

Christian College Notes.

(ADV.)

—Geometry is a thing of the past, with the class of 1893-94. They were examined on nine books and they acquitted themselves with much credit.

—Judge Boyle Stone, of Liberty, came up on Friday to attend the opera, and returned home after the entertainment, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Amanda.

—The Reed Sisters were entertained at the college during their stay in Hustonville. The entertainment was complimentary by all, who attended it; it was elevating in character, and showed much culture upon the part of both ladies. Such entertainments should be encouraged and patronized as they tend to elevate the character of the young.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jackson VanArsdell, of Mercer, made their daughters, Mrs. M. G. Thomson and Miss Etha VanArsdell, a pleasant visit last week. Mr. and Mrs. I. C. James and their bright, little daughter, Annie, came on Friday to hear "Katie Dean," and to visit relatives. Miss Annie was the special guest of Miss Catharine Thomson at the college, who entertained her in such a delightful manner as to cause many regrets, when the separation came. Miss Allie Surber spent from Friday until Monday with her aunt, Mrs. Martha Hubble.

—The opera, "Katie Dean," given at the Christian church on Friday evening, March 23rd, for the benefit of the college library, was a pronounced success. By 8 o'clock the church was filled and at 10 minutes past eight the Heroine, "Katie Dean" impersonated by Miss Erma Morse, made her appearance, in appropriate dress as the "flag-picker." She is an orphan and conceives the idea of finding a mother. After wandering through many discouragements, and many trying ordeals, she is successful.

The lady, who adopts her, is impersonated by Miss Emma Pruitt, whose queenly manners, grace, and dignity, could not have been surpassed. Katie finally enters a palatial home, surrounded by every comfort that wealth could afford, or heart could desire. In our imagination we are still greeted by the music strains of Katie's charming voice, and the impression she made on the audience will be removed, only by the tomb-builder, time. Biddie McCune, who raised Katie from infancy, was a typical Irish woman, impersonated by Miss Kate Moore, and a better one for it could not have been chosen. In brogues, manner, independence, austerity, and candor, the Biddy of the Emerald Isles was transported, yet much improved upon by a sweet, musical voice. Mr. James B. Cook played in the role of Edward, the lady's coachman. In his full suit of livery, he looked even handsomer than ever before. His much complimented tenor voice rang with unusual clearness and sweetness, and every ear seemed set to catch the sweet strains, he played his part well. Mr. W. A. Dinwiddie appeared as the butler. At his first appearance, he seemed a little awkward, falling and breaking a waiter of dishes; but, in an instant he was on his feet again, and atoned for everything by the dignity and perfect manner in which he rendered his part. Mr. Claude Pruitt, the police officer, seemed every inch a well-drilled city policeman; handsome and commanding, he wore the brass buttons, and wielded the "billy" with characteristic grace. The character of the newspaper reporter was well chosen, in the person of Mr. James North. He looked like an editor, acted like an editor, is polite like an editor, and should be an editor. At the end of the 2nd act, was a beautiful tableau, representing Katie's angel mother, appearing to her in a dream. In this Miss Lillie McCormick posed, and the picture was beautiful and pathetic. Immediately after the tableau, Lullaby from Erin was sung by Mrs. J. B. Riffe, Miss Anna Reid, Messrs. James Cook and W. A. Dinwiddie. The sweet, and charming soprano of Mrs. Riffe, and the rich deep alto of Miss Reid, with the handsome appearance, which both presented on the stage, was a marked feature of the entertainment. While Miss Erma Morse was the heroine, we might appropriately call Miss Bennett the hero and musician. She has worked with untiring assiduity in planning and arranging the opera, and she has certainly shown much taste and skill in the work. The entertainment closed with a grand chorus, welcoming Katie Dean to her new home. In addition to the principal characters in the play, the following composed the chorus: Misses Dollie Whipp, Amanda Stone, Victoria Bishop, Dollie Cowden, Minnie Eubanks, Lillie McCormick, Anna Reid, and Mr. and Mrs. John Riffe. Last, but not least, by any means was the Metropolitan Band, of Stanford. It was almost the sine qua non of the occasion. The selections were tasty and appropriate, and the rendition was artistic. They were encored several times, which showed the high appreciation of the audience. The Library Association extends to them their hearty thanks.

