EVERY thing was in readiness when we went to press for the banquet to be given last night by Rev. D. M. Walker's Bible class. The ladies of the Christian church have labored incessantly for the past three days in their effort to make the occasion a success and the prospects are they have succeeded beyond the expectations of the most sanguine. Walton's Opera House is beautifully arranged and decorated and the tables where 150 can be served at one time are indeed things of beauty. A band from Lexington had arrived to make music and many people had gathered to sit at the festal board. The occasion promised to be one long to be remembered.

BEST.—Mrs. Lucy C. Best, aged 83, mother of Mr. Thomas D. Best, of Moreland, died at his home Sunday and was buried at Richmond Monday. She was a daughter of the late Thomas C. Bronston, of Madison county, a sister of Thomas S. Bronston, who was collector of this district, and an aunt of Charles J. Bronston, who died at Lexington a few months ago. She had been a devout member of the Christian church for 68 years and was a most excellent woman. The many friends of Mr. Best sympathize with him in his loss.

M.; at Moreland 29, 2:30 P. M.; at Hustonville 29, 7:30 P. M.; at Stanford 30, 10 A. M. and 2 P. M.; at Crab Orchard 30, 7:30 P. M. Miss Lelia Patridge, of Richmond, regular speaker. THE HUSTONVILLE FIRE.—Our Tuesday's paper told of the disastrous fire which occurred at Hustonville between 9 and 10 o'clock Monday night. The supposition is that a lamp in A. B. C. Dinwiddie's stable exploded and started the conflagration, which caused his stable to burn, and reduce to ashes the stores of C. W. Adams, Lipps & Peavyhouse, Lipps Sisters, M. Cohn, the telephone exchange and a blacksmith shop. The entire loss is $15,000 or more with the following insurance: George Dinwiddie $500 on stable occupied by his brother, A. B. C. Dinwiddie; A. B. C. Dinwiddie $1,000 on horses, rigs and feed; C. W. Adams $3,000 on stock, furniture and building; Lipps & Peavyhouse, $1,000 on stock; Lipps sisters $375 on stock. The buildings occupied by Lipps & Peavyhouse and M. Cohn were owned respectively by Rev. G. W. Mills and Mr. V. B. Morse. The loss falls heavily on those who were in the wake of the fire's vengeance and they will feel the effects of it for some time to come. Mr. Adams lost heavily from the fire of some seven years ago but had recuperated when the second visitation came upon him. Much sympathy is felt for the losers by their friends here, who hope and believe that they will all be able to "cut and come again."
