TEACHER'S SALARY SCHEDULE OF JACKSON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FOR SCHOOL YEAR, 1922-23

The salary schedule must be made by the County Board of Education and submitted in duplicate to the State Board of Education for approval by the State Board before teachers' contracts are made; and an approved schedule must be in effect before any payments are made to teachers.

No teacher can be legally employed who does not hold at the time of his employment a proper legal certificate which will not expire during the term for which he is employed.

The first 25c of the county school levy must be devoted exclusively to supplementing teachers' salaries, or as much of it as is needed to meet the salary schedule and the minimum salary law. In those counties where the 25c levy when added to the state per capita is not sufficient to meet the minimum salary law, the county board may pay a lower salary than the legal minimum.

Salaries in no county ought to be uniform, but the salary paid should have a direct relation to the teacher's preparation and experience.

This salary schedule must be kept posted in the county superintendent's office, and must be published in the local paper. It must be made the basis and a part of the teacher's contract.

The salaries of all teachers employed by the county board of education, whether teaching in the elementary schools of the county or in county high schools, will be based on the following:

"What's in a Name?" By MILDRED MARSHALL

Facts about your name; its history; meaning; whence it was derived; significance; your lucky day and lucky food

WINIFRED

WINIFRED has the fanciful interpretation of "White Stream." It sounds strangely reminiscent of forest glades and pagan elves, but it is really derived from Welsh religion. According to legend, a Welsh nun, named Gwenfrewi was beleaguered by a furious prince called Caradoc because she refused his addresses. After the fashion of most Welsh saints, she caused a well to spring up over the place of her martyrdom.

This well does not flow continually, but it has medicinal values and its stones are said to be red-veined with the blood of the saintly nun. She was called by the English St. Winifred and as Winifred, or Wenfred, was accepted by Wales in place of the somewhat unpronounceable Gwenfrewi. Indeed, her popularity in Wales was so tremendous that she became almost the national Welsh name.

The Saxons had a Winfrith, which meant "friend of peace," which is frequently confused with Winifred, and is sometimes used interchangeably with it. Winifred has never gained the vogue here that she has in England. But Winifred, the diminutive, is popular in America, which loves contractions and endearments. Curiously enough, none of the European countries have adopted the name or placed the stamp of their influence upon it. It remains purely a product of the British Isles. Freda is another contraction which is popular in this country. Whether the German Frieda is allied with this is an open question with etymologists.

The beryl is Winifred's talismanic stone. It assures her amiability and gives her unconquerable charm, according to an old prophecy. It is said that no one wearing a beryl will lose in litigation. It also awakens love in married people. To dream of it signifies happiness in store. Friday is her lucky day and 2 her lucky number.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 8

THE BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT.—Luke 1:1-3; 40-52.
GOLDEN TEXT.—And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.—Luke 2:52.
REFERENCE MATERIAL.—Matt. 1:18; 2:23.

PRIMARY TOPIC.—The Boy Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC.—The Boyhood of Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC.—Jesus at Home and at School.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC.—The Religious Training of the Young.

I. The Birth of Jesus (vv. 1-7).
1. Time of (vv. 1-3). It was at a time when the Jews were coming under the Roman power. It was a most propitious time for the introduction of the gospel. The whole world was under one rule, making it possible for ministers to go from place to place easily and without molestation.

2. Place of (vv. 4-6). Bethlehem, as the prophet had foretold 700 years before (Micah 5:2). God moved the emperor to enforce the decree of taxation in time to cause Mary to be at Bethlehem.

3. Circumstances of (v. 7). His surroundings were of the most humble sort. The Almighty Creator condescended to take upon himself humanity—to be born in a manger, becoming the poorest of the poor that none might be hindered from coming to Him.

II. The Birth of Jesus Announced (vv. 8-20).

1. To Whom (vv. 8, 9). The shepherds who were watching over their flocks by night. The glorious gospel message was first given to laboring men.

2. By Whom (v. 9). The first gospel sermon was preached by the angel of the Lord. The angels have part in making known the gospel to lost men. These glorious beings no doubt deeply sympathize with fallen, sin-cursed men.

3. The Nature of the Message (vv. 10-14). It was good tidings of great joy. It was good tidings because the way of salvation was about to be opened for all—Jew and Gentile. So glorious was this news that a multitude of the heavenly host accompanied it with a song of praise. It is through Jesus Christ that God's kindness and good will are made known to man.

4. The Shepherds Witnessing (vv. 15-20). They made a prompt investigation of the angel's message.

III. The Child Jesus Growing (vv. 40-52).

Jesus Christ was divine, but His deity did not interfere with His development as a human being. The processes of His physical, mental and spiritual growth were the same as those of any normal human being.

1. Jesus Tarrying Behind at Jerusalem (vv. 40-43). At the age of twelve years a Jewish child took his place as a worshiper in the temple, for he was considered a "child of the law." Being conscious of His mission when His mother and Joseph were returning from attendance at the Passover, Jesus tarried behind to enter the temple and inquire into the meaning of the ordinances of God's house.

2. Jesus Found in the Temple (vv. 44-47). When His mother and Joseph had gone some distance on their journey they perceived that Jesus was missing and sought for Him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances. Not finding Him there they returned to Jerusalem, where they found Him in the temple. (1) He was "sitting" (v. 46), showing that He was no passing visitor or sightseer. He was perfectly at home in His Father's house. (2) He was "hearing" (v. 46). He was hearing the teachers of God's Word. This shows that He was eager to learn God's will. (3) He asked questions (v. 46). His growing mind was inquisitive. It more than received what was taught; it inquired after it. (4) He answered questions (v. 47). His answers showed great wisdom, such as to astonish those who heard Him. Yet we should not surmise that He was consciously displaying His wisdom. It was not an exhibition of His divine wisdom, but the expression of the workings of a perfect human mind suffused by the Holy Spirit.

3. Mary's Complaint (vv. 48-50). She remonstrated with Him for His behavior. To this He replied in a dignified, yet tender manner. He made no apology, showing that He was more than the son of Mary.

4. Jesus' Obedience (v. 51). Though He was fully conscious of His divine being and mission, He lived a life of filial obedience.

5. Jesus' Development (v. 52). (1) Mental. He "increased in wisdom." (2) Physical. He "increased in stature." (3) Spiritual. He "increased in favor with God and man."
