A Weekly Newspaper.

BEREA, KENTUCKY.

Special Notice to Our Readers.

This paper is on file at the office of The Chicago Inter Ocean, 106-108-110 East Monroe Street, Chicago, where our readers will be courteously greeted who may care to call upon The Inter Ocean for a tour of inspection and sight-seeing through its magnificent building, in which can be found every mechanical and scientific improvement of the age in connection with the needs of a great newspaper. It is a rare treat to any one interested in the subject and should be taken advantage of.

THE BENNETT LECTURES.

Berea has been specially favored this week.

Mr. R. J. Bennett, of Chicago, delivered a series of three lectures in the Berea Church-house. On Sunday night the topic was "Egypt, the Land of the Pharaohs"; on Monday night, "Washington, Our Federal City"; on Tuesday night, "Switzerland, the Mountain Republic." The lectures were illustrated by the very finest stereopticon views ever exhibited in this region, in fact it would be difficult to surpass them. The lantern was managed by Mr. Bennett, Jr., son of the lecturer.

The lectures were especially interesting as well as instructive, and show the lecturer to have a faculty for close observation and a fine memory for intelligent detail. The stereopticon could not have been better managed, there was no hitch, the pictures talked, and plainly too.

Mr. Bennett and son are not properly to be considered as being gratuitous.

Services to Berea were entirely gratuitous. The lecture on Sunday night was free, the small fee charged for Monday and Tuesday nights went to pay a deficit on the portraits hanging in the Chapel.

QUEEN CITY vs. BEREA.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 14, 1901.

The cleanest game of foot ball the Queen City team has played this season was pulled off last Saturday at Berea. The Berea Team played a fair, gentlemanly game from beginning to end, and when time was finally called had rolled up twenty-nine points to the good while Queen City failed to score.

Berea played a fast, snappy game, avoiding even the suggestions of the duty playing that is a disgrace to any team and an injury to foot ball generally.

The Berea boys, although they have been handicapped this season by the fact that they have had no regular coach, are to be congratulated for the excellent foot ball they put up on Saturday last.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, RALPH S. MEYERS, 64 Thirty-seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by S. E. Welch, Jr.

Farm Fences.

Bad fences have been a trouble to every rural community from the earliest history to the present day. Neighborly rows and feuds and aggravating litigation and even bloodshed have resulted from defective fences. Wooden fences, whether of rails, poles or boards, are a standing menace to the public peace wherever they exist, and but little better is a wire fence that does not effectively serve its purpose. There are nowadays a large number of patterns of wire fences ready made and sold in rolls ready to be unrolled and nailed to posts. Some of these are good, and some are better, and some are almost perfect. A really good wire fence may cost more to begin with than a wooden one, but on account of its durability alone it is far cheaper.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by S. E. Welch, Jr.

JAPANESE IN A WRECK

Nearly Forty Laborers Mangled Without Warning.

FREIGHT STRUCK A WORK TRAIN.

Tea Killed Overnight, Three Fatally and the Others Severely Hurt—Victims Were at Breakfast at the Time of the Crash—Cars Smashed Into Kindling Wood.

Blair, Mon., Nov. 19.—Ten men lost their lives and 28 others were seriously injured in a wreck on the Great Northern railway near here. An extra freight train ran into a work train, and it was among those on board the latter that the terrible havoc was wrought. Forty-one Japanese laborers were aboard the work train, which was proceeding westward. It expected to meet the freight at Culbertson. There is a sharp curve near where the trains met and they were running at a speed of 25 miles an hour. So great was the force of the impact that the freight cars were thrown upon top of the work train, which was piled high in a mass of wreckage. Almost immediately flames broke forth and added to the horror of the scene. Those unfortunates immediately started to work to rescue those imprisoned in the wreck, those dying groans and piteous appeals for help spurred on the workers.

At the time the accident occurred the Japanese were at breakfast, and before they were aware of the impending danger the cars were smashed into kindling wood and the dead and dying men buried beneath the heap of wreckage. Of the entire number in the car but three escaped death or injury. After an hour's work all had been accounted for. There were 10 dead bodies alongside the track and several men so badly injured that it is probable they will die. It was impossible to check the progress of the flames, and soon several of the work cars and three freight cars were in ashes. Word was sent to Glasgow for a relief train and doctors, and as soon as they reached the scene the work of caring for the injured began.