—The opera, "Katie Dean," given at the Christian church on Friday evening, March 23rd, for the benefit of the college library, was a pronounced success. By 8 o'clock the church was filled and at 10 minutes past eight the Heroine, "Katie Dean" impersonated by Miss Erma Morse, made her appearance, in appropriate dress as the "flag-picker." She is an orphan and conceives the idea of finding a mother. After wandering through many discouragements, and many trying ordeals, she is successful.

The lady, who adopts her, is impersonated by Miss Emma Pruitt, whose queenly manners, grace, and dignity, could not have been surpassed. Katie finally enters a palatial home, surrounded by every comfort that wealth could afford, or heart could desire. In our imagination we are still greeted by the music strains of Katie's charming voice, and the impression she made on the audience will be removed, only by the tomb-builder, time. Biddie McCune, who raised Katie from infancy, was a typical Irish woman, impersonated by Miss Kate Moore, and a better one for it could not have been chosen. In brogues, manner, independence, austerity, and candor, the Biddy of the Emerald Isles was transported, yet much improved upon by a sweet, musical voice. Mr. James B. Cook played in the role of Edward, the lady's coachman. In his full suit of livery, he looked even handsomer than ever before. His much complimented tenor voice rang with unusual clearness and sweetness, and every ear seemed set to catch the sweet strains, he played his part well. Mr. W. A. Dinwiddie appeared as the butler. At his first appearance, he seemed a little awkward, falling and breaking a waiter of dishes; but, in an instant he was on his feet again, and atoned for everything by the dignity and perfect manner in which he rendered his part. Mr. Claude Pruitt, the police officer, seemed every inch a well-drilled city policeman; handsome and commanding, he wore the brass buttons, and wielded the "billy" with characteristic grace. The character of the newspaper reporter was well chosen, in the person of Mr. James North. He looked like an editor, acted like an editor, is polite like an editor, and should be an editor. At the end of the 2nd act, was a beautiful tableau, representing Katie's angel mother, appearing to her in a dream. In this Miss Lillie McCormick posed, and the picture was beautiful and pathetic. Immediately after the tableau, Lullaby from Erin was sung by Mrs. J. B. Riffe, Miss Anna Reid, Messrs. James Cook and W. A. Dinwiddie. The sweet, and charming soprano of Mrs. Riffe, and the rich deep alto of Miss Reid, with the handsome appearance, which both presented on the stage, was a marked feature of the entertainment. While Miss Erma Morse was the heroine, we might appropriately call Miss Bennett the hero and musician. She has worked with untiring assiduity in planning and arranging the opera, and she has certainly shown much taste and skill in the work. The entertainment closed with a grand chorus, welcoming Katie Dean to her new home. In addition to the principal characters in the play, the following composed the chorus: Misses Dollie Whipp, Amanda Stone, Victoria Bishop, Dollie Cowden, Minnie Eubanks, Lillie McCormick, Anna Reid, and Mr. and Mrs. John Riffe. Last, but not least, by any means was the Metropolitan Band, of Stanford. It was almost the sine qua non of the occasion. The selections were tasty and appropriate, and the rendition was artistic. They were encored several times, which showed the high appreciation of the audience. The Library Association extends to them their hearty thanks.

—The opera, "Katie Dean," given at the Christian church on Friday evening, March 23rd, for the benefit of the college library, was a pronounced success. By 8 o'clock the church was filled and at 10 minutes past eight the Heroine, "Katie Dean" impersonated by Miss Erma Morse, made her appearance, in appropriate dress as the "flag-picker." She is an orphan and conceives the idea of finding a mother. After wandering through many discouragements, and many trying ordeals, she is successful.

