rests, towel rack, and every up-to-date feature imaginable. You want it, because it will cook any dinner and not heat the room. No heat, no smell, no smoke, no coal to bring in, no ashes to carry out. It does away with the drudgery of cooking, and makes it a pleasure. Women with the light touch for pastry especially appreciate it, because they can immediately have a quick fire, simply by turning a handle. No half-hour preparation. It not only is less trouble than coal, but it costs less. Absolutely no smell, no smoke, and it doesn't heat the kitchen.

The nickel finish, with the turquoise blue of the enameled chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

SHAFT UNVEILED; CROSSES GIVEN

LIVING AND DEAD CONFEDERATES ARE HONORED.

By Paducah Chapter U. D. C., and Walbert Camp U. C. V., in This City.

VERY IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.

To the memory of the Confederate dead, the handsome granite shaft in Oak Grove cemetery was unveiled yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. Several hundred were present, although the threatened rain prevented a large attendance. After the unveiling of the monument, the oration of the day, a splendid address by the Rev. W. T. Bolling, was delivered. Crosses of honor were bestowed upon 32 veterans by the ladies of Paducah W. D. C. chapter, following an oration by Col. R. J. Barber.

The monument erected by the Paducah chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy and the James T. Walbert camp of Confederate veterans is a pretty piece of work. The shaft, of Vermont Barre granite, is seventeen feet high, and is erected upon a sloping base. The simple inscription, "Our Confederate Dead, 1861-1865" is carved in the granite. The flags covering the base were drawn aside by Little Miss Willie Eleanor Gardner and Little Miss Myra Gilbert.

In the splendid address glowing with eloquence, Dr. W. T. Bolling, the orator of the day, paid tribute to the sleeping soldiers in whose memory the monument was erected. Throughout his address was touched with personal reminiscences of the war that made it the more appreciated by the veterans. Dr. Bolling paid deserved tribute to the soldiers that lost their lives in the conflict, but added praise to the soldiers who returned from the war and began the work anew of building up a devastated country. In a short time, he said, the thin lines of the gray would vanish completely, and then their only hope was that the brave Daughters of the Confederacy would perpetuate their memory. In closing he paid an able tribute to the daughters of the Paducah chapter for the erection of the monument. With material things he said it would be impossible to erect an appropriate monument to the women of the south and the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Colonel Barber, following the address Col. R. J. Barber delivered an oration on the honor of wearing the cross of honor. He advised his comrades that it was a treasure not to be purchased with gold, and should be appreciated the more. He said the gathering was one of peace, one to pay the respect to their departed comrades by whose side they had fought.

At the roll call, the crosses were pinned on the veterans by Mrs. Roy W. McKinney, president of the Paducah chapter, Mrs. Luke Russell, Mrs. Hal Walters and Mrs. R. Baker. Upon the completion of the program the veterans returned to the monument where a group picture was made.

Besides the local veterans there was a liberal sprinkling of veterans from Fulton and Benton. From Fulton there were: J. A. Collins, G. W. Moss, J. H. Blair, R. A. Browder, T. B. Baker, J. Samuels, Henry Taylor, Mike Taylor, B. W. Cross, Mrs. Laura Brower, Mrs. Charles Fields, Mrs. George Kirkland, Mrs. George Pearce and Mrs. Harriet Murrell. From Benton there were: J. D. Eley, B. Castleberry, W. H. Nance, James Oliver, T. K. Wood, J. P. Bryant, H. M. Wade, H. Simpson, Jesse Darnall, Newt. Castleberry.

Are You Getting What Is Due You?

Among Investment Securities Generally Recognized as Conservative, the 8% Stock of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company Stands at the Very Top

Why are certain securities on the Stock Exchange List regarded as conservative for investment purposes?

Because they give the highest returns possible consistent with safety to the investor.

In any investment there are two things to consider—the rate of interest and the degree of safety. Generally speaking, the lower the rate of interest the higher the degree of safety, and vice versa.

Beyond a certain point in returns, investing ends and speculating begins.

Investing assures reasonable profit—with minimum risk.

Speculating promises larger profits—but entails greater risk.

If you cannot afford to lose, you will do well to choose for investment those securities whose perfect combination of profit and safety entitle them to be classed as "conservative."

Tobacco Market.

Louisville, June 4.—The tobacco market was unchanged today. The daily report shows: Dark, 51; original inspection, 41; reviews, 3. Total, 51. Rejections yesterday, 27. The Dark House sold 30 hogsheads at $6.40 to $11.25, with 10 rejections. The Central House sold 21 hogsheads of dark at $6.40 to $11.25.

Livestock.

Louisville, June 4.—The receipts of sheep and lambs were 4,336; for the week thus far 10,962, as against 1,508 for the same days last week. 39,829 for the same days last year and 16,247 for a corresponding period two years ago. The market continued firm and active on choice lambs, the bulk of the best going at 8 1/2 @ 9c, according to trim, and a few very fancy lambs bringing a slight premium over the top quotation; seconds sold at 6 1/2 @ 6 3/4 c; cul's 5 @ 6c. Fall lambs 6c down; best fat sheep 4 1/2 c down; bucks 2 @ 4c. There are not near enough good lambs coming to supply the order trade, and all indications point toward the fact that Louisville will be the best lamb market on the map from now on.

Hogs.

The receipts of hogs were exceptionally small, only 328 head; for the week thus far 6,334. The market opened slow and 10c lower on all grades; selected hogs, 30 pounds and up, selling at $9.35; light pigs, $8.35; roughs, $8.65 down. The pens were well cleared and the market closed steady, at the decline.

Cattle.

The receipts of cattle were very light, 27 head, a total for the week thus far of 2,234 head. The buying

Bad BLOOD

"Before I began using Cascarets I had a bad complexion, pimples on my face, and my food was not digested as it should have been. Now I am entirely well, and the pimples have all disappeared from my face. I can truthfully say that Cascarets are just as advertised; I have taken only two boxes of them."

sheetings are in moderate request and bleached goods are selling somewhat more freely. New lines of underwear for spring are being opened and a new price list on cotton cloth has gone into effect. In men's wear, stock goods are being offered and purchased at favorable prices for buyers. A better inquiry had developed for certain lines of cheap dress goods for immediate and future delivery. The yarn market rules quiet, but cotton yarns show more firmness. The trend of dry goods trading in primary circles is conservative, but generally speaking, values are showing a firmer tendency.

Footwear conditions continue decidedly unsatisfactory. New orders received through salesmen on the road and by mail are of small volume and reserve orders in the hands of many New England manufacturers are running very low. Trade in leather is unsatisfactory and some tanners are making concessions to clean out some accumulations of undesirable lines. A dull and weak market continues in all kinds of hides.