Smack With All Hands.

Halifax, Nov. 18.—The terrible gale which has been raging on the Newfoundland coast during the past three days has carried death and destruction in its track. Shipping has suffered severely as a result of the storm and many lives have been lost. A private dispatch which reached Londonburg, C. B., states that the Norwegian steamer Ella, under charter to the Black Diamond company, had been lost on the Newfoundland coast in the vicinity of Belle Isle, with all hands. The steamer left Montreal on Friday with a general cargo for St. John's. She was 901 tons register and was built at Sunderland in 1898. She was on her last trip of the season on the 15th. She carried a crew of about 20 men.

Hay Paucetote Treaty.

Washington, Nov. 19.—The new Hay-Pauncetote treaty was signed by Secretary Hay for the United States and Lord Pauncetote, the English ambassador for Great Britain. The principal point of difference between the new and the former treaty is the withdrawal by Great Britain from the joint guaranty of the neutrality of the canal, thus leaving the United States the guarantor. The existence of the old provision respecting the right to fortify the canal leaves that right by inference optional with the national States. All commerce of whatever nationality passing through the canal will fare alike. The treaty will be submitted to senate for ratification.

Confessed to Embezzlement.

New York, Nov. 16.—A shortage amounting to sixty thousand dollars has been discovered in the accounts of the Williamsburg Savings bank, an institution conducted at Williamsburg, in the suburbs of Brooklyn. General C. V. Meserole, the president of the bank, is authority for the statement that the parties implicated in the affair are Harry E. Corbett, a former paying teller of the bank, who died Nov. 2, and George Zolleinhofer, 60, a receiving teller, who, it is alleged, gave the first information leading to the discovery. The bank is fully protected, it is said, by the bonds of both Corbett and Zolleinhofer.

Secretary Long's Recommendations. Washington, Nov. 16.—The keynote of the annual report of Secretary Long for 1901 is "increase"—an increase in both the number of ships and the number of officers and sailors for the navy. "The navy today," he says, "is a far greater factor in our relations with the world than it was before the recent national expansion, which now includes Porto Rico, the Hawaiian Islands, the vast area of land and sea in the Philippines and our obligations to Cuba. If we are to have a navy at all it must be commensurate with these great extensions—greater in international than in territorial importance."

Town Fire-Swept.

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 16.—The business portion of Newkirk, the county seat of Kay county, O. T., was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $60,000. Newkirk has no fire protection because of a lack of a water-works plant. The fire was caused by the explosion of a gasoline can in a restaurant. The loss is only partly covered by insurance.

Lumber Yard Burned.

Sturgeon, Wis., Nov. 15.—Fire cleaned out the Pankraz Lumber company's yard, which contained thousands of feet of lumber belonging to the Milwaukee Lumber company and a large quantity of shingles, the property of the company. The loss is estimated at $40,000, fully insured.

BIG RAILWAY DEAL

Involving Lines in the Northwest Hundreds of Millions Capital.

New York, Nov. 14.—There were two important developments in the railroad situation in the northwest, and both tended to confirm the existing belief that a final basis of settlement of the contest for the control of the Northern Pacific had been, indirectly agreed to. Final ratification of this agreement will bring into existence the greatest and most effective example of the community of interest idea as applied to the railroad systems of the country. The first of the developments was the incorporation at Trenton, N. J., of the Northern Securities company, with capital stock of $400,000,000, and the second was the unanimous adoption by the Northern Pacific directors of a resolution providing for the retirement at par of the company's preferred stock on Jan. 1, 1902. It was generally understood that the company formed was to take over and control the shares of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern railways and their leased lines. J. P. Morgan and J. J. Hill are back of the deal.

Kitchener's Dispatch.

London, Nov. 16.—General Lord Kitchener, in a dispatch to the British war office dated Pretoria, Nov. 15, says that a strong patrol of yeomanry, while reconnoitering at Brakspruit, near Zwartkops in the Transvaal colony, about 140 miles west of Pretoria, was surrounded by 300 Boers and lost six men killed and 16 wounded. Some of the troops were captured, but were subsequently released. The rear guard of Colonel Byng's column was attacked near Heilbron, Orange River Colony, Nov. 14, by 400 Boers, said to be under the command of General Dewet. After two hours' fighting the Boers retired, leaving eight dead on the field. Of Colonel Byng's column Lieutenant Hughes and one man were killed, while three officers and nine men were wounded.