The lady, who adopts her, is impersonated by Miss Emma Pruitt, whose queenly manners, grace, and dignity, could not have been surpassed. Katie finally enters a palatial home, surrounded by every comfort that wealth could afford, or heart could desire. In our imagination we are still greeted by the music strains of Katie's charming voice, and the impression she made on the audience will be removed, only by the tomb-builder, time. Biddie McCune, who raised Katie from infancy, was a typical Irish woman, impersonated by Miss Kate Moore, and a better one for it could not have been chosen. In brogues, manner, independence, austerity, and candor, the Biddy of the Emerald Isles was transported, yet much improved upon by a sweet, musical voice. Mr. James B. Cook played in the role of Edward, the lady's coachman. In his full suit of livery, he looked even handsomer than ever before. His much complimented tenor voice rang with unusual clearness and sweetness, and every ear seemed set to catch the sweet strains, he played his part well. Mr. W. A. Dinwiddie appeared as the butler. At his first appearance, he seemed a little awkward, falling and breaking a waiter of dishes; but, in an instant he was on his feet again, and atoned for everything by the dignity and perfect manner in which he rendered his part. Mr. Claude Pruitt, the police officer, seemed every inch a well-drilled city policeman; handsome and commanding, he wore the brass buttons, and wielded the "billy" with characteristic grace. The character of the newspaper reporter was well chosen, in the person of Mr. James North. He looked like an editor, acted like an editor, is polite like an editor, and should be an editor. At the end of the 2nd act, was a beautiful tableau, representing Katie's angel mother, appearing to her in a dream. In this Miss Lillie McCormick posed, and the picture was beautiful and pathetic. Immediately after the tableau, Lullaby from Erin was sung by Mrs. J. B. Riffe, Miss Anna Reid, Messrs. James Cook and W. A. Dinwiddie. The sweet, and charming soprano of Mrs. Riffe, and the rich deep alto of Miss Reid, with the handsome appearance, which both presented on the stage, was a marked feature of the entertainment. While Miss Erma Morse was the heroine, we might appropriately call Miss Bennett the hero and musician. She has worked with untiring assiduity in planning and arranging the opera, and she has certainly shown much taste and skill in the work. The entertainment closed with a grand chorus, welcoming Katie Dean to her new home. In addition to the principal characters in the play, the following composed the chorus: Misses Dollie Whipp, Amanda Stone, Victoria Bishop, Dollie Cowden, Minnie Eubanks, Lillie McCormick, Anna Reid, and Mr. and Mrs. John Riffe. Last, but not least, by any means was the Metropolitan Band, of Stanford. It was almost the sine qua non of the occasion. The selections were tasty and appropriate, and the rendition was artistic. They were encored several times, which showed the high appreciation of the audience. The Library Association extends to them their hearty thanks.

—The opera, "Katie Dean," given at the Christian church on Friday evening, March 23rd, for the benefit of the college library, was a pronounced success. By 8 o'clock the church was filled and at 10 minutes past eight the Heroine, "Katie Dean" impersonated by Miss Erma Morse, made her appearance, in appropriate dress as the "flag-picker." She is an orphan and conceives the idea of finding a mother. After wandering through many discouragements, and many trying ordeals, she is successful.

