "Idiot." "She meweth." "Let her mew. It amuseth me." "Wilt thou not arise and cast her thither?" "Not a whit." "Then to-morrow I arise and go unto my mother, saying unto her: 'Mother, here I am and here I will remain.'" Snore response. —[N. Y. Journal.]

Mr. Barrow talks of buying the ship Great Eastern, loading it with attractions and running it as a big floating circus. Mr. Barrow is the greatest showman since Noah, who, notwithstanding his failure to draw, unquestionably conducted the greatest show on earth.

J. P. Hagin went to California with $500, borrowed money, and is now worth $10,000,000. And yet Shakspeare said that borrowing dulls the edge of husbandry. Shakspeare may have been a poet, but he was no business man.

Speaking of the bad acts in retaliation committed by extreme prohibitionists and liquor men, the New York Sun remarks that "sometimes seems hard cases, which her temperance or intemperance is the more inopportune."

Over 20,000 women work at the watch making trade in Switzerland. They do much of the finest and most delicate work. Two states own and operate such a large watch making establishment of paper mills.