British Crew Attacked.

London, Nov. 18.—An extraordinary demonstration of pro-Boerism is reported by a Brussels newspaper. It seems that a Dutch fishing boat belonging to Ymuiden, while off Wellington lights in the North sea, pretended to be in distress and approached a British smack. Thirteen fishermen from the Dutch boat boarded the British craft and attacked the crew of the latter, shouting "Long live the Boers." Several of the Britishers were wounded. It is alleged that, before making the attack the Dutchmen locked their captain in his cabin. The British smack succeeded in escaping and arrived at Ostend, where the captain lodged a complaint with the British consul.

GOLDEN SLAG

Overwhelms a Party of Workmen, Mistake of Comrades.

Homestead, Pa., Nov. 18.—A party of workmen were buried under a mass of molten slag at the Howard axle works. John Ruska, 50, Homestead, is dead, and Andrew Huls, 33, and George Siski, 59, of Homestead, are badly burned. The accident occurred on the cinder dump of the company's plant. The victims were engaged in collecting scrap when a party of workmen at the top of the dump, about 20 feet above, dumped their cars over the edge, not knowing that the men were directly beneath them. The car contained about eight tons of slag, a great part of which was red-hot and much of it in a molten state.

Battle With Bank Robbers.

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 18.—John Sundblad was shot and killed in a battle with Greenview bank robbers at Albert City. He was one of the prominent merchants of Albert City. Constable Lodine was shot in the groin and is in a critical condition. A robber, who was shot in the stomach, is dead. He refused to give his name or the names of his assistants, but he admitted that they had robbed the bank. Two men, a negro and a white man, also admit robbing the bank. They gave their names as Jack Johns and Louis Brooks.

Dutch Troops Captured by Boers.

Middelburg, Cape Colony, Nov. 16.—One hundred and eighty district mounted troops, composed largely of Dutchmen, with their arms and horses, have surrendered to Smut's command. The district troops fired most of their ammunition at long range and then refused to fight further. Captain Thornton, their commander, believes their surrender to have been prearranged.

Rathbun's Admission's

Louisville, Nov. 13.—According to the police, Newell C. Rathbun, who confessed that he planned to defraud an insurance company out of $4,000 by pretending that a corpse shipped to Little Rock, Ark., was his own dead body, has admitted, according to the authorities, that the man who accompanied him to the hotel in Jeffersonville, Ind., and was found dead next day, was Charles Goodman, who is said to have come from Evansville. Rathbun denies the murder. He is at present in the jail at Jeffersonville, and will be tried on a murder charge.

An Official Shift.

Nashville, Nov. 19.—Official announcement was made here that Nathaniel Baxter, Jr., has tendered his resignation as president of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company. Mr. Baxter will become president of the Cumberland Coal and Coke company, the capital stock of which is $2,000,000.

Fatal Fall.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 18.—Dennis Pattilo, the 16-year-old son of J. H. Pattilo of Bonnettsville, was standing up in a wagon driven by his brother John when a sudden jolt threw him out backward on his head. When the brother reached him he was dead. His neck was broken.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON VIII, FOURTH QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, NOV. 21.

Text of the Lesson, Isa. v. 8-30—Memory Verses, 11, 12—Golden Text, Isa. v. 22—Commentary Prepared by the Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1901, by American Press Association.]

Since the serpent persuaded man to believe that he was wiser than God the majority of people have walked in that way—that is, in their own wisdom, in their own way, the way of selfishness, self-seeking, self righteousness, self glorification and renunciation of God. It is not strange that the world, lying in the wickedness of men, should have been judged one day (John v. 19, R. V.), should be judged, but it does seem strange that the professing people of God, who are called in this chapter His vineyard and His people (verses 4, 7, 13, 25), should so dishonor God. Those who would find only a so-called temperance lesson in this chapter are something like those who find nothing in all the Bible but how to be saved. The book is called "The vision of Isaiah concerning Judah and Jerusalem" (chapter 1), and therefore the first application of its words must be to them. The summit of the whole book is seen in such passages as verse 16 of our lesson, chapter 11, 17, and similar passages. "The Lord alone shall be exalted."

17. This passage shows the special care of Israel, and how instead of good fruit to His glory they gave Him only wild grapes and unrighteousness instead of righteousness. The same story of base ingratitude is set forth in our Lord's parable of the wicked husbandmen in Math. xxi, 33-45.