The lady, who adopts her, is impersonated by Miss Emma Pruitt, whose queenly manners, grace, and dignity, could not have been surpassed. Katie finally enters a palatial home, surrounded by every comfort that wealth could afford, or heart could desire. In our imagination we are still greeted by the music strains of Katie's charming voice, and the impression she made on the audience will be removed, only by the tomb-builder, time. Biddie McCune, who raised Katie from infancy, was a typical Irish woman, impersonated by Miss Kate Moore, and a better one for it could not have been chosen. In brogues, manner, independence, austerity, and candor, the Biddy of the Emerald Isles was transported, yet much improved upon by a sweet, musical voice. Mr. James B. Cook played in the role of Edward, the lady's coachman. In his full suit of livery, he looked even handsomer than ever before. His much complimented tenor voice rang with unusual clearness and sweetness, and every ear seemed set to catch the sweet strains, he played his part well. Mr. W. A. Dinwiddie appeared as the butler. At his first appearance, he seemed a little awkward, falling and breaking a waiter of dishes; but, in an instant he was on his feet again, and atoned for everything by the dignity and perfect manner in which he rendered his part. Mr. Claude Pruitt, the police officer, seemed every inch a well-drilled city policeman; handsome and commanding, he wore the brass buttons, and wielded the "billy" with characteristic grace. The character of the newspaper reporter was well chosen, in the person of Mr. James North. He looked like an editor, acted like an editor, is polite like an editor, and should be an editor. At the end of the 2nd act, was a beautiful tableau, representing Katie's angel mother, appearing to her in a dream. In this Miss Lillie McCormick posed, and the picture was beautiful and pathetic. Immediately after the tableau, Lullaby from Erin was sung by Mrs. J. B. Riffe, Miss Anna Reid, Messrs. James Cook and W. A. Dinwiddie. The sweet, and charming soprano of Mrs. Riffe, and the rich deep alto of Miss Reid, with the handsome appearance, which both presented on the stage, was a marked feature of the entertainment. While Miss Erma Morse was the heroine, we might appropriately call Miss Bennett the hero and musician. She has worked with untiring assiduity in planning and arranging the opera, and she has certainly shown much taste and skill in the work. The entertainment closed with a grand chorus, welcoming Katie Dean to her new home. In addition to the principal characters in the play, the following composed the chorus: Misses Dollie Whipp, Amanda Stone, Victoria Bishop, Dollie Cowden, Minnie Eubanks, Lillie McCormick, Anna Reid, and Mr. and Mrs. John Riffe. Last, but not least, by any means was the Metropolitan Band, of Stanford. It was almost the sine qua non of the occasion. The selections were tasty and appropriate, and the rendition was artistic. They were encored several times, which showed the high appreciation of the audience. The Library Association extends to them their hearty thanks.

—J. L. Norse, the oldest citizen of Bell county, is dead, aged 98.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—P. F. Stillings left this week for a month's trip, subletting mail routes.

—Fred Pigg has his arm in a sling, having accidentally cut his hand about half an inch.

—Hop Steele is using crutches. While cutting wood he almost cut off a limb near the ankle.

—Commonwealth's Attorney W. R. Ramsey has been sent a sack of fine seed corn for distribution by the State Commissioner of Agriculture.

—The "beautiful" snow decorated the flowers and shrubs in this vicinity Sunday. There is no impeaching the fact that the peach crop in Laurel has been eliminated.

—The nuisance located on the southern part of the public square was turned over one night last week. As it was the county's property an investigation was instituted by Squire Moses, but the perpetrators were not found out. Let it go and the people who used it take to the woods.

—The recent religious meetings here have resulted in great good, with near 20 new additions to the different churches. There were three prayer meetings last week. There was a dance given at Mr. Ed. Wyan's last Friday night and all the young folks present complain that they enjoyed themselves better than ever in life before.

—Jake Walder, a Swiss carpenter who has been making his home with John Blunchi at East Bernstadt since last December, disappeared about two weeks ago. He did not owe anybody anything and left Mr. Blunchi $150 or $200. His trunk and best clothing is at Mr. Blunchi's, who is very anxious to learn of his whereabouts and fears that he may have been foully dealt with. Mr. Walder was 40 years old and weighed about 170 pounds.

—Apropos of the "brags" of brother Dyche about the new republican converts, I heard a leading republican say, a few days ago that he wouldn't vote that ticket any more. That the acts of that party in the primary was such to show him that it wasn't the party of morality he thought it was, and pretended to be. All the same he will walk up in November and vote the straight republican ticket just like some of brother Dyche's converts will do in November on the other side.

—C. M. Randall has withdrawn his notice of contest against Frank Elliott in the sheriff's race, and the several negroes arrested as illegal voters have been turned loose. The agreement between Elliott and Randall is that the latter shall support the former in the present race and he will support Randall in any race he may make in the future. I understood the charge Randall made was that voters had repeated, been imported and that Elliott had used whisky and money contrary to the agreement of all candidates who went into primary.

—Queen and Crescent Route.—"Glimpses of the World's Fair." A selection of 192 Gems of the White City seen through the Camera. This handsome volume containing 192 photographic half-tone views of the entire Exposition, showing all main buildings, all state and territorial buildings, all foreign buildings, grounds, statuary, lagoons, and about 40 views of the great Midway Plaisance, will be sent to any address on receipt of 25 cents and five cents for postage. This book has been issued by the greatest of Southern railroads—the Queen & Crescent Route—and its excellence is without a flaw. A most delightful collection of exquisite views, in a small and convenient-sized book. Many such collections are large and cumbersome. Send your address and 30 cents to W. C. Rinkerson, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.

—To the Editor Interior Journal. We, the undersigned officers of election in precinct No. 3, Stanford, take pleasure in stating that the report that L. M. Lasley, one of the judges in said precinct, opened and looked at any of the ballots, is absolutely false and without foundation.

John Skidmore, judge, N. W. Sampson, sheriff, W. B. Penny, clerk.

Chain of Lakes, Waupaca, Wis.

The attention of those figuring on a place for their "summer outing" is called to Waupaca, Wis., located on the Wisconsin Central Lines, about 200 miles from Chicago. It is a delightful spot, surrounded by a beautiful chain of lakes, which abound in bass, trout, pike, pickerel and muskallonge. Good hotel accommodations at rates within reach of all. For full particulars, maps and guide books, address Jas. C. Pond, Genl. Pass. Agt. Milwaukee, Wis.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headache yields to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only to cents at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller leads all other preparations in the market. I recommend it because it is the best medicine I ever handled for coughs and croup. A. W. Fairbridge, Millersville, Ill. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist.

A Plea of Confession and Avoidance.

(To the Editor of Interior Journal.)

Pittsburg, March 23.—I notice in London letter of to-day's issue quite a lengthy article from Mr. John Pearl stating that I voted in the republican primary March 9, and that he didn't think me worthy of being chairman Democratic County Committee, etc. I did vote in said primary, as did a number of as good democrats as Mr. Pearl, and was sworn to support the nominees just so far as I voted, and not the whole ticket.

Laurel county is republican by a large majority, and as good men was running for nomination, and nomination is equivalent to election in this county, I voted to assist good men to office—men that I believed would enforce the law.

As to Mr. Pearl being deposed as chairman I don't know anything about the whys or wherefores, neither did I know that I was appointed in his stead until I received a copy of the "Democratic Organization." I was not even an applicant, and if the democrats of Laurel county want another man as chairman I am perfectly willing. However, I am still a democrat and ready to do my part. I deem this explanation due to my Lincoln county friends and democrats. I am

Yours truly, J. W. BASTIN.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Eight ewes belonging to A. J. Gorham, of Fayette county, had 24 lambs, 20 of which are living.

—During Mr. M. N. DePauw's stay in Charlotte, N. C., he sold 60 small cotton mules at an average of $80.

—George Baker reports the purchase of a lot of butcher cattle at 1½¢, and the sale of a yoke of oxen for $50.

—The Stock Farm says that J. R. Farris' Guardsman, by Aleyone, promises to be a money-winner this year.

—The Christian county man, who planted 80 acres in corn before the cold snap, now doubtless wishes he hadn't.

—New Jersey sends to market every year 2,000,000 baskets of peaches and makes over 200,000 gallons of apple jack.

—Idol Wilkes, a brown stallion, has been sold at Lexington to John Denman, of Colorado Springs, Col., for the reported price of $8,000.

—The Waco, Texas, Cotton Palace Association has purchased a block in which to locate the palace. The exposition will be open to the public about the 1st of October.

—Mike Bowerman, of Lexington, has issued a challenge of $1,000 to match his pair of mares against any double team eligible to the 2:19 class, in the world, three in five.

—A new species of sharper has struck Western Kentucky. He secretly feeds whisky soaked corn to a farmer's hogs and then offers his services to cure them of what he calls the "reeling bots." He usually charges $30.

—Oklahoma is destined to become a great fruit growing country. The young territory now has 683,000 growing apple trees, 648,000 peach trees, 69,000 cherry trees, 51,000 pear trees and a great variety of other fruit trees and vines of every description.