18. That which is here set forth as joining house to house and field to field that they may be in some sense the only people on earth is very manifest today in the so-called "trusts" which have become so prominent in these last days. It would be well if none who hear the name of Christ were mixed up with these things. The Lord of Hosts hears and sees it all, and His complaint in Hag. i, 9, is still the same. The remedy is in Math. vi, 33.

19. From morning until night it is sought but self indulgence, and in chapter xxvii, 7, it is written that the priest and the prophet, those who should be wholly for man before God and for God before man, have erred through strong drink and are swallowed up of wine. Our verses say that they regard not the work of the Lord, neither consider the operation of His hands. The same statement is found in Ps. xxviii, 5, and the result stated. "He shall destroy the kingdom of God which they have built." If the adversaries can only turn from the work of God and thus turn from Himself, he has accomplished much in his life.

20. A horse bondage then that of Egypt and a worse bondage than that which affects only the body comes upon them, "not a famine of bread nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord" (Amos viii, 11, 12). A terrible humiliation must come, for the Lord of Hosts shall be exalted in judgment and the Holy God shall be sanctified in righteousness (verses 16, margin). The kingdom of God shall come, and all iniquity shall be put away (Dan. ix, 24) not only in Israel, but in all the world. Happy are all who have a foretaste of the kingdom in their hearts and lives now.

21. Iniquity takes such a strong hold upon some that they actually mock God and dare Him to do His utmost against them. Like the antediluvians they say: "What doth God know? What can the Almighty do to them?" (Job xxxi, 13, 17, margin). They say: "Where is the promise of His coming?" All things continue as they were. Because they will not believe God they are willfully ignorant of what has been and what will be (1 Pet. iii, 3, 7). These are not drunken with wine, but with their own pride and self conceit and unbelief.

22. Wise and prudent in their own eyes, not knowing that they are deceived by the wicked one, they, like Eve, think that to be good which God has said they must not eat, and they count it desirable. These are the people from whom our Lord said that the things of God are hidden (Math. xiii, 35). It is written in Prov. xxvi, 12, "Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit, there is more hope of a fool than of him." The word of God can be received only by the meek, the teachable (1 Th. ii, 2; Zech. iv, 13, 14).

23. Wine and strong drink muddle men's brains and blur their vision and make them to care only for their own present reward, no matter who may suffer thereby. Children regard not parents nor parents their children. The husband thinks not of his wife nor the wife of her husband. All is lost sight of in the craving for drink when once this habit has obtained control. But there are many who never touch strong drink yet are so drunken with their own intense selfishness that they cannot think of aught but how they may be pleased and how some one else may add to their comfort.

24. A sudden end shall come to all their glory, and they shall find themselves in trouble from which there is no deliverance "because they have cast away the law of the Lord of Hosts and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel." According to chapter viii, 20, margin and R. V., there is no morning for such people—that is, the morning of joy, of His coming, of the kingdom, will mean nothing to them (Ps. xlii, 14, xxxi, 5, xxxv, 6). For they will have only the blackness of darkness forever. We do not know that the rich man of Luke xvi was ever given to strong drink, but he was drunken with his own thoughts and possessions, and he died and found himself in torment.

25. This is a look onward to the gathering of all nations that He may by them humiliate Israel and then judge the nations and deliver Israel and establish His kingdom on the earth. Compare especially Joel iii, 1, 2, 15-17; Zeph. iii, 8, 9; Isa. lxvi, 18, 19, 20; vi, 3, margin; Isa. lxvi, 18, 19, 20.

26. The Lord of Hosts hath purposed to stain the pride of all glory and bring into contempt all the haughtiness of the earth" (Isa. xliii, 9). The proud will come, but the unrighteous will not see it. No drunkard nor sinner of any kind, continuing in sin and doing in the same, can ever inherit the kingdom, but every drunkard, liar, murderer or ordinary sinner who with true penitence turns from his sin to the only Saviour of sinners, the Lord Jesus Christ, shall in novice be cast out, but shall be washed, sanctified, justified, by the precious blood of Christ and by that greatest sacrifice ever heard of in the universe made fit for the presence of God and made a joint heir with Christ Himself (John vi, 37; 1 Cor. vi, 9-11; Rev. v, 9, 10).