—The annual production of eggs in the United States is estimated at over 600,000,000 dozen. Estimate the price at 15 cents per dozen and you have $90,000,000. Taking poultry and eggs together you have a total annual production of $740,000,000.

—Our traders are engaging lambs for June delivery at 5 cents. Dealers are only offering 12½ cents for wool, and mutton is correspondingly low in price. Baughman Bros., of Boyle, sold to H. A. B. Marksberry 9,000 pounds hemp at $4 delivered this week.—Lancaster Record.

—Receipts of eggs Monday and Tuesday, as compiled by the New York Mercantile Exchange, foot up 52,777 cases, equal to 1,588,864 dozens, or 20,266,368 eggs, the largest number ever received in two days. Dealers hung out signs, "Twenty-three eggs for 25 cents."

—D. B. Clayton, of Lewisburg, Tenn., recently bought of John S. Robinson, of this county, 15 long yearling mules, and 20 short yearling mules, the pick of his two lots, at $40 per head, all around, and four short yearlings of F. P. Jones at $45. Dave Walter has bought quite a lot of lambs for July 1st, delivery at 5 cents and a few for May 15th.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—J. S. Wortham, of Leitchfield, has announced his candidacy for Congress against Hon. A. B. Montgomery.

—Hon. Joe M. Kendall has announced himself a candidate for Congress in the 10th Kentucky district against Representative Lisle.

—A Philadelphia brute, enraged because his baby would not stop crying, opened the stove and threw it in, so horribly burning it that it died in a short time.

—Two of the men implicated in the attempt to kidnap Olive Kraft, at New Albany, have been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary and $25 fine. The case has a local interest here because John Cain, formerly of this county, told on the rascals.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Five people were killed and one injured by an explosion of dynamite near Pittsburgh.

—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian church will convene at Nashville May 17.

—The meeting at the Methodist chapel in East Maysville closed last week with 175 conversions.

—The Southern Baptist Convention will meet in its 49th session Friday, May 11, in Dallas, Tex.

—From April 1, 1893 to January 1, 1894, the American Baptist Missionary Union sent out 61 new missionaries to the foreign fields of the society.

—Rev. Sam Jones emphatically denies the report that he has gone over to the Baptists, exclaiming: "No! Not by a long jump. Methodist till I die."

—The Salvation Army has secured the largest beer garden in Atlantic City, and proposes to turn it into a hall for Sunday afternoon and evening meetings. The army reports a total of 5,250 conversions for last month, this being the largest yet.

—Rev. George H. Robbins, pastor of the Lincoln Park Baptist church, Cincinnati, had a cross and the American flag placed on the church spire last Sunday. This is said to be the first instance of the kind that has ever occurred, and it ought to be the last. Bro. Robbins is either a fool or a knave.

—The union revival which has been in progress at Falmouth for 11 weeks, goes on, says the Democrat, with unabated interest, and the end is not in sight. The pastor of the Baptist church baptized 31, and the pastor of the Christian church 23, while the other denominations have had many additions.

—Rev. H. Fulton, of Forsythe county, N. C., attempted to hang himself with a blind bridle last week. His wife found him suspended from a beam in his barn. When she cut him down the would-be suicide remonstrated, saying: "In a few moments I would have been in the New Jerusalem." "Yes," replied the enraged woman, "you would have looked nice in there with a blind bridle around your neck!"

—The chancel of the Christian church was beautifully ornamented with flowers and evergreens Sunday in celebration of Easter and the song service arranged for the occasion was unusually fine. Eld. W. E. Ellis' sermon was an eloquent argument based upon the preponderance of the evidence that Christ arose from the dead, an event that brought redemption to a sin-cursed world and deliverance from the power of death. All of the seats in the church were filled and many had to occupy chairs in the aisles.

—The looked-for death of Rev. W. H. Munnell occurred Thursday night at his home in Louisville. He was 54 years of age, and had quite a checkered career as lawyer, editor and preacher. While he was editing the Louisville Democrat, Rev. George O. Barnes held a meeting in Louisville and Mr. Munnell became greatly interested in religious work. He gave up his paper and opened Central Mission, where it is said over 1,000 souls were converted during his ministry. He was twice married, his last wife, who survives him, being Miss Nannie Abbott, a former Paris belle.

—The late Chief Justice Stone, of Alabama, was held in high esteem as a man, as well as in great repute as a jurist. He served on the bench for more than 50 years, in that time deciding more than 2,400 cases.

—It took a woman in Brooklyn, N. Y., to discover from a casual acquaintance with Miss Pollard that "she is the most polished and consummate liar I have ever met." But in another part of her interview she admits that she "never met Colonel Breckinridge."—Richmond Register.

—As the total production of sugar in the United States in 1890 was only 227,000 tons, it would be cheaper to buy all of it and dump it into the Gulf of Mexico than to put a protective tax on imported sugar because of it. Once on the free list always on the free list!—New York World.

—Prof. Richard L. Garner, who went to Africa to learn the language of the gorilla and chimpanzee, has returned to New York. He spent over four months in a cage in an African jungle, where he had abundant opportunity for observation. He has learned six or eight words of monkey language and says there are about 40 or 50 words in the gorilla vocabulary.

—The G. A. R. meets in Pittsburg, Pa. in September and the local executive committee has already announced that hotel rates with a three days' limit can be secured from $1.50 to $5 per day; lodgings from 50 cents to $1 per night, and railroad rates from one fare for the round trip to one cent a mile. To avoid delay and annoyance, hand satchels should be used for baggage. Free quarters will be furnished in school-houses and other buildings upon application.

—I will receive and open this week a nice line of hats for early spring wear, and kindly solicit the patronage of town and country. Mrs. H. L. Steger.

H. C. RUPLEY,

Merchant Tailor.

Is Receiving His

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS.

Goods Warranted and a Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Give me call.

NEW STOCK.

I have about completed my stock of goods which is composed of

Hardware, Groceries, Stoves, Queensware, Iron Wagon Material,

Plows, Salt, Lime, Cement, &amp;c., all bought at the lowest CASH PRICE, and having no old stock to carry, I am able to give prices that will be

TO YOUR INTEREST.

To Investigate. Appreciating the favors shown me heretofore I again ask a share of your patronage. Respectfully,

W. H. HIGGINS.

BENNIE WEAREN, Clerk.

—SEND US YOUR ORDER FOR—

Northern Seed Potatoes,

—D. M. Ferry's—

GARDEN SEEDS,

In bulk and package,

ONION SETS AND FLOWER SEEDS

Hoes, Rakes, Spading Forks, &amp;c.

White-wash Brushes, Scrub Brushes, Mops, &amp;c. See that new Ice Cream Freezer we have before you buy.

McKINNEY &amp; HOCKER.

NEW CASH STORE.

ON EAST MAIN STREET.

You can save money by examining my new stock of goods and paying Cash for

Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots, shoes, Hardware,

Tinware, &amp;c. You are invited to call. I will endeavor to deal fair with you and will appreciate your patronage. My goods are all First Class Staple goods and will be sold at a SMALL PROFIT FOR CASH.

Call and see me, look through my stock and you will agree that you can save money by trading with me.

J. C. FLORENCE.

McRoberts' Drug Store,

Opposite Court-House

"HOME AND FARM" PAINTS,

A Complete Stock of

DRUGS, BOOKS, PAINTS,

Nicest line of Stationery and Toilet Articles. Prescriptions accurately Compounded. Give him a Call.

W. B. McROBERTS,

Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

DR. S. G. HOCKER, DRUGGIST.

The Drug-Store Opposite the Myers House is the place to buy your

Drugs, School Supplies,

School Books, Glass, Paints, Oils, Spectacles and Sundries of all kinds, Liquors for Medical Purposes.

The Best Goods For The Least Money.

Call and see us.

DR. S. C. HOCKER, The Druggist.

Stanford Female College.

J. M. HUBBARD, A. M., President.

Spring Session Tuesday, January 23d, 1894.

Full corps of Conservatory and Normal School teachers. Superior courses in Literature, Music and Art. Excellent boarding department. Catalogues and circulars furnished on application.